Unreal!

Contemporary works in the State Art Collection

Overview

Artists create wonderful places and spaces that often challenge the viewer. Sometimes they encourage us to question our preconceptions; what is it that the artist is trying to communicate? Join a Volunteer Gallery Guide for an exciting adventure through the Contemporary State Art Collection. Explore artworks in a variety of styles and media to stimulate the imagination. To complement the concepts introduced in the tour, students can create an artwork with an Education Officer to enhance and extend the educational experience. This program can be adapted to suit the needs and abilities of all students and is suitable for all inquisitive school visitors.

Before you visit

Select a variety of artworks that challenge the students.
Encourage them to brainstorm words and ideas that the artworks evoke, then discuss their reactions and responses. Talk about the process of creating art. Look at the 'how?', 'why?' and 'where?' Collect reproductions of artworks and arrange them thematically to explore the different ways artists create art. Which are the most effective and why? Discuss why the students will be visiting the Art Gallery to look at original artworks. Create a list of art words to encourage the use of arts language. Develop an imaginative and creative narrative about an artwork. Devise a dance, musical or theatrical piece as a response to an artwork. Present this performance in such a way as to encourage an Art Gallery visit.
