

WHICH ROLE SUITS YOU?

WHAT DO I WANT TO GET OUT OF VOLUNTEERING?

AGWA Ambassadors are passionate about art, they are friendly and outgoing and are excited to share in our visitors' Gallery experiences. They will gain customer service experience and be a public face for the AGWA community.

Knowledge Gatherers have an interest in marketing, audience development and Gallery operations. They will gain valuable experience that could assist with a career in the arts industry.

AGWA Experience Ambassadors are interested in facilitating a more fulfilling Gallery experience and may have an interest in event management. They may be seeking out-of-hours volunteering experience.

WHAT IS MY SCHEDULE?

AGWA Ambassadors

AGWA Ambassadors are expected to commit to a minimum of one shift during Gallery hours per fortnight. The gallery is open every day but Tuesday.

Morning shifts run from 10am to 1.30pm

Swing shifts run from 11am to 2.30pm

Afternoon shifts run from 1.30pm to 5pm

Knowledge Gatherers

Knowledge Gatherers are expected to commit to a minimum of one shift during Gallery hours per fortnight. The gallery is open every day but Tuesday.

Knowledge Gatherer shifts begin at 11am and run until the quota of surveys completed has been reached.

AGWA Experience Ambassadors

AGWA Experience Ambassadors are expected to commit on a rotational basis to one morning or afternoon shift in the Imagination Room on Wednesdays and Sundays, with additional shifts available in the school holidays.

If available, you may also be called upon to help with AGWA's calendar of programs and events and to assist the Education Officer with preparations for workshop delivery.

Morning shifts run from 10am to 1.30pm

Swing shifts run from 11am to 2.30pm

Afternoon shifts run from 1.30pm to 5pm

Evening shifts run from 5pm to 8.30pm

Workshop schedule is dependent on bookings

