Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia
13 November 2015
We believe art matters, that it is meaningful and that it should be shared.

The Art Gallery of Western Australia was founded and acquired its first work of art in 1895. Today it is established by the Art Gallery Act 1959 and is part of the Culture and Arts portfolio.

The Gallery, the oldest visual arts organisation in the State, is housed in three heritage buildings located in the Perth Cultural Centre. The main building was completed in 1979, and in 1995 the adjoining Centenary Galleries — which were originally the Perth Police Courts — were opened. The historic Barracks building houses the administration offices, the theatrette and the Voluntary Gallery Guides areas.

The Gallery collects and maintains the State Art Collection which currently comprises over 17,000 works by Western Australian, Australian and International artists. AGWA is committed to providing access to the visual arts and delivering programs that connect, stimulate, involve, educate and entertain.

The State Art Collection is developed, displayed and preserved to ensure that the Art Gallery of Western Australia maintains the finest public art collection in the State. Through the Collection displays and programs the Gallery continues to support access to art, heritage and ideas locally, nationally and internationally now and for future generations.
We embrace the freedom of the frontier and the freedom to push boundaries.

We aim to be the centre of art in Western Australia and one of Australia’s most influential arts advocates.

We aim to inspire our visitors and encourage them to reach out, investigate and discover through the display of Your Collection, stimulating exhibitions and associated programs. We strive to be the heart of the arts in Western Australia, stimulating conversations and providing new ways of looking and thinking about the visual arts, remaining one of the Australia’s most influential arts advocates.

We celebrate Australian art and artists by sharing their vision and voice with our audiences. We present Western Australian art alongside that of the rest of the world, staging conversations between the local, national and international. We are particularly committed to presenting Indigenous stories through the language of visual arts, respecting and valuing that the culture and arts of Australia’s first people are integral to our identity.

Everything we do begins and ends with our knowledge and experience and our wish to bring enjoyment, challenge and excitement grounded in artistic freedom, curatorial integrity and commitment to represent artistic visions. At the same time, we are determined to evolve, explore new directions and push beyond the boundaries of the unexpected.

We are committed to developing an equitable and diverse workforce that is representative of the Western Australian community at all levels of employment. Indigenous Australians, young people, people with disabilities and people from culturally diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply for positions at AGWA.
OVERVIEW

Chair’s Foreword

The 2014–15 year has been one of renewal, with the Board working with the Director, Dr Stefano Carboni, and his team on a manifesto which underpins the Gallery’s plans and program of exhibitions. On behalf of the Board I would like to acknowledge our staff and volunteers and thank them for their efforts throughout the year.

AGWA has now defined a strong vision for the future which will guide the strategies applicable to future exhibitions, collecting, programming and marketing. The Gallery aims to present Western Australians and visitors to the State the finest art of the region, the nation and of the world. In doing so, it will aim to provide leadership to the visual arts sector in Western Australia, to foster relationships providing support to the Gallery, and to plan for the future by maintaining and developing infrastructure.

During the year the Board set up a Review Implementation Steering Committee to follow up on recommendations contained in a report compiled by the Public Sector Commission. The aim of this review was to ensure that AGWA's activities are properly reflected in its internal administrative workings, and to that end the Gallery’s operational structure is now aligned around three core capabilities: artistic programs, audience engagement and management.

I must also mention that arrangements have now been made for the Chairs of the various arts agencies adjoining the Perth Cultural Centre to meet on a regular basis. This will enable us to review matters of mutual interest concerning activities undertaken within the precinct and neighbouring premises.

As part of its goal of providing leadership to, and building relationships with, the visual arts sector in this State, in April the Gallery launched a new Western Australian artists program, consisting of a dedicated gallery space for the commissioning and presentation of existing and new Western Australian works. This presents the opportunity to offer our visitors unique art experiences which will showcase and promote the State’s creative talent.

It was pleasing also that the Gallery was able to present the major exhibition Mariko Mori: Rebirth in partnership with the Perth International Arts Festival as part of the Festival’s visual arts program. Mariko Mori is one of the world’s leading contemporary artists.

This year saw two members leave the Board when their terms expired. My predecessor Fiona Kalaf in December 2014 after serving 11 and half years on the Board — the last four and a half as Chair, and Trish Ridsdale at the end of March 2015, after three years. I thank...

each of them for their wise counsel and valuable work. I welcome the appointments during the year of Andrew Forrest, Seva Frangos and Jason Ricketts.

On behalf of the Board I also thank the Foundation Council, led by Chairman Adrian Fini, together with members of the Foundation, for the contribution they make to the Gallery. Thanks go to former Chairman, Andrew Forrest, and I welcome new members Lyn Beazley, John Bond, Andrea Bux-Horwood, Sandy Honey and Paul O’Connor. With the support of the Foundation, our donors and lenders, the Gallery has again been able to acquire some outstanding works for the State Art Collection.

Thanks must also go to my Board colleagues for their commitment, and I also offer my thanks to our sponsors, benefactors and partners for their generosity and support.

On behalf of all of us at the Art Gallery of Western Australia I take this opportunity to thank the Hon John Day, MLA, Minister for Culture and the Arts for his support, and that of the Government of Western Australia.

OVERVIEW

Director’s Report - The Year in Review

Stefano Carboni
Director

There is no question that the period July 2014 – June 2015 was a challenging one for the Gallery, as we reinvented our main exhibition program at short notice. However, I firmly believe that the inner strength of our organisation lies in the way it reacted positively to the challenges that are thrown at it and, despite the obstacles, we produced some very positive results.

2014 was therefore a time for us to refocus, to look to our core mission, who we are, what we stand for, who we exist for and what difference we make in the community. This was a useful and an exciting process which involved not only all my staff, but also peer reviewers and outside advisors.

At the beginning of 2015 we launched the year’s exhibition program, which provides us with the opportunity to take the first step in AGWA’s transition to becoming an art museum that is first and foremost vision-led and audience-focused. At that launch event I shared with the media and our stakeholders a document which I entitled “The Essence of AGWA” — a clear, simple, dynamic and powerful statement of what we are and where we wish to go. This document can be found at Appendix A.

The 2015 exhibition calendar is very inclusive and diverse: from showcasing local talent to broadening our horizons by presenting the art of Australia alongside that of our international counterparts, to stimulating ideas and encouraging conversations, we will strive to provide a hub for visual artists in Western Australia.

I look forward to working with my staff and the Board as we continue on this new course and direction, which I am confident will deliver rewarding results.

Collection

One of AGWA’s most important roles is the development of the State Art Collection. Our aim is to ensure it remains Western Australia’s greatest visual art asset, and that it ranks amongst the best collections in the country, celebrating local distinction and global ambition. Through the Collection, we wish to bring to the people of Western Australia, and its visitors, the best of historical, contemporary and Indigenous art.

In 2014–15 we have used our exhibition program to highlight the strength of the Collection. We celebrated 25 years of the Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation with an exhibition of some of the most important works acquired with funding from the Foundation. We highlighted the strength of our contemporary acquisitions through the AGWA-based Collection shows IMPACT, new passports, new photography, and presented the family-friendly Animal Ark which demonstrated the Collection’s depth.

We have also introduced two new concepts. The first, ‘WA Focus’, consists of a dedicated gallery space for the commissioning and presentation of existing and new Western Australian works, which will allow us to engage more closely with local artists, and encourage reflection on Western Australia’s place in the artistic world. The second new concept is ‘Screen Space’ and provides a gallery in which AGWA’s growing filmic acquisitions can be shown, with a different work being screened every two months.

Exhibitions

Some highlights of the exhibition program are listed in the Programs section of this report (page 33). In addition to these and the Collection exhibitions mentioned above, we had the opportunity to present – at quite short notice, and with generous assistance from arts benefactor Simon Mordant AM, who played a central role in bringing it to Perth – Lost Treasures of the Jewish Ghetto of Venice. This was a small yet exquisite display of 38 sacred objects which had been lost for decades following the fascist and Nazi period in Italy and World War II, after they had been hidden by a Jewish couple in Venice who never returned from the concentration camp. The objects were only recently discovered within the wall of the main synagogue during restoration work.

A full summary of our 2014–15 exhibition program can be found in Appendix F (page 174) of this report.

Programs

2014–15 again saw many innovative programming initiatives in support of the exhibition schedule. In November, to celebrate the Foundation’s 25th birthday, we partnered with ABC Radio National for the live broadcast of a panel discussion on the role philanthropy can, or should, play in the future of the arts. The discussion was hosted by Radio National’s Michael Cathcart, and I was joined on the panel by passionate Western Australian philanthropists and business leaders Michael Chaney, Helen Cook and Warwick Helmsley.

Over January and February we were able to open the Gallery rooftop on Friday nights to provide a bar and entertainment space to coincide with the presence of the Fringe World Festival in the Urban Orchard, opposite our front entrance in the Cultural Centre. This initiative proved extremely popular with every session being sold out, and visitors also taking advantage of viewing the Mariko Mori and new passports exhibitions. Making use of the roof space has been part of my vision for the Gallery since I first arrived, and it was very pleasing to see the success of this first small step in that direction.

Desert, River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now a six year project made possible through a partnership with Rio Tinto, launched its website at the end of 2014. This website is a growing online resource that will record and share the visual arts of the Kimberley as part of the most significant Indigenous cultural program undertaken by AGWA.

The Education and Public Programs departments have had another very successful year with strong visitation by school, tertiary and other groups for workshops and guided tours, and a range of other initiatives, some of which are also highlighted in the Programs section of this report. In support of the exhibition For Love of Country, which marked the Gallery’s contribution to Perth’s commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the First World War and the Australian Gallipoli campaign, family workshops were held to make poppies from recycled materials, culminating in a large installation of these flowers covering the curved staircase between the ground and first floors of the main Gallery building.

Acknowledgements

I express my sincere thanks to the many volunteers who make such a valuable contribution to the Gallery. To the Foundation, Friends of AGWA, and our sponsors, your continued support and involvement is very much appreciated. Thanks also to the many organisations and individuals who have partnered with us in order to provide a rich choice of programs in support of our exhibitions.

I am also thankful for the support of the Board, the Minister for Culture and the Arts, the Premier and the State Government.

In conclusion, I must express my warmest thanks and gratitude to all our staff for their creativity, innovation and dedication during the year, and especially for their participation in workshops and other initiatives which we undertook as we worked on our vision for the future.

Friends of the Art Gallery of Western Australia

The role of the Friends of the Art Gallery of Western Australia (FAGWA), an independent incorporated society, is to broaden the audience of the Art Gallery of WA and develop appreciation of art within the wider community by:

- Running events that complement the Special Events/Exhibitions run by AGWA.
- Providing opportunities for members to engage more fully with the permanent collection.
- Educating members in art through such activities as conservation tours, studio tours, lectures, visits to private collections and other arts related activities.
- Maintaining a database of people interested in the visual arts.
- Directly marketing to members and potential members offering opportunities to appreciate art, attend events, be aware of exhibitions, attend lectures and participate in art based activities.

In 2014 FAGWA received a grant from LotteryWest to establish an independent stand-alone website and to build a Customer Relationship Management System (CRM).

A dedicated FAGWA website will provide easier and more immediate access for our members. It will also provide an Events calendar and on-line booking service and a membership-subscription facility to allow members to manage their accounts, membership, book for events and pay via the Internet.

The CRM will allow us to manage interactions with current and future members, allowing us to use technology to organise, automate, and manage our interactions with our members. The new system will be live August 2015.

These initial measures are assisting in improving services to members and ensuring that systems are transparent and robust. The Friends’ office, which is in the AGWA’s Centenary Galleries building, is staffed wholly by volunteers.

Performance Management Framework

The Art Gallery of Western Australia is a statutory authority within the Culture and Arts portfolio, and its annual budget and outcome are included in the budget statements under the outcome for the Department of Culture and the Arts (DCA).

The Gallery services contribute within the portfolio framework primarily to the Government Goal of:

“Greater focus on achieving results in key service delivery areas for the benefit of all Western Australians.”

