

ARTBAR Season 2012

Now in its fourth year, ARTBAR brings four nights of international and national acts to the Art Gallery of Western Australia.

Opening the 2012 season on Thursday 5 July will be acclaimed singer/songwriter Tim Finn, founding member of iconic New Zealand band Split Enz and one time member of Crowded House.

August will see Triple J favourite Owl Eyes performing songs from her Faces and Raiders EPs, along with her newest release Crystalised.

Showcasing in October will be award winning star of stage and screen Paul Capsis, who will take you on a journey with rock and pop songs from David Bowie, Pattie Smith, Lou Reed, Prince and more.

Closing the season in November, outside on the Gallery wetlands stage, will be Australia's premier singer/songwriter Josh Pyke. Known for his ability to weave intelligent lyrics with warm melodies and quirky song structures, Josh Pyke is a modern-day storyteller not to be missed.

Starting later this year to coincide with Picasso to Warhol: Fourteen Modern Masters, all ARTBAR ticket holders can enjoy free entry into the exhibition, prior to the main performance, on the night they attend.