The Government Desired Outcome for the Gallery is that:

“Western Australia's natural, cultural and documentary collections [State Art Collections] are preserved, accessible and sustainable.”

The funds allocated to the Gallery to achieve its outcomes are allocated under the DCA service 4 ‘Art Gallery Services’. Art Gallery Services are identified as:

“Delivery of the State Art Collection and access to art gallery services and programs through visual arts advocacy, collection development, facilities and services. Services ensure that primary access to art, heritage and ideas locally, regionally and internationally are preserved and displayed for future generations.”

Key performance indicators have been developed in accordance with Treasurer's Instruction 904 to evaluate the Gallery’s performance in achieving the Government Desired Outcome and provide an overview of the critical and material aspects of service provision.

Key Performance Indicators

Preservation
- The extent to which the part of the State Art Collection that requires preservation is preserved.

Accessibility
- The number of visitors to the Gallery per head of population of Western Australia.
- The effectiveness of the Gallery in providing for the enjoyment and cultural enrichment of the people of Western Australia is shown by client satisfaction with Gallery art services.

Sustainability
- Value of State Art Collection renewal, content development and/or expansion as a proportion of Collection value.

Key Efficiency Indicator

- Average cost of art gallery services per Art Gallery access.
AGENCY PERFORMANCE

The Gallery’s Agency performance for 2014–15 is in line with the annual priorities and objectives set out in the Art Gallery of Western Australia Operating Plan and Budget which is within the framework of the Gallery’s Strategic Plan for 2011–16.

Collections

Strategic Objective: To attract, acquire and preserve the most significant art to enrich the Collection.

The Gallery’s key strategies in 2014–15 to meet this objective were to:

1. Strengthen and develop the Collection, with targeted acquisitions.
2. Grow the funding available to support acquisitions.
3. Research, manage, store and preserve the Collection to international museum standards.

Overview

The Gallery has the finest public art collection of Western Australian art and Indigenous art in the State.

At 30 June 2015, the State Art Collection comprised 17,352 works.

Outcomes

In 2014–15 the Gallery acquired 94 works of art at a value of $1,558,715, and was gifted an additional 9 works. Highlights include the acquisition of a superb landscape by the pioneering British modernist Spencer Gore, important paintings by the Western Australian Aboriginal artists Butcher Cherel and Queenie McKenzie, significant text-based works by Ian Burn, two videos by American artist Ryan Trecartin and works by Perth International Arts Festival-featured artist Mariko Mori.

During the year 116 works of art were introduced in to the Collection:
- 52% (38 artists) were works by Western Australian artists
- 34% (25 artists) were works by Australian artists
- 14% (10 artists) were works by International artists

94 purchases (totalling 81% of the acquisitions) were supported with funds:
- from the State Government
- the TomorrowFund
- the Leah Jane Cohen Bequest
- the Sir Claude Hotchin Art Foundation
- the Peter Fogarty Design Fund
- the Tom Malone Prize
- the James Welling Fund

See full list of acquisitions at Appendix ‘E’

This financial year saw an increase in outward loans, which markedly impacted on the workload of the Registration and Conservation Departments. Loans from the State Art Collection to State, national and international institutions, exhibitions and Government departments totalled 72 works.
Three works were loaned to international institutions: William Kentridge’s The Refusal of Time went to the City Gallery Wellington, New Zealand; Jessica Loughlin and Clare Belfrage’s glass works were included in the USA tour of Links Australian Glass and Pacific Northwest.

Twenty-one works were loaned to Australian institutions. Highlights included Robert Jacks’ Four strips lent to the Robert Jacks Retrospective at the National Gallery of Victoria; Robert MacPherson’s White Drummer: 15 Frog Poems (Mamaragan) to QAGOMA, Queensland; and John Perceval’s Angel standing on her head to the Delinquent Angel: John Perceval’s Ceramic Angels at Shepparton Art Museum, Victoria. Six works by four Indigenous artists Jimmy Tjampitjin, Sunfly Tjampitjin, John Tjapangarti, and Noel Tjapanangka were lent to the Warlayirti: the Art of Balgo at the RMIT Gallery Melbourne and Araluen Art Centre, Alice Springs. Eight jewellery works were lent to the exhibition A fine possession: Jewellery and identity at the Powerhouse, NSW.

Brett Whiteley’s The American Dream, Niki de Saint Phalle’s Black Beauty and Allen Jones’ Secretary were lent to the Pop and Popism exhibition at the Art Gallery of NSW. Martumili Ngurra by Nora Wompi, Bugai Whyoulter and Nora Nungabar was lent to the exhibition Martu Art from the Far Western Desert at the Museum of Contemporary Art, NSW.

Twenty-five works were loaned to Western Australian institutions — a highlight includes Pat Larter’s Runaway blues which was lent to Pat Later Vs Lola Ryan at the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery, UWA.

Twenty-three loans were made to the Department of Premier and Cabinet, Government House and the Anglican Church of Australia.

Fifty-seven long term loans to the Gallery were made from private and public collections.

Following on from stocktake activities in 2014–2015, recommendations were made to formally catalogue and accession a number of works that are in the Collection but which were not formally accessioned when they entered the Gallery. With the Board’s approval of these recommendations for works on paper in February, 20 works have been accessioned into the State Art Collection to date, with the aim to complete that collection in the new financial year. The curatorial team have commenced inspecting historical paintings located during stocktake but which had also not been accessioned, and will make recommendations in the next financial year.

Major conservation work was undertaken on American Dream over six weeks by the Painting Conservator, Maria Kubik, and intern Valentine Klaasen. This involved panel by panel re-touching and preparation for display. American Dream is a multi-panel and also multi-component artwork, and along with the large panels being crated many component parts required separate and specialised packing to travel. Supervised by Senior Objects Conservator David Graves, the Conservation Technician Claire Canham and Installation Technician Ian Bell secured many individual pieces for transport. These included the iconic 3D components of the nest and dove integral to the work. At 2.5m high this was a big project and the work was fully surface-cleaned by the Technician and key parts of the artwork were consolidated and treated by the Senior Objects Conservator.

Niki de Saint Phalle’s Black Beauty had a major surface clean together with other conservation work prior to the shipment of it and American Dream to the Art Gallery of New South Wales for the Pop and Popism exhibition, where American Dream in particular received much favourable publicity.

In addition to these two works, 20 others were condition checked, consolidated by conservators, packed, crated and sent to the galleries listed above. Packing artworks requires secure purpose-built archival boxes and housings to be constructed and fitted into crates that are safe and maintain the integrity of the artwork.

The jewellery pieces lent to the Powerhouse Museum for the exhibition A fine possession; jewellery and identity all required individual packing and fit out of crates along with condition reporting and minor treatments. John Perceval’s Angel a fragile ceramic piece, also required custom built packing and crating for safe transport.

The Framing Department made ready for display 366 works on paper for exhibitions, gallery changeovers, and loans, with works for the photographic exhibition new passports, new photography (many of them oversized) being a major undertaking. In addition, AGWA’s Anzac Centenary of Service exhibition For love of Country saw a large number of prints and works on paper receive minor treatments, remounting and framing for exhibition. During the year a new frame was hand-carved for the Tom Roberts’ painting Mrs Tom Roberts. Roberts’ wife Lillie, the subject of the portrait, was also his framer, and its new frame is modelled on one of Lillie Roberts’ designs.

Digitisation of works in the State Art Collection, which started in 2013–14, has continued this year, and where practicable works are photographed, colour-corrected and digitised as they are acquired, go on exhibition or go out on loan. These images are then incorporated into the Cumulus digital asset management database. Nearly 1,600 works in the State Art Collection have been digitised, and Cumulus contains almost 5,000 images. Integration of Cumulus with Vernon, AGWA’s Collection cataloguing database is now complete.

Programs

Strategic Objective: To deliver programs that connect, stimulate, involve, educate, and entertain our audience.

The Gallery’s key strategies in 2014–15 to meet this objective were to:

1. Deliver an annual program of displays, exhibitions and events.
2. Develop online access to the State Art Collection and AGWA’s program.
3. Develop audience engagement strategies and build advocacy in the Western Australian community for the State Art Collection and Gallery annual program.
4. Deliver an annual retail and commercial program.

Overview

AGWA provides broad access to the Western Australian community and visitors to the state, by means of a diverse exhibition program and many activities to support these exhibitions.

Use of digital technology and online information services through the website, the use of social media applications such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram make programs accessible to an even broader audience. Additionally, interactive technology and family-friendly spaces within major exhibitions provide an additional level of engagement for visitors.

AGWA’s Voluntary Gallery Guides continue to make a significant contribution to the visitor experience and interpretation of works in the State Art Collection and temporary exhibitions.

Outcomes

A total of 289,413 people visited the Gallery during the year, compared with 354,216 the previous year, a decrease which can be attributed to the reduced exhibition program in comparison with the previous year.

‘Virtual’ access to the Gallery continues to strengthen with AGWA’s website attracting 176,653 unique visitors. AGWA is active in the social media space, with a Facebook following of 20,582 — 34% up on the previous year), 18,064 (an increase of 18%) following us on Twitter, and 3,134 following us on Instagram (an increase of 103%).

AGWA continued to support its exhibition programs with entertainment offerings. These included the final performance in the 2014 ArtBar series (international and national acts combining people, art and live entertainment), which supported the Richard Avedon exhibition and attracted 717 visitors. A new initiative this summer was the opening up of the main Gallery building’s rooftop on four Friday nights over the summer, to coincide with the Fringe World and Perth International Arts Festivals.

This proved to be exceptionally popular, with every session selling out, and attracting a total of 1,077 visitors over the season. Additional guided tours of Mariko Mori: Rebirth were scheduled at 5:30pm and these were also very well attended. Much positive comment was received from visitors about their visit over these four Friday nights. Venue hire and exhibition opening night events attracted 7,210 people to the Gallery.

Throughout the year, AGWA offered its visitors a rich suite of exhibitions and Collection displays aimed at a wide and diverse audience. Some of the highlights are set out below.

Richard Avedon People

American photographer Richard Avedon produced portrait photographs that defined the twentieth century. The exhibition Richard Avedon People explored his photographic practice and included iconic portraits from the Richard Avedon Foundation collection. Avedon's work as a fashion photographer was ground breaking for its flair and dynamism. He also photographed cultural and political figures who strongly influenced life and society in the twentieth century and he created inspiring photographic portraits of performers, artists, writers and countercultural leaders. Avedon was also committed to the freedom of the individual in society and he produced captivating photographs of people on the streets of New York in the late 1940s, at Santa Monica Beach in the 1960s, and across the American West. By embracing the differences that make us who we are, Avedon's portraits are compelling for the time in which they were made, and for our own time. All the photographic prints in the exhibition were produced by Richard Avedon and his studio during his lifetime. Curated by the National Portrait Gallery's Senior Curator, Dr Christopher Chapman in partnership with the Richard Avedon Foundation, New York, Richard Avedon People was the first Australian exhibition of Avedon's work.

“Congratulations to all the staff here at the gallery, you always are so consistently friendly and knowledgable and make both my wife and my visits very enjoyable every time. Thank you.”

“Richard Avedon exhibition was so beautiful, it inspired me to buy a new camera and start photography again.”

“It was a great and honourable opportunity to see Avedon's work up close and personal. I study photography, and to attend this exhibition really inspired me and I appreciate portraiture even more.”

Australian Design: Ten years of the Peter Fogarty Fund

This display brought together works acquired through the Peter Fogarty Design Fund, which was initiated in 2004 by Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation Governor Dr Tim Jeffery in memory of his late partner Peter Fogarty. The Fund celebrates Peter’s life and enthusiasm for design by enabling the Gallery to purchase works by Australian craftspeople and designers not yet represented in the Collection. To date, Dr Jeffery’s generosity has accounted for the acquisition of more than 30 items, which have been truly transformative of the Collection, and formed the heart of all the Gallery’s craft and design acquisitions over the last decade. The display demonstrated the diversity of the works, and included jewellery, ceramics, glass, wall pieces, furniture, lighting and desk top objects. The Fund’s first acquisition was Debra Gurney’s plastic neo-Pop wall piece, and the most recent is Dinosaur Designs’ exhilaratingly colourful wall work and table. Also included in this display was jewellery by Mari Funaki, Cinnamon Lee, Helena Bogucki, Sally Marsland, furniture by Jon Goulder, Khai Liew, Dinosaur Designs, Korban/Flaubert, Penelope Forlano, Tomek Archer and Christopher Robins, ceramics by Kirsten Coehlo and Robin Best, glass by Jasper Dowding, stationery and vessels by DANIEL.EMMA, and knitted backpacks by Allysha Coghlan.

This considered combination of works by Western Australian, Australian and International artists, provided AGWA with the opportunity to celebrate recent acquisitions of contemporary photography around the theme of portraiture. It brought together over one hundred works — the majority on display for the first time — which explored how photographers use the camera to reflect, construct and challenge identity. The diversity and unique nature of the photographs in the exhibition also provided a reflection of current photography practice in Australia and abroad, and strongly demonstrated the Gallery’s focus and commitment to acquiring contemporary photographic works of art for Your Collection. The works in new passports, new photography ranged from soft, personal imagery to strong and powerful statements, from the intimate to the deeply political, and represented some of the ways identity is represented and self is shaped through this most accessible yet most challenging of contemporary art-forms.

Mariko Mori: Rebirth

Contemporary Japanese artist Mariko Mori is internationally renowned for her video, photographic and sculptural installation works. In Mariko Mori: Rebirth she transformed the gallery space into an immersive environment with installations, sound and video works, photographs and works on paper. Each piece forms part of an unfolding narrative which takes the viewer on a visual journey through time and space. In works such as Flat Stone 2006 and Transcircle 1.1 2004, Mori draws influence from the philosophies and physical monuments of Japanese ancestors from the Jōmon period (14,000–300 BC). This inspiration centres on the Jōmon belief in the cycle of life, death and rebirth, which forms an alternative perspective on the view of life and death as disconnected states of being. By placing contemporary art in the context of ancient cultures, Mori reintroduces the practices of early humans to the present as a way of reminding us of our past and our possibility for a non-materialistic connection with the natural world.

Voluntary Gallery Guides

The Voluntary Gallery Guides (VGG) have had another busy year, delivering a range of tours which increase AGWA’s accessibility to visitors.

There are currently 133 Voluntary Gallery Guides: 70 of these are Active Guides, who are required to design and deliver 28 tours per calendar year and attend fortnightly professional development and training sessions, and 19 are Associate Members who do not deliver tours but support the program by conducting research, maintaining the library and assisting with training and professional development. Associate Members must have been Active Guides for at least seven years before they can apply for this change in status.

This year the VGGs delivered tours as part of AGWA’s Education program to 6,017 school aged children, 542 tertiary students, 835 students studying English as a Second Language, and 1,291 adults.

In addition, 3,339 members of the general public visiting the Gallery took advantage of the daily Wesfarmers Walk-in Tours, including 440 Animal Ark Family Friendly tours, 28 Fringe Festival late night tours of new passports, new photography, and 334 late night tours of Mariko Mori: Rebirth. The guides provided their services to 1,536 invited guests at functions and events.

This year 20 Professional Development Sessions covered a range of themes, and highlights included walk-throughs of exhibitions: Richard Avedon with National Portrait Gallery curator Christopher Chapman, and Treasures of the Jewish Ghetto and the Tom Malone Prize with AGWA Director Stefano Carboni. Artists Abdul Abdullah and Helen Smith talked to the Guides about their art practice and with the advent of the new Screen Space gallery for filmic works, they undertook a workshop on guiding video works.

Forty-two guides have now attained Life Membership status, which is granted after 20 years of continuous active service to the Guiding program. Life Members are not required to deliver tours, but of this group seven are still actively touring and six are Associate Members, and in 2014–15 Mrs Noreen Hones and Mrs Trish O’Connor were elevated to Life Membership.

In February 2015, 16 new recruits commenced their training to become VGGs, undertaking a year-long course which to date has included nine workshops where they have learned how to select and use works of art appropriately for school group tours while also catering for the different curriculum and learning outcome needs. Their fortnightly three-hour training sessions also cover areas such as visual awareness, constructing a tour and guiding techniques. Each trainee is been assigned an active guide as a mentor to assist with their training.

“The guided tour of Avedon exhibition was fantastic. Very informative over a wide range of contexts. Well done! Keep up the good work - volunteer guides - you are amazing.”

“Came for a class visit — so impressed by enthusiastic and knowledgeable tour guides. They did a marvellous job.” — Visitor from Broome
“The guide was fantastic. I loved the Mariko Mori tour. I think the guide just adds that bit more to it. It was great to get some background information. I always try to fit in a tour when I’m in Perth.”

“I especially valued the informative free guided tour of the Mariko Mori exhibition. It added so much to my appreciation of this landmark exhibition.”

Education Programs

AGWA’s 2014–15 education program was extremely well supported with 15,982 students (primary, secondary, tertiary and those studying English as a second language) taking part.

From the middle of 2014, the Educators commenced a reworking of the State Art Collection tours and workshops on offer. In order to more closely align with the curriculum and in light of the introduction of the National Curriculum in a number of learning areas, it was necessary to redesign many of the tours and workshops and also introduce some new ones. New flyers were written and designed and uploaded to the AGWA website, where the tours and workshops pages were redesigned in an effort to make the information more visually appealing and easier to access. The program is now organised in different year levels and individual tours and workshops are grouped in learning areas and this has had a noticeable impact on uptake. The Educators have also noticed an increase in participation in these workshops by groups other than traditional school classes, for example by special needs students from schools across the metropolitan area and home school group networks, as well as adults from a range of different organisations and disability groups.

Monthly briefings for AGWA security guards which started in 2013–14 continued this year. The Educators delivered State Art Collection briefings, while a number of special exhibition briefings were presented by the voluntary Gallery Guides.

“The guards were very helpful and nice, they told me about the different paintings and showed me details I wouldn’t have noticed if they hadn’t shown me. Thank you.” — Visitor from Norway

“The guard in the Forrest gallery was so helpful and knowledgeable about some of the art. Thank you — it made my visit so much more enjoyable.”

The family activity space within Animal Ark proved very popular; parents and children were encouraged to write stories about one of the animals featured in the exhibition, to draw pictures of their pets, or use a magnet board to create images of animals using coloured pieces of vinyl. Didactic labels designed for families and children were incorporated into the design, and these labels were used to link with other works within the exhibition, thereby providing a path through the display. Family-friendly guided tours in weekends and school holidays were also well supported.

“We love the children-friendly activities. We really enjoyed bringing 5, 6, 7 yr old boys. They enjoyed it too. Oh and the staff were terrific.”

Three Education resources were written and produced during 2014-15, and made available for teachers to download and print from the AGWA website. The first was a small but comprehensive and well-illustrated resource that accompanied the exhibition Australian Design: Ten years of the Fogarty Foundation. A resource was also written to accompany the international exhibition Mariko Mori: Rebirth.

In January 2015 the inaugural issue of AGWA’s quarterly electronic Ed News went out to all teacher subscribers. The newsletter provides teachers with reminders about events and exhibitions and allows for more detailed current information about our programs. The aim of these regular communications with teachers is that they will come to expect the newsletters in their inboxes at the commencement of each term and thereby keep AGWA at the forefront of their minds.
Infrastructure

Strategic Objective: To enhance the visitor experience, access to and preservation of the State Art Collection with world-class facilities.

The Gallery’s key strategies in 2014–15 to meet this objective were to:

1. Deliver Building Renewal Capital Works Program.
2. Deliver improved facilities for storage, display, exhibition and events.

Overview

A key issue for the Art Gallery of Western Australia is the ongoing maintenance of its highly utilised buildings within a limited budget in order to ensure they meet visitor expectations and international standards for the display and storage of collections. An important consideration is that the Gallery buildings are all heritage listed and the Centenary Galleries and Administration building were not built for their current purpose or usage.

The capital works program for maintenance infrastructure supports renewal to maintain and enhance Collection displays and visitor facilities.

The Gallery contributes directly to improving regional facilities by working with the City of Greater Geraldton to implement the master plan for the Geraldton Regional Art Gallery re-development. When requested, AGWA also provides professional advice to support regional gallery development.

Outcomes

Throughout the year ongoing maintenance programs have ensured that key systems work effectively to maintain environmental controls essential for the safety and preservation of the State Art Collection and loan exhibitions.

This year has been one of investigation pending future funding. Two major areas of concern have been identified: the roof of the main Gallery building and the air conditioning in the Centenary Galleries. Consultants were engaged to identify the issues and work required to rectify deterioration to the main Gallery roof structure which had been identified when the building was re-clad three years ago. In addition it was concluded that the stormwater drainage system was insufficient for the roof space and that additional block work required repair.

Cost pressures across the collecting sector have prompted action regarding the need for flexibility in relation to climate control. A set of interim guidelines initiated by the Australian Institute for the Conservation of Cultural Material, endorsed by the Council of Australian Art Museum Directors, was tabled at the International Councils of Museums conference held in September 2014. There was general support for the need to conserve energy and costs, and the proposal will now go to the next conference of the International...
Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works Conference for further discussion.

The Gallery continues its commitment to more sustainable facilities management and has actively been making improvements to reduce utility usage. In 2014–15, with assistance from the State Government Infrastructure Improvement Program, AGWA has been able reduce electricity usage by a gradual change to LED light fittings and globes, which are not only energy-efficient but last considerably longer than those used previously.

The Art Gallery of Western Australia continues to work closely with the Metropolitan Redevelopment Authority (MRA) on improvements to, and master planning of, the Perth Cultural Centre, including potential redevelopment of the Art Gallery precinct. AGWA continues to collaborate with MRA to ensure participation and partnership in suitable public events aimed at adding vibrancy to the Cultural Centre. For example, the Urban Orchard, situated opposite the Gallery’s main entrance was again one of the main venues for the 2015 Fringe World Festival held in February, and this provided an opportunity for AGWA to remain open until 7pm on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings during the Festival season so as to be accessible to for after-hours visitors to the area.

Relationships

Strategic Objective: To build and foster relationships which grow support, advocacy, funding, and investment for the Gallery.

The Gallery's key strategies in 2014–15 to meet this objective were to:

1. Create a wide network through which support and advocacy are built and fostered.

2. Achieve sustainable ongoing Government funding for the Gallery's operations in order to meet required service delivery outcomes.

Overview

The Gallery continues to secure and strategically manage resources to support operations and activities through the Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation, the Friends of the Art Gallery of WA, strategic partnerships and new and ongoing sponsorships.

Outcomes

Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation

The Foundation places a very high value on its relationship with members and hosted a series of special events throughout the year. These included exclusive previews held before exhibition openings, tours with curators and Gallery guides, and the monthly Picture Club which allows Foundation members to expand their knowledge about the State Art Collection in a social setting. Gallery guides and arts specialists take participants on a monthly adventure through art to further develop their understanding and appreciation of the treasures in the Gallery.

Following on from the success of previous overseas art tours to Venice, New York and Istanbul, this year Foundation members at the level of Fellow and above were offered the opportunity to join AGWA Director, Stefano Carboni, on two tours — one interstate to Hobart and Melbourne in October, and the other to Berlin and Dresden in May. These visits, which again proved to be very successful, are fully funded by participating Foundation members.

Highlights included a behind-the-scenes tour of the Museum of Old and New Art (MONA) and the opportunity to meet with artists Julie Gough and Pat Brassington in Hobart. In Melbourne, there were special tours of the National Gallery of Victoria, Heide Museum of Modern Art and TarraWarra Museum of Art and meetings with artists Brent Harris and Andrew Browne. In Berlin, there were memorable visits to the conservation lab of the Museum of Islamic Art, the private Boros Collection housed in a WWII bunker and the Jewish Museum. The group also enjoyed a very special private tour of the Bundestag (Parliament building) and its art collection. In Dresden highlights were visits to the Gemäldegalerie, one of the most important collections of old master paintings in the world, and the recently reinstalled Green Vaults with the collections amassed by Augustus the Strong.

The Foundation provided funds to the Board for the acquisition of 89 works of art for the State Art Collection 2014–15.

Sponsorship makes a vital contribution to AGWA. The support of our corporate partners adds to important initiatives such as exhibitions, showcasing the State Collection, research and development projects, public programs and guided tours, and AGWA celebrations, openings and events.

The Gallery is grateful to each of its sponsors for the part they play in AGWA’s success and the importance they place in understanding the value of enriching the lives of their clients, their staff and their community through experiencing the stimulation and joy of art.

Annual Sponsors

AGWA’s Principal Partner, Wesfarmers Arts, leads the way in our community through their diverse support of art and culture. A financial supporter of the Gallery since 1990 and now AGWA’s Principal Partner, the relationship between AGWA and Wesfarmers Arts is continually evolving, and is distinctive for its collaborative endeavours and for the range and depth of benefits enjoyed by both parties. Wesfarmers understands the distinction and importance of both corporate philanthropy and corporate sponsorship. This is demonstrated through being one of the four lead corporate donors contributing $1 million to the AGWA Foundation’s TomorrowFund campaign in 2008, and through Wesfarmers Arts renewal of their Principal Partner sponsorship for the Gallery’s exhibition and public programs.

303LOWE forms part of AGWA’s creative team, providing valuable in-kind communications, design and advertising resources and advice.

Singapore Airlines — International Airline Sponsor has provided significant in-kind support for AGWA by way of international flight and cargo support. AGWA and Singapore Airlines also collaborate closely to promote key exhibitions to their employees and Singapore Airlines loyalty and privileged memberships, and throughout their international flying networks.

Audi is both an annual sponsor of the Gallery and the key sponsor of ARTBAR, the Gallery’s sell-out late night offering where art, entertainment, food and wine come together.

The Audi/AGWA partnership is an innovative and exciting sponsorship that allows AGWA to reach new audiences in new ways, with the ARTBAR driven by Audi brand inspiring other galleries around the country.

Gage Roads Brewing Company is the Gallery’s annual beer sponsor, providing us with in-kind support for all AGWA’s official openings as well as ARTBAR and our summer time Rooftop Bar.

Exhibition Sponsors

Ernst & Young, International Touring Exhibitions — Principal Sponsor has been a major supporter of key international exhibitions at AGWA since 2007, including being Principal Sponsor of the Gallery's exclusive five-year Great Collections of the World Series. EY is known for their support of the visual arts around the world, collaborating with AGWA to share the richness of each exhibition with clients, employees and their families and the community.

Year 12 Perspectives Exhibition

The Water Corporation proudly sponsored Perth’s popular annual exhibition, Year 12 Perspectives which reflects the Corporation’s vibrancy and community focus. Their sponsorship also includes the People’s Choice Award where members of the public have a chance to cast a vote for their favourite work.

Education Sponsors

The Education Department, the Curriculum and Standard Authority, and the Catholic Education Office. The Gallery is grateful for the generous support of all our Education Sponsors. Not only do they contribute financially to the Year 12 Perspectives exhibition but they are integral to the exhibition’s promotion, and circulate information to students and teachers in the WA schools community.

Special Project

Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now

Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now is a key Indigenous art focus for AGWA through to 2018. Funded by the Rio Tinto Community Investment Fund the project evolved out of two years research and consultation with Arts Centre Communities, Aboriginal elders and key community stakeholders in the Kimberley. Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now stems from AGWA’s strong desire to work with Indigenous peoples in new, engaging and mutually beneficial ways. Galleries and museums around Australia have for a number of decades developed a model of working with, and displaying the culture and creative material of, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. While such models have been instrumental in educating and celebrating these unique living cultures, they possess their own distinct set of limitations. Through the development of a model that specifically responds to the desires and aspirations of Indigenous art-makers throughout the Kimberley region of Western Australia, AGWA hopes to transform the way it connects with Indigenous Australia.

Through ongoing engagement with the Kimberley’s diverse art-making communities, AGWA is working with artists, art centres and arts workers to develop a rich and comprehensive online portal (desertriversea.com.au) which celebrates the visual traditions of the Indigenous peoples of this region.

Friends of the Art Gallery of Western Australia

To support the Gallery the Friends run guided tours of AGWA’s exhibitions, thus providing opportunities for members to engage more fully with both Your Collection and travelling exhibitions. The Friends also educate and inform members about the visual arts through such activities as visits to artists’ studios and private collections, lectures and film. They also support AGWA through social media and regular electronic newsletters to their members.

In 2014–15 the Friends hosted several well-attended tours of AGWA exhibitions including Richard Avedon People, Mariko Mori: Rebirth and Treasures of the Jewish Ghetto.

During the year Friends continued their series of lectures run in co-operation with Australians Studying Abroad (ASA), which again proved extremely successful with members.

Volunteers and Interns

In 2014–15 the Art Gallery of Western Australia had a total of 128 volunteers, comprised of 70 active Voluntary Gallery Guides, 50 volunteers who contributed to daily operations at the front desk, and other (many long-term) volunteers who assist with administration and research in various departments.

The Gallery now has a comprehensive and detailed role description for its front of house volunteers who assisting the Visitor Information Assistants to provide a world class visitor experience. In addition to regular shifts during opening hours, volunteers also contributed to special events, such as exhibition opening night functions, ArtBar and the Friday night Rooftop Bar during summer. The volunteers’ friendly and informative service is greatly appreciated by our visitors, as demonstrated by the high level of positive feedback we receive regarding how they enhanced visitors’ Gallery experience. Of the 50 volunteers in this area, there are 38 rostered volunteers, six relief volunteers, and six volunteers who assist specifically with visitor surveys. The current volunteer pool is made up of a diverse group, ranging from fine arts and arts management students wishing to...

gain real world experience, retirees, international students, and those who are looking to make a contribution to the Perth arts scene.

In addition, AGWA has also been fortunate to have the assistance of several student volunteers (from both local and overseas institutions) who are required to undertake a formal internship as part of their university course.

During the year the front-of-house volunteer co-ordinator undertook research into the roles of volunteers and interns in arts organisations and made recommendations to the Executive as to how the Gallery could improve its relationship with its volunteers and interns. As a result, a formal induction plan has been established for interns, with the aim of establishing a welcoming environment which will maximise the effectiveness of the volunteer/intern program, so that participants feel engaged in meaningful tasks. This approach assists both them and the Gallery to obtain maximum benefit from the relationship.

Sponsor and Corporate Events

Sponsors and corporate clients hosted events throughout the year. A wide range of organisations took advantage of being able to provide their guests with access to AGWA exhibitions in a social context. Nearly 300 staff from the Wesfarmers group enjoyed a private viewing of Richard Avedon People accompanied by a fashion showcase. The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade hosted 100 international guests from the G20 Development Working Group at a Welcome Reception where guests were able to view AGWA exhibitions throughout the evening. The Perth International Arts Festival Visual Arts launch event was held in conjunction with the opening of AGWA’s exhibition Mariko Mori: Rebirth, and attracted a crowd of over 530 people, and the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons hosted a dinner for national and international guests.

Performance

Strategic Objective: To build a reputation that attracts, and a culture and capability that retain, the best people.

The Gallery’s key strategies in 2014–15 to meet this objective were to:

1. Refinement, alignment and cross-Gallery implementation of AGWA’s internal and external brand values.
2. Improve organisational capability to deliver strategic plan.

Overview

In 2014–15 the first steps were undertaken to embed a new vision and future direction for the Gallery.

The Director’s vision for AGWA was distilled into a refreshed Essence of AGWA that was shared with the arts community and AGWA supporters at the 2015 program launch. This Essence of AGWA now sits at the heart of AGWA’s planning and brand development.

The Essence of AGWA and accompanying brand values were developed through a process that involved peer review of a white paper on AGWA’s strategic direction followed by staff workshops which allowed staff to actively contribute to the organisation’s future.

AGWA develops marketing and audience attraction strategies that are brand-driven, targeted and monitored for performance. This requires AGWA to ensure all functions are aligned with the brand personality and values, that visitors’ experience delivers on the brand promise, and that the Gallery champions audience and art in a balanced way.

The Gallery works collaboratively with national and international collecting institutions to identify program initiatives, partnership opportunities, and to explore operational efficiencies and shared services improvements.

Activities that will develop stronger links throughout the creative sector and assist AGWA to develop and grow are continually sought. These activities include developing public programs and conducting events that stimulate debate, discussion and understanding of the visual arts; providing support for training and development programs, and participating in various professional national and international museum forums to encourage and maintain communication, leadership development opportunities and alignment of business development initiatives in the public art museum sector.

The Gallery continues to secure and strategically manage resources to support the delivery of art gallery services to meet Government outcomes and deliver on the longer term goals of the strategic plan.

Outcomes

The Gallery undertook strategic marketing campaigns across 2014–15 to support the exhibition schedule and attract diverse audiences for program and events. Campaigns were initiated for Richard Avedon People, Animal Ark, Mariko Mori: Rebirth and Year 12 Perspectives.

Programming and marketing have been aligned to audience expectations by increased use of research data, including audience segmentation. During the year, the Gallery undertook membership research to further understand its audience and potential for connections.

AGWA’s 2015 program was launched at a function held the beginning of 2015, attended by key supporters and the arts community. This was a new initiative for the Gallery that will continue in 2015–16.

Professional development opportunities for staff were available though the Gallery’s partnerships in presenting international exhibitions. AGWA staff benefitted by working closely with curatorial and/or conservation staff from the National Portrait Gallery in Canberra, and the Richard Avedon Foundation in New York, and with Japanese artist Mariko Mori, who spent some time in Australia during the installation and opening phases of her exhibition, Mariko Mori, Rebirth. The close collaboration between AGWA’s Marketing Manager and her counterparts at New York’s Museum of Modern Art during the 2012–2013 series of exhibitions from MoMA culminated in a joint AGWA–MoMA presentation at the international Communicating the Museum Conference held in Sydney in October 2014. Members of the registration, curatorial and conservation teams regularly act as couriers for important artworks going on loan to national and international institutions.

Media coverage increases the prominence and standing of the Gallery in local and national audiences. Over 2,100 reports positively impacted the Gallery’s awareness and position across the year.
Regions

Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now

Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now is a six year $1.8 million partnership with Rio Tinto, which was initiated in 2013 and extends through to 2018. It encompasses research of Kimberley Indigenous artists, a commitment to knowledge exchange, and the creation of long-term relationships that will extend well beyond the duration of the project. It will culminate in a final exhibition and major publication.

From its inception, it was felt important that the project had a regional base. However the coordination of a remote-location, extended research project has inevitable challenges which have required flexibility and resourcefulness. The Broome Office is supported by two staff members (an Indigenous Community Liaison Officer/Project Co-ordinator and a Project Support Officer) who are at the heart of the operation. They have a core role of initiating and building on the relationships and informal networks indicated as an essential component of the project. Due to the vastness of the Kimberley region communications are often difficult.

For much of the 2014–15 year the Community Liaison Officer role was vacant, and the Project Officer, Geraldine Henrici took on responsibility for the majority of the work undertaken during the year, including the year’s highlight — the launch, in October of the dedicated Desert River Sea website (desertriversea.com.au), which is another key element of the partnership which will provide an overview of the Kimberley’s cultural landscape and will grow as the project develops. In March Philippa Jahn, a passionate advocate for Indigenous art, was appointed to the Indigenous Community Liaison position. Based in the East Kimberley for the past nine years, Philippa has managed art centres at the remote Kalumburu and Ringer Soak communities and has spent the past three years engaged in...

doctoral research into historical and contemporary art practice of the north Kimberley region.

Desert River Sea is designed to map current and emerging Kimberley Aboriginal art practices, enabling the Gallery to build on existing collection holdings that have documented the visual languages and traditions of the region’s Indigenous peoples and their significant art movements over the last four decades. At its heart, the project has a focus on collaboration and partnerships, with an ethos of supporting long-term and sustainable outcomes for Kimberley communities.

AGWA believes its role is three-fold. Firstly, to collate and share the art and stories that inform current and emerging arts practices in the Kimberley in order to celebrate the region’s creativity and diversity, through both the online research portal and a major survey exhibition at the end of the project. Secondly, to inform these stories through research activity and thirdly, to support artists and arts workers through the Visual Arts Leadership (VAL) Program. This sees Aboriginal artists and arts workers from across the Kimberley involved in the development of the project as it progresses, offering extended community networking and exposure to professional development opportunities.

This year’s gathering of members of the Visual Arts Leadership program took place in Broome in May 2015. This event focused on the conceptual and practical components of storytelling, particularly its place in visual art. Participants were equipped with skills to continue generating video content for their own art practice or art centre use, something which Desert River Sea also hopes to use for documentation and exhibition purposes.

As a practical gesture supporting Kimberley artists and art centres, the regional office is also developing the comprehensive Kimberley Aboriginal Art Trail Map. This guide identifies the major art producing centres of the Kimberley and will be available as a hard copy brochure as well as a downloadable PDF on the website.

In late 2014, AGWA brokered a partnership with the Western Australian-based Film and Television Institute (FTI) as part of their Indigenous Community Stories (ICS) project. This project uses high-definition digital video technology and professional film crews to create and preserve detailed records of the cultural practices and important historical accounts of WA’s Indigenous people. Realising the project has brought together two institutions with different organisational skills and common goals. A two-week pilot field trip in October 2014 targeted the East Kimberley. The film crew, coordinated by Geraldine Henrici and led by Indigenous Director Jub Clerc, recorded stories from 22 artists working out of Waringarri, Warmun and Yarliyi Art Centres. A second trip to Kalumburu in the North Kimberley is planned for July. This access to broadcast-quality film footage will enable AGWA to celebrate the region’s culture in a high-quality visual format through both the Gallery’s electronic portal and later public programs supporting the final exhibition.

The footage will be archived at the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS) in Canberra and the State Library of WA, with copies provided for the artists’ communities. Short promotional videos are also being produced for the Desert River Sea website, to initiate a better cultural understanding of Kimberley Indigenous art and culture in the lead-up to the exhibition at AGWA. Equally important, the videos will be used by the communities themselves: encouraging a sense of local cultural pride, acknowledging artistic merit, and for their own promotional use.
Geraldton Regional Art Gallery

Located in the heart of the City, the Geraldton Regional Art Gallery is housed in the former 1907 Town Hall and opened as the first West Australian regional ‘A’ class venue on 6 August 1984.

It continues to be managed by staff of the Art Gallery of Western Australia and is co-funded by the City of Greater Geraldton which also owns and maintains the facility.

On February 28 the Gallery re-launched the annual $45,000 non-acquisitive state wide Mid West Art Prize after a break in 2014, due to previously reported (2013–14 AGWA Annual Report) extensive renovations and upgrades to the building. The Mid West Art prize 2015 was opened by Geraldton born University of Western Australia Winthrop Professor Ted Snell, and it was both a success and a celebration with 480 people in attendance. The winner of the $20,000 overall award for excellence was Paul Kaptein for his sculpture piece, Everything is Nothing.

The aforementioned refurbishment project will ensure that this wonderful community facility will again operate as an ‘A’ Class venue for at least the next three decades and beyond. Critically, it now means that negotiations can commence with respect to borrowing key works from State and National sources such as the Art Gallery of WA and the National Gallery of Australia. The Gallery is also now also better equipped to care for the City of Greater Geraldton Art Collection with many new works now being acquired from the annual Mid West Art Prize.

The Gallery provides the delivery of art gallery services in regional WA through support and advice to local groups as well as presenting a diverse annual range of exhibitions. In this way, the Gallery aims to meet the artistic and cultural needs of the Mid West residents as well as state, national and international visitors. The Gallery conducts education and youth activities, including artists’ talks and children’s programs including the fourth annual Genesis exhibition that brings together student works from all five Geraldton Senior High Schools.

Gallery Director, James Davies was invited to speak to a number of corporate and private organisations throughout the year including;

2014 Museums Australia State Conference, The Batavia Coast Rotary Club, The Geraldton Greenough Rotary Club and Hot FM Radio during their annual valued customer corporate function as held at the Gallery as part of their ongoing sponsorship of the Mid West Art Prize.

The Gallery maintains a strong volunteer organisation that is estimated to contribute an in-kind dollar amount of $20,000 per annum. The current eighteen volunteers assist either through the week in customer service or at official opening via the service of food and/or beverages.

Care of Inside Australia

The Gallery continued to provide conservation support for Antony Gormley’s Inside Australia at Lake Ballard in the Shire of Menzies. As the first step in a large-scale rebasing project, a new base design for the sculptures was developed and prototypes manufactured. Testing of the new design has commenced at AGWA with onsite testing planned for later in the year.
SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

Significant issues impacting the Art Gallery

The following issues have been identified as those which will be at the forefront of AGWA’s consideration in the coming year.

- AGWA faces the challenge of continuing to organise and deliver outstanding major exhibitions within a rich and varied program which meets public expectations, is financially sustainable and embraces the recently released new vision statement, ensuring that the Gallery makes a dynamic contribution to the State through its services.
- Another significant challenge relates to managing the workforce in a tight budgetary environment. Whereas basic services are covered, usually by a single employee for each service, complicating factors such as financial liabilities tied to long-service leave clearance cause delays and prevent smooth progress and planning of all activities. The Gallery constantly applies creative ideas to minimise this challenge, while at the same time maintaining good staff morale and acceptable levels of delivery of programs.
- The Gallery manages a precinct which includes three heritage-listed buildings. These buildings are essential to the delivery of services to the community. The Gallery’s maintenance program focuses on ensuring the safety and security of the State’s collections held in these buildings, and the safety of staff and visitors. The key challenge is to maintain fit-for-purpose buildings so that contemporary art gallery services can be delivered. The Government has provided the Culture and Arts portfolio with $7.8 million funding over four years, starting in 2014-15, to support fit-for-purpose improvement projects.
- Planning for infrastructure improvements and developments, in particular storage facilities and display spaces to meet critical needs for storing and displaying the State Art Collection, is actively being pursued, in order to maintain international museum standards and meet visitor demand for services. The lack of adequate storage space has a significant impact on AGWA’s ability to display the State Art Collection.
- The successful conclusion of the TomorrowFund campaign in 2011, with government, corporate and private support, now allows AGWA to make significant acquisitions of contemporary art. The Gallery is developing strategies to improve funding for purchases in the area of historical and modern art and design in order to strengthen these areas of the State Art Collection.
- AGWA needs to deploy technology to create a more accessible and engaging experience for visitors, as well as improving the way it does business and the productivity of the workforce. This requires a comprehensive digital strategy backed by a budget which supports development and delivery of integrated audience engagement, communication, marketing, programming strategies and the online services that the community expects of a contemporary state art museum.

- Regional programs and activities involve a significant number of staff and resources. The Gallery employs the staff managing the Geraldton Regional Art Gallery and provides a grant for the activities of the Bunbury Regional Art Gallery. The Gallery is actively working with the Department of Culture and the Arts to deliver a strategic plan for more comprehensive regional outreach.

- The Desert River Sea six-year Kimberley art research initiative is ground-breaking with national significance and long-term benefits to remote Indigenous Western Australian communities. Delivered in partnership with Rio Tinto, it expands the platform for programming and offers opportunities to broker new alliances. Staffing and coordinating a remote office in Broome brings challenges of continuity in service provision and maintaining alignment to long-term project outcomes.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended 30 June 2015

Note 1. Australian Accounting Standards

General
The Board's financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2015 have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards. The term 'Australian Accounting Standards' includes Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB).

The Board has adopted any applicable, new and revised Australian Accounting Standards from their operative dates.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) General statement
The Board is a not-for-profit reporting entity that prepares general purpose financial statements in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards, the Framework, Statements of Accounting Concepts and other authoritative pronouncements of the AASB as applied by the Treasurer's instructions. Several of these are modified by the Treasurer's instructions to vary application, disclosure, format and wording.

The Financial Management Act 2006 and the Treasurer's instructions impose legislative provisions that govern the preparation of financial statements and take precedence over the Australian Accounting Standards, the Framework, Statements of Accounting Concepts and other authoritative pronouncements of the AASB.

Where modification is required and has had a material or significant financial effect upon the reported results, details of that modification and the resulting financial effect are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

(b) Basis of preparation
The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting using the historical cost convention, except for land, buildings and works of art which have been measured at fair value.

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements have been consistently applied throughout all periods presented unless otherwise stated.

The financial statements are presented in Australian dollars and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand dollars ($’000).

Note 5 ‘Judgements made by management in applying accounting policies’ discloses judgements that have been made in the process of applying the Board’s accounting policies resulting in the most significant effect on amounts recognised in the financial statements.

Note 6 ‘Key sources of estimation uncertainty’ discloses key assumptions made concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

(c) Reporting entity
The reporting entity comprises the Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(d) Contributed equity
AASB Interpretation 1038 Contributions by Owners Made to Wholly-Owned Public Sector Entities requires transfers in the nature of equity contributions, other than as a result of a restructure of administrative arrangements, to be designated by the Government (the owner) as contributions by owners (at the time of, or prior to transfer) before such transfers can be recognised as equity contributions. Capital appropriations have been designated as contributions by owners by TI 955 Contributions by Owners made to Wholly Owned Public Sector Entities and have been credited directly to Contributed Equity.

The transfers of net assets to/from other agencies, other than as a result of a restructure of administrative arrangements, are designated as contributions by owners where the transfers are non-discretionary and non-reciprocal. See also Note 37 ‘Equity’.

(e) Income
Revenue recognition
Revenue is recognised and measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable.

Revenue is recognised for the major business activities as follows:

Sale of goods
Revenue is recognised from the sale of goods and disposal of other assets when the significant risks and rewards of ownership transfer to the purchaser and can be measured reliably.

Provision of services
Revenue is recognised by reference to the stage of completion of the transaction.

Interest
Revenue is recognised as the interest accrues.

Service Appropriations
Service Appropriations are recognised as revenues at fair value in the period in which the Board gains control of the appropriated funds. The Board gains control of appropriated funds at the time those funds are deposited to the bank account or credited to the ‘Amounts receivable for services’ (holding account) held at Treasury. See also note 22 ‘Income from State Government’ for further information.

Grants, donations, gifts and other non-reciprocal contributions
Revenue is recognised at fair value when the Board obtains control over the assets comprising the contributions, usually when cash is received.

Other non-reciprocal contributions that are not contributions by owners are recognised at their fair value. Contributions of services are only recognised when a fair value can be reliably determined and the services would be purchased if not donated.

Gains
Realised and unrealised gains are usually recognised on a net basis. These include gains arising on the disposal of non-current assets and some revaluations of non-current assets.

Royalties for Regions funds are recognised as revenue at fair value in the period in which the Board obtains control over the funds. The Board obtains control of the funds at the time the funds are deposited into bank account.
(f) Property, plant and equipment and works of art

Capitalisation/Expensing of assets

Items of property, plant and equipment costing $5,000 or more are recognised as assets and the cost of utilising assets is expensed (depreciated) over their useful lives. Items of property, plant and equipment costing less than $5,000 are immediately expensed direct to the Statement of Comprehensive Income (other than where they form part of a group of similar items which are significant in total).

No capitalisation threshold is applied to works of art items. Items of works of art are considered to form part of a collection and are disclosed separately in the Statement of Financial Position.

Initial recognition and measurement

Property, plant and equipment and works of art are initially recognised at cost.

For items of property, plant and equipment and works of art acquired at no cost or for nominal cost, the cost is the fair value at the date of acquisition.

Subsequent measurement

Subsequent to initial recognition as an asset, the revaluation model is used for the measurement of land, buildings and works of art and the historical cost model for all other property, plant and equipment. Land, buildings and works of art are carried at fair value less accumulated depreciation (buildings only) and accumulated impairment losses. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Where market-based evidence is available, the fair value of land and buildings, and works of art are determined on the basis of current market values determined by reference to recent market transactions. When buildings are re-valued by reference to recent market transactions, the accumulated depreciation is eliminated against the gross carrying amount of the asset and the net amount restated to the re-valued amount.

In the absence of market-based evidence, fair value of land and buildings, and works of art are determined on the basis of existing use. This normally applies where buildings are specialised or where land use is restricted or where artworks are acquired to serve a community purpose. Fair value for existing use assets is determined by reference to the cost of replacing the remaining future economic benefits embodied in the asset, i.e. the depreciated replacement cost. Where the fair value of buildings is determined on the depreciated replacement cost basis, the gross carrying amount and the accumulated depreciation are restated proportionately.

Fair value for restricted use land is determined by comparison with market evidence for land with similar approximate utility (high restricted use land) or market value of comparable unrestricted land (low restricted use land).

Fair value for restricted use works of art is determined by reference its estimated replacement costs.

Land and buildings are independently valued annually by the Western Australian Land Information Authority (Valuation Services) and recognised annually to ensure that the carrying amount does not differ materially from the asset’s fair value at the end of the reporting period.
The most significant assumptions in estimating fair value are made in assessing whether to apply the existing use basis to assets and in determining estimated useful life. Professional judgement by the valuer is required where the evidence does not provide a clear distinction between market type assets and existing use assets.

The Gallery’s works of art collection is subject to a revaluation every five years, using a sampling methodology. As the collection is specialised and no market-based evidence of value is readily available, the revaluation methodology used is based upon certain criteria that enable the collection to be valued at a reasonable estimate of its fair value. The revaluation commenced in 2014-15 and is expected to be completed in 2015-16.

See also note 29 ‘Property, Plant and Equipment’ and note 30 ‘Works of Art’ for further information on revaluations.

De-recognition
Upon disposal or de-recognition of an item of property, plant and equipment and artwork, any revaluation surplus relating to that asset is retained in the asset revaluation surplus.

Asset Revaluation Surplus
The asset revaluation surplus is used to record increments and decrements on the revaluation of non-current assets as described in note 29 ‘Property, Plant and Equipment’ and note 30 ‘Works of Art’.

Depreciation
All non-current assets having a limited useful life are systematically depreciated over their estimated useful lives in a manner that reflects the consumption of their future economic benefits.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight line method, using rates which are reviewed annually. Estimated useful lives for each class of depreciable asset are:

- Buildings
  - 50 years
- Office equipment
  - 3 to 20 years
- Plant, equipment and vehicles
  - 4 to 20 years

Works of art controlled by the Board are classified as property, plant and equipment. These are anticipated to have indefinite useful lives. Their service potential has not, in any material sense, been consumed during the reporting period and no depreciation has been recognised.

Land is not depreciated.

(g) Intangible assets

Capitalisation/expensing of assets
Acquisitions of intangible assets costing $5,000 or more and internally generated intangible assets costing $50,000 or more are capitalised. The cost of utilising the assets is expensed (amortised) over their useful life. Costs incurred below these thresholds are immediately expensed directly to the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Intangible assets are initially recognised at cost. For assets acquired at no cost or for nominal cost, the cost is their fair value at the date of acquisition.

The cost model is applied for subsequent measurement requiring the asset to be carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses.
Amortisation for intangible assets with finite useful lives is calculated for the period of the expected benefit (estimated useful life which is reviewed annually) on the straight line basis. All intangible assets controlled by the Board have a finite useful life and zero residual value.

The expected useful lives for each class of intangible asset are:

- Software: 4 to 10 years

\(^{(a)}\) Software that is not integral to the operation of any related hardware.

Computer Software
Software that is an integral part of the related hardware is treated as property, plant and equipment. Software that is not an integral part of the related hardware is recognised as an intangible asset. Software costing less than $5,000 is expensed in the year of acquisition.

(h) Impairment of assets

Property, plant and equipment, works of art and intangible assets are tested for any indication of impairment at the end of each reporting period. Where there is an indication of impairment, the recoverable amount is estimated. Where the recoverable amount is less than the carrying amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to the recoverable amount and an impairment loss is recognised. Where an asset measured at cost is written down to recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognised in profit and loss. Where a previously revalued asset is written down to recoverable amount, the loss is recognised as a revaluation decrement in other comprehensive income. As the Board is a not-for-profit entity, unless a specialised asset has been identified as a surplus asset, the recoverable amount is the higher of an asset’s fair value less costs to sell and depreciated replacement cost.

The risk of impairment is generally limited to circumstances where an asset’s depreciation is materially understated, where the replacement cost is falling or where there is a significant change in useful life. Each relevant class of assets is reviewed annually to verify that the accumulated depreciation/amortisation reflects the level of consumption or expiration of the asset’s future economic benefits and to evaluate any impairment risk from falling replacement costs.

Intangible assets with an indefinite useful life and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at the end of each reporting period irrespective of whether there is any indication of impairment.

The recoverable amount of assets identified as surplus assets is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and the present value of future cash flows expected to be derived from the asset. Surplus assets carried at fair value have no risk of material impairment where fair value is determined by reference to market-based evidence. Where fair value is determined by reference to depreciated replacement cost, surplus assets are at risk of impairment and the recoverable amount is measured. Surplus assets at cost are tested for indications of impairment at the end of each reporting period.

See also note 33 ‘Impairment of assets’ for the outcome of impairment reviews and testing.

Refer also to note 2(p) ‘Receivables’ and note 25 ‘Receivables’ for impairment of receivables.

(i) Other financial assets classified as financial assets at fair value

Non-Current assets are recognised at fair value, and are disclosed separately from other assets in the Statement of Financial Position. Assets classified as financial assets at fair value are not depreciated or amortised.

The Board classifies its investments into the following categories, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, held to maturity investments and available-for-sale financial assets. The classification depends on the purpose for which the investments were acquired. Management determines the classification of its investments at initial recognition and re-evaluates this designation at the end of the reporting period.

The Board assesses at each balance date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial asset is impaired.

Fair value of quoted investments at fair value is based on the last sale price.

See also note 28 “Other Financial Assets”.

(j) Leases
The Board holds operating leases for vehicles and office equipment. Operating leases are expensed on a straight line basis over the lease term as this represents the pattern of benefits derived from the leased properties.

(k) Financial instruments
In addition to cash, the Board has two categories of financial instrument:

- Loans and receivables; and
- Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost.

Financial instruments have been disaggregated into the following classes:

- Financial Assets
  - Cash and cash equivalents
  - Restricted cash and cash equivalents
  - Receivables
  - Amounts receivable for services
- Financial Liabilities Payables

Initial recognition and measurement of financial instruments is at fair value which normally equates to the transaction cost or the face value. Subsequent measurement is at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The fair value of short-term receivables and payables is the transaction cost or the face value because there is no interest rate applicable and subsequent measurement is not required as the effect of discounting is not material.

(l) Cash and cash equivalents
For the purpose of the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalent (and restricted cash and cash equivalent) assets comprise cash on hand and short-term deposits with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts.

(m) Accrued salaries
Accrued salaries (see note 34 ‘Payables’) represent the amount due to staff but unpaid at the end of the financial year. Accrued salaries are settled within a fortnight of the financial year end. The Board considers the carrying amount of accrued salaries to be equivalent to its fair value.

(n) Amounts receivable for services (holding account)
The Board receives income from the State Government partly in cash and partly as an asset (holding account receivable). The accrued amount appropriated is accessible on the emergence of the cash funding requirement to cover leave entitlements and asset replacement.

See also note 22 ‘Income from State Government’ and note 27 ‘Amounts Receivable for Services (Holding Account)’.

(o) Inventories
The Board’s inventories relate to stock held. Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs are assigned on an average cost basis.

See note 24 ‘Inventories’.

(p) Receivables
Receivables are recognised at original invoice amount less an allowance for any uncollectible amounts (i.e. impairment). The collectability of receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis and any receivables identified as uncollectible are written-off against the allowance account. The allowance for uncollectible amounts (doubtful debts) is raised when there is objective evidence that the Board will not be able to collect the debts. The carrying amount is equivalent to fair value as it is due for settlement within 30 days.

See also note 2(k) ‘Financial Instruments’ and note 25 ‘Receivables’.

(q) Payables
Payables are recognised at the amounts payable when the Board becomes obliged to make future payments as a result of a purchase of assets or services. The carrying amount is equivalent to fair value, as settlement is generally within 30 days.

See also note 2(k) ‘Financial instruments’ and note 34 ‘Payables’.

(r) Provisions
Provisions are liabilities of uncertain timing or amount and are recognised where there is a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event and when the outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is probable and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are reviewed at the end of each reporting period.

Provisions – employee benefits
All annual leave and long service leave provisions are in respect of employee’s services up to the end of the reporting period.

Annual leave
Annual leave is not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the reporting period and is therefore considered to be ‘other long-term employee benefits’. The annual leave liability is recognised and measured at the present value of amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled using the remuneration rate expected to apply at the time of the settlement.

When assessing expected future payments consideration is given to expected future wages and salary levels including non-salary components such as employer superannuation contributions, as well as the experience of employee departures and periods of service. The expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the end of the reporting period on national government bonds with terms to maturity that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.

The provision for annual leave is classified as a current liability as the Board does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

Long service leave
A liability for long service leave is recognised after an employee has completed four years of service based on remuneration rates current as at the end of the reporting period.

An actuarial assessment of long service leave undertaken by PWC at 30 June 2014 determined that the liability measured using the short-hand measurement technique above was not materially different from the liability determined using the present value of expected future payments. This calculation is consistent with the Board’s experience of employee retention and leave taken.

Unconditional service leave provisions are classified as current liabilities as the Board does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period. Pre-conditional and conditional long service leave provisions are classified as non-current liabilities because the Authority has an unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability until the employee has completed the requisite years of service.

Superannuation
The Government Employees Superannuation Board (GESB) and other fund providers administer public sector superannuation arrangements in Western Australia in accordance with legislative requirements. Eligibility criteria for membership in particular schemes for public sector employees vary according to commencement and implementation dates.

Eligible employees contribute to the Pension Scheme, a defined benefit pension scheme closed to new members since 1987, or the Gold State Superannuation Scheme (GSS), a defined benefit lump sum scheme closed to new members since 1995.

Employees commencing employment prior to 16 April 2007 who were not members of either the Pension Scheme or the GSS became non-contributory members of the West State Superannuation Scheme (WSS). Employees commencing employment on or after 16 April 2007 became members of the GESB Super Scheme (GESB). From 30 March 2012, existing members of WSS or GESBS and new employees have been able to choose their preferred superannuation fund provider. The Board makes contributions to GESB or other fund providers on behalf of employees in compliance with the Commonwealth Government’s Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992. Contributions to these accumulation schemes extinguish the Board’s liability for superannuation charges in respect of employees who are not members of the Pension Scheme or GSS.

The GSS is a defined benefit for the purpose of employees and whole-of-government reporting. However, it is a defined contribution plan for agency purposes because the concurrent contributions (defined contributions) made by the Board to GESB extinguishes the Board’s obligations to the related superannuation liability.

The Board has no liabilities under the Pension Scheme or the GSS. The liabilities for the unfunded Pension Scheme and the unfunded GSS transfer benefits attributable to members who transferred from the Pension Scheme, are assumed by the Treasurer. All other GSS obligations are funded by concurrent contributions made by the Board to the GESB.

The GESB makes all benefit payments in respect of the Pensions Scheme and GSS, and is recouped from the Treasurer for the employer’s share.

Provisions – other

Employment on-costs

Employment on-costs, including workers’ compensation insurance, are not employee benefits and are recognised separately as liabilities and expenses when the employment to which they relate has occurred. Employment on-costs are included as part of ‘Other expenses’ and are not included as part of the Board’s ‘Employee benefits expense’. The related liability is included in ‘Employment on-costs provision’.

See also note 13 ‘Other Expenses’ and note 35 ‘Provisions’.

(s) Superannuation expense

Superannuation expense is recognised in the profit or loss of the Statement of Comprehensive Income and comprises employer contributions paid to the GSS (concurrent contributions), the WSS, the GESBS, and other superannuation funds.

(t) Assets and services received free of charge or for nominal cost

Assets or services received free of charge or for nominal cost, that the Board’s would otherwise purchase if not donated, are recognised as income at the fair value of the assets or services where they can be reliably measured. A corresponding expense is recognised for services received. Receipts of assets are recognised in the Statement of Financial Position.

Assets or services received from other State Government agencies are separately disclosed under Income from State Government in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

(u) Foreign Currency Translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by applying the exchange rates ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Foreign currency differences arising on retranslation are recognised in profit or loss.
(v) Comparative figures

Comparative figures are, where appropriate, reclassified to be comparable with the figures presented in the current financial year.

Note 3. Department of Culture and the Arts

The Department of Culture and the Arts provides support for capital projects to agencies in the Culture and Arts portfolio. The Department receives an appropriation for capital projects and minor asset equipment as part of the DCA PC Replacement Program. These services, provided to the Board, but paid for by the Department, have been treated as ‘Resources received free of charge’ in the Income Statement.

The Department of Culture and the Arts provides shared corporate services to the Board which are not recognised in the Income Statement.

Note 4. Machinery of Government

Arising from the machinery of government changes, employing powers under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 and budget appropriations are now in place with effect from 1 July 2013 for the Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia. Salary costs, superannuation, fringe benefits, tax expenses which were previously appropriated to the Department of Culture and the Arts and treated as ‘Resources received free of charge’ are now being appropriated direct to the Board of the Art Gallery. This had the following impact in 2014:

(a) an increase in the ‘Appropriation received from State Government’ and a corresponding decrease in ‘Services provided by the Department of Culture and the Arts’. See note 22 ‘Income from State Government’.

(b) employee benefit provisions, such as annual leave, long service leave and employment on-costs, previously held by the Department of Culture and the Arts are transferred to the Art Gallery of Western Australia with effect from 1 July 2013. See note 22 ‘Income from State Government’ and 35 ‘Provisions’.

(c) account balances, such as accrued salaries and leave liability accounts with Treasury WA previously held by the Department of Culture and the Arts are transferred to the Art Gallery of Western Australia with effect from 1 July 2013. See note 22 ‘Income from State Government’, note 23 ‘Restricted cash and cash equivalents’ and note 27 ‘Amounts Receivable for Services (Holding Account)’.

Note 5. Judgements Made By Management in applying accounting policies

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgments about the application of accounting policies that have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

Several estimations and assumptions used in calculating the Authority’s long service leave provision include expected future salary rates, discount rates, employee retention rates and expected future payments. Changes in these estimations and assumptions may impact on the carrying amount of the long service leave provision.

There was a change in estimation for long service leave. The provision is computed inhouse in 2015 where it was outsourced to 3rd party actuarials in 2014.

The Board evaluates these judgments regularly.

Operating lease commitments
The Board has entered into a lease for motor vehicles. The Board has determined that the lessor retains substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the vehicles. Accordingly, the leases have been classified as operating leases.

Note 6. Key sources of estimation uncertainty
Key estimates and assumptions concerning the future are based on historical experience and various other factors that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Long Service Leave
Several estimations and assumptions used in calculating the Board’s long service leave provision include expected future salary rates, discount rates, employee retention rates and expected future payments. Changes in these estimations and assumptions may impact on the carrying amount of the long service leave provision.

Note 7. Disclosure of Changes in Accounting Policy and Estimates

Initial application of an Australian Accounting Standard
The Board has applied the following Australian Accounting Standards effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014 that impacted on the Board:

AASB 12 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities
This Standard, issued in August 2011, supersedes disclosure requirements in AASB 127 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements, AASB 128 Investments in Associates and AASB 131 Interests in Joint Ventures. There is no financial impact.

AASB 127 Separate Financial Statements
This Standard, issued in August 2011, supersedes AASB 127 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements removing the consolidation requirements of the earlier standard whilst retaining accounting and disclosure requirements for the preparation of separate financial statements. There is no financial impact.

AASB 128 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures
This Standard supersedes AASB 128 Investments in Associates, introducing a number of clarifications for the accounting treatments of changed ownership interest. The adoption of the new Standard has no financial impact for the Board as it does not hold investments in associates and joint ventures.

AASB 1031 Materiality
This Standard supercedes AASB 1031 (February 2010), removing Australian guidance on materiality not available in IFRSs and refers to guidance on materiality in other Australian pronouncements. There is no financial impact.

AASB 1055 Budgetary Reporting
This Standard requires specific budgetary disclosures in the general purpose financial statements of not-for-profit entities within the General Government Sector. The Board is exempted on disclosure of additional budgetary information and explanations of major variances between actual and budgeted amounts, though there is no financial impact.

AASB 2011–7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from the Consolidation and Joint Arrangements Standards [AASB 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 101, 107, 112, 118, 121, 124, 132, 133, 136, 138, 139, 1023 & 1038 and Int 5, 9, 16 & 17]
This Standard gives effect to consequential changes arising from the issuance of AASB 10, AASB 11, AASB 127 Separate Financial Statements and AASB 128 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures. There is no financial impact for the Board.

This Standard adds application guidance to AASB 132 to address inconsistencies identified in applying some of the offsetting criteria, including clarifying the meaning of “currently has a legally enforceable right of set-off” and that some gross settlement systems may be considered equivalent to net settlement. There is no financial impact.

This Standard introduces editorial and disclosure changes. There is no financial impact.

AASB 2013-4  Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Novation of Derivatives and Continuation of Hedge Accounting [AASB 139]
This Standard permits the continuation of hedge accounting in circumstances where a derivative, which has been designated as a hedging instrument, is novated from one counterparty to a central counterparty as a consequence of laws or regulations. The Board does not routinely enter into derivatives or hedges, therefore there is no financial impact.

AASB 2013-8  Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Australian Implementation Guidance for Not-for-Profit Entities – Control and Structured Entities [AASB 10, 12 & 1049]
The amendments, issued in October 2013, provide significant guidance in determining whether a not-for-profit entity controls another entity when financial returns are not a key attribute of the investor’s relationship. The Standard has no financial impact in its own right, rather the impact results from the adoption of the amended AASB 10.

AASB 2013-9  Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Conceptual Framework, Materiality and Financial Instruments
Part B of this omnibus Standard makes amendments to other Standards arising from the deletion of references to AASB 1031 in other Standards for periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014 (Part B). It has no financial impact.

AASB 2014-1  Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards
Part A of this Standard consists primarily of clarifications to Accounting Standards and has no financial impact for the Board.
Part B of this Standard has no financial impact as the Board contributes to schemes that are either defined contribution plans, or deemed to be defined contribution plans.
Part C of this Standard has no financial impact as it removes references to AASB 1031 Materiality from a number of Accounting Standards.

AASB 2015-7  Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Fair Value Disclosures of Not-for-Profit Public Sector Entities
This Standard relieves not-for-profit public sector entities from the reporting burden associated with various disclosures required by AASB 13 for assets within the scope of AASB 116 that are held primarily for their current service potential rather than to generate future net cash inflows. It has no financial impact.

Voluntary changes in accounting policy
The Board has not made any voluntary changes in accounting policy during the financial year.

Future impact of Australian Accounting Standards not yet operative
The Board cannot early adopt an Australian Accounting Standard unless specifically permitted by TI 1101 Application of Australian Accounting Standards and Other Pronouncements or by an exemption from TI 1101. By virtue of a limited exemption, the Board has early adopted AASB 2015–7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Fair Value Disclosures of Not-for-Profit Public Sector Entities. Where applicable, the Board plans to apply these Australian Accounting Standards from their application date:

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

(a) Service appropriation funds the net cost of services delivered. Appropriation revenue comprises a cash component and a receivable (asset). The receivable (holding account) comprises the budgeted depreciation expense for the year.

In addition, arising from the machinery of government changes, employing powers under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 and budget appropriations are now in place with effect from 1 July 2013 for the Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia. Employee costs which were previously ‘Resources received free of charge’ and appropriated to the Department of Culture and the Arts are now being appropriated direct to the Board of the Art Gallery. This has resulted in an increase in the ‘Service appropriation’ and a corresponding decrease in ‘Services provided by the Department of Culture and the Arts’. Also see note 4 ‘Machinery of Government’.

(b) Discretionary transfers of assets (including grants) and liabilities between State Government agencies are reported under Income from State Government. Included in State grants and contributions are non-reciprocal grants received from Department of Culture and the Arts. Accrued salaries and leave liability accounts with Treasury WA as well as the annual leave, long service leave and on costs provisions have been transferred from Department of Culture and the Arts to the Art Gallery. Also see note 4 ‘Machinery of Government’, note 27 ‘Amounts receivable for Services (Holding Account)’ and note 35 ‘Provisions’.

(c) This is a sub-fund within the over-arching ‘Royalties for Regions Fund’. The recurrent funds are committed to projects and programs in WA regional areas.

(d) Assets or services received free of charge or for nominal cost are recognised as revenue at fair value of the assets and/or services that can be reliably measured and which would have been purchased if they were not donated. Contributions of assets or services in the nature of contributions by owners are recognised direct to equity.

(a) Land and buildings were revalued as at 1 July 2014 by the Western Australian Land Information Authority (Valuation Services). The valuations were performed during the year ended 30 June 2015 and recognised at 30 June 2015. In undertaking the revaluation, fair value was determined by reference to market values for land: $17,100,000 (2014: $18,000,000) and buildings: $22,932,000 (2014: $23,517,000). For the remaining balance, fair value on buildings was determined on the basis of depreciated replacement cost and fair value of land was determined on the basis of comparison with market evidence for land with low level utility (high restricted use land).

Information on fair value measurements is provided within Note 31 ‘Fair Value Measurements’.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Valuation techniques to derive Level 1 fair value
Level 1 fair value of shares are derived from using the market approach. The shares are quoted on the stock exchange and the closing price on 30 June 2015 is used to determine the fair value.

Valuation processes

There were no changes in valuation techniques during this period.

Land (Level 3 fair values)

Fair value for restricted use land is based on comparison with market evidence for land with low level utility (high restricted use land). The relevant comparators of land with low level utility is selected by the Western Australian Land Information Authority (Valuation Services) and represents the application of a significant Level 3 input in this valuation methodology. The fair value measurement is sensitive to values of comparator land, with higher values of comparator land correlating with higher estimated fair values of land.

Restoration costs are estimated for the purpose of returning the site to a vacant and marketable condition and include costs for: building demolition, clearing, re-zoning and an allowance for time factors.
If the Board’s fair value estimates of land comprise both low restricted use and high restricted use land values, the relevant amounts and comparatives should be disclosed.

Buildings and Infrastructure (Level 3 fair values)

Fair value for existing use specialised building is determined by reference to the cost of replacing the remaining future economic benefits embodied in the asset, ie the depreciated cost. Depreciated replacement cost is the current replacement cost of an asset less accumulated depreciation calculated on the basis of such cost to reflect the already consumed or expired economic benefit, or obsolescence, and optimisation (where applicable) of the asset. Current replacement cost is determined by reference to the market-observable replacement cost of a substitute asset of comparable utility and the gross project size specifications.

Valuation using depreciation replacement cost utilises the significant Level 3 input, consumed economic benefit/obsolescence of asset which is estimated by the Western Australian Land Information Authority (Valuation Services). The fair value measurement is sensitive to the estimate of consumption/obsolescence, with higher values of the estimate correlating with lower estimated fair values of buildings and infrastructure.

Fair value for Works of Art involve comparing data from multiple sources such as auction houses, private and corporate collectors, curators, art dealer activities, gallerists, experienced consultants and specialised market analysts to arrive at a value.

Basis of Valuation

In the absence of market-based evidence, due to the specialised nature of some non-financial assets, these assets are valued at Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy on an existing use basis. The existing use basis recognises that restrictions or limitations have been placed on their use and disposal when they are not determined to be surplus to requirements. These restrictions are imposed by virtue of the assets being held to deliver a specific community service.

Note 43. Financial Instruments

(a) Financial risk management objectives and policies

Financial instruments held by the Board are cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and cash equivalents, loans and receivables, listed shares and payables. The Board has limited exposure to financial risks. The Board's overall risk management program focuses on managing the risks identified below.

Credit risk
Credit risk arises when there is the possibility of the Board's receivables defaulting on their contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Board.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at the end of the reporting period in relation to each class of recognised financial assets is the gross carrying amount of those assets inclusive of any provisions for impairment as shown in the table at Note 25 ‘Receivables’.

Credit risk associated with the Board's financial assets is minimal because the main receivable is the amounts receivable for services (holding account). For receivables other than government, the Board trades only with recognised, creditworthy third parties. The Board has policies in place to ensure that sales of products and services are made to customers with an appropriate credit history. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis with the result that the Board’s exposure to bad debts is minimal. At the end of the reporting period there were no significant concentrations of credit risk.

An allowance for impairment of trade receivables is made for debts that are uncollectible and greater than 6 months. See also note 2(p) “Receivables”.

Liquidity risk
Liquidity risk arises when the Board is unable to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Board is exposed to liquidity risk through its trading in the normal course of business.

The Board has appropriate procedures to manage cash flows including drawdowns of appropriations by monitoring forecast cash flows to ensure that sufficient funds are available to meet its commitments.

Market risk
Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices such as foreign exchange rates and interest rates will affect the Board's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The Board does not trade in foreign currency and is not materially exposed to other price risks. The Board is not significantly exposed to market risk. The Board has no borrowings or finance leases. Some cash and cash equivalents are interest bearing and restricted cash and cash equivalents are interest bearing however the exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates is minimal as the Board does not rely on interest income for its principal operating activities.

(b) Categories of financial instruments

The carrying amounts of each of the following categories of financial assets and financial liabilities at the end of the reporting period are:

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT
To the Parliament of Western Australia
THE BOARD OF THE ART GALLERY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Report on the Financial Statements
I have audited the accounts and financial statements of The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia. The financial statements comprise the Statement of Financial Position as at 30 June 2015, the Statement of Comprehensive Income, Statement of Changes in Equity and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and Notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Board’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements
The Board is responsible for keeping proper accounts, and the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Treasurer’s Instructions, and for such internal control as the Board determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility
As required by the Auditor General Act 2006, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on my audit. The audit was conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those Standards require compliance with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and that the audit be planned and performed to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Board’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Board, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion
The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia’s works of art collection was last comprehensively valued in 2010. The revaluation of the collection is currently in progress, and the Board expects it to be completed in the next few months. Nevertheless, because the collection has not been revalued with sufficient regularity in accordance with AASB 116 Property, Plant and Equipment, I am unable to determine whether the Works of Art carrying amount of $213 million in the Statement of Financial Position at 30 June 2015 represents fair value.

Qualified Opinion
In my opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements are based on proper accounts and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia at 30 June 2015 and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended. They are in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Treasure’s Instructions.

Auditor’s Responsibility
As required by the Auditor General Act 2006, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the controls exercised by The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia based on my audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing and Assurance Standards.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of controls to ensure that the Board complies with the legislative provisions. Indicators of the ‘storage and display environment’ are temperature and relative humidity. The Gallery uses the generally agreed international standards for temperature of 21ºC ± 2ºC and relative humidity of 50% ± 5% as the benchmarks. In calculating the proportion of time that the storage and display environment has not been breached, that is the proportion of time the humidity and temperature has been within the accepted standards, the Gallery uses a composite average of the environmental data from the three principal storage and two display environments within the Art Gallery: The Main Gallery Display, the Centenary Galleries Display, Centenary Galleries Storage, Main Gallery Stores including print room, and the Conservation Storage Area. Averages for these are calculated at 98.9%, 99.02%, 99.20%, 99.30%, and 98.30%, respectively for humidity and 98.65%, 99.25%, 99.84%, 99.17%, and 96.03%, for temperature. On average the Gallery maintained the storage and display environment within the standards for humidity for 98.94%, of the time and temperature for 98.59%, of the time which produces a combined average of 98.77%, of operational hours when the storage and display environment was maintained within the standards.

Accessibility

Indicator 2.1: The extent to which art gallery services are accessible

An indicator of accessibility is the number of visitors to the Gallery per head of population of Western Australia.

<td>243 per 1,000</td>
<td>183 per 1,000</td>
<td>217 per 1,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Explanatory notes

Accesses are determined by the number of attendances, internet user sessions (website hits) and attendances at venue hire functions. Accesses are expressed per capita, based on the population of Western Australia. The number of Gallery visitors was 289,413 and 7,210 people attended functions for a total of 296,623 attendances. The website unique visitors totalled 180,730.

The overall number of visitors was significantly lower than the previous annual visitation and current year targets. The reduction in 2014–15 visitation in comparison with the 2013–14 actuals and 2014–15 targets was due to a reduced exhibition program.
Accessibility continued

Indicator 2.2: The extent to which art gallery services are accessible

An indicator of the effectiveness of the Gallery in providing for the enjoyment and cultural enrichment of the people of Western Australia is shown by client satisfaction with Gallery art services. The Gallery engages a market research firm to survey customers.

<td>94%</td>
<td>93%</td>
<td>93%</td>
<td>93%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Explanatory notes

Client satisfaction with art gallery services is primarily measured by surveying visitors to the Gallery to determine how satisfied they have been with the displays and programs. Satisfaction is measured by a statistically valid survey. The market research consultants have advised that the sample used provides a maximum survey error of +/-2.38% at the 95% confidence level. The customer satisfaction survey is conducted by Morris Hargreaves McIntyre. The question answered by customers which provides the percentage satisfaction rating was:

‘Thinking about your visit to Art Gallery of Western Australia today, including the exhibitions on display and the facilities provided, how satisfied or dissatisfied were you with the experience overall?’

Overall satisfaction was high with 50% ‘very satisfied’ with their visit to the Art Gallery and 43% were ‘quite satisfied’ (so net satisfaction of 93%). The 2014–15 result shows no shift in overall level of satisfaction from the previous year.

<td>1.23%</td>
<td>0.58%</td>
<td>0.91%</td>
<td>0.80%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Explanatory notes

The Gallery is sustainable if, on an ongoing basis, it has the capacity to build its Collection, develop content for publications, displays and exhibitions and maintain the physical integrity of the State Art Collection. A gauge of this sustainability is represented by the direct costs associated with these activities as a proportion of the total value of the State Art Collection. As the value of the Collection increases, if the funds available to maintain these activities remain stagnant or are reduced, the sustainability indicator decreases. The sustainability indicator is based on a 5-year rolling average of the annual direct costs as a proportion of the value of the State Art Collection.

The sustainability measure has increased from 0.58% in 2013–14 to 0.91% in 2014–15. The 2014–15 Actual is also 0.11% higher than the 2014–15 Target. This increase is explained by the higher total value of major acquisition purchases in 2014–15.

</tbody>
</table>

Explanatory notes

The average cost relates the level of resource input to the services provided. This indicator is arrived at using the following formula:

\text{Average cost} = \frac{\text{Total cost of services}^*}{\text{Number of accesses}}

Note. The total cost of services excludes DCA overheads.

The difference between 2014–15 Actual and Target in the average cost of art gallery services is mainly due to the decreased cost of services.

The difference between the 2013–14 and 2014–15 Actuals is due to the decrease in the number of accesses.
Ministerial Directives & Other Financial Disclosures

Ministerial Directives
No ministerial directives were received during the year.

Other Financial Disclosures

Pricing policies
Most Gallery exhibitions are presented free of charge to the public. When major exhibitions are mounted as a joint venture with another institution, the ticket cost for such exhibitions is based on a contractual negotiation with the joint venture partner and contributes towards the cost of the exhibition.

Capital works
There were no capital projects completed in 2014–15.
Employment and industrial relations

Staff Profile

The Gallery employed 69 people in 2014 representing an average of 52.58 full time equivalents (FTE) over the year. AGWA relies heavily on volunteers throughout the year, and recruits casual staff during exhibitions to meet short-term needs.

During 2014–15, 11 casual, 2 full time and 1 part-time appointments were made. Where possible, staff continued to be provided with options for flexible working arrangements, such as working from home, working part-time, flexible start and finish times, and purchased leave arrangements.

Staff turnover of permanent and contract staff during the 2014–15 year was 22.08%, which was due to resignations, transfers to other agencies, including within the Department of Culture and the Arts, and expiration of fixed-term contracts. The Gallery continued to work hard to attract and retain a diverse workforce, with workforce representation remaining across all target areas.

The FTE figure represents the number of full-time-equivalent positions as at the end of the financial year. (One FTE is defined as one full-time job for one financial year on the basis of hours worked to normal award/agreement hours provisions.)

Staff development and recruitment

Art Gallery of Western Australia employees’ diversity of skills and experience provide the foundation on which to further develop the resources required to deliver a wide range of art gallery services.

The Gallery continues to promote a workplace which encourages staff learning and development. Staff received support for attendance at Perth-based workshops and seminars, study assistance for formal studies, and recognition of prior learning. In 2014–15, for budgetary and operational reasons, assistance with attendance at interstate and overseas conferences was again minimal.

The Art Gallery’s recruitment and selection policies and procedures aim to attract and retain the most suitably qualified and experienced people. During the year, the Gallery, in conjunction with the Department of Culture and the Arts, worked on improved workforce planning, including strategies to improve recruitment.

Occupational Health, Safety and Injury Management

The Department of Culture and the Arts is committed to providing and maintaining a healthy and safe working environment for all of its employees, contractors and visitors. We demonstrate this through our policies, procedures and work practices to ensure that all employees are safe from harm in the workplace. An Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) Implementation Plan was established in order to implement a number of safety and health initiatives across the department and to assist portfolio agencies.

The Gallery facilitates OH&S consultation through its OH&S committee, the election of safety and health representatives, hazard and incident reporting processes, routine workplace hazard inspections and a process for the resolution of OH&S issues. Staff are made aware of these processes at their employee induction, through specific OH&S training, and access to OH&S information on the DCA intranet.

The policy and procedures of DCA and the Gallery are compliant with the Occupational Safety and Health Act 1984 and the Workers Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981. AGWA has developed formal, documented return to work programs for employees requiring modified and alternative duties or equipment upon returning to work from an injury or illness.

A formal review of the DCA’s OH&S management system was undertaken in 2012 using the WorkSafe Plan. A plan has been developed to address gaps identified through this process and focuses on the audit recommendations in the areas of management commitment, planning, consultation, hazard management and training.

Mechanisms for consultation with staff

The Gallery has an active Occupational Health and Safety Committee. Membership has been expanded this year to include staff from reception and administration to assist with the implementation of safety initiatives. Safety representatives undertake monthly site inspections, which inform improvements. A cross-Gallery storage review was initiated this year to assess the storage and deployment of equipment and to minimise the need for re-working. Outcomes to date have been a centralised location for display cases, acquisition of equipment to move audio visual equipment for public programs bump in, the improved storage and handling of records and dedicated framing storage. The wellness program continues to be a core strategy, with monthly staff morning teas providing the opportunity to discuss health and safety matters in a more informal and relaxed manner. The 2014 AGWA Safety Month Program combined healthy choice activities including the ‘Get on Track’ challenge and ‘HBF Stretch & Relax’ which targeted food and exercise routines. Managers, supervisors and safety representatives also attended incident management, manual handling, building resilience and plant safety training workshops during this month. The Safety Month program was run in conjunction with WorkSafe, which also undertook a drop-in site assessment which, the Gallery passed without issue. All senior managers and supervisors have undergone training on Workers Comp procedures and management.

Formal mechanisms for consultation with employees on Occupational Health, Safety and Injury management matters are primarily addressed through line managers, with AGWA staff being made aware of the processes at their induction and by having access to OH&S information on both the AGWA and DCA intranets.
Compliance with injury management requirements

The Gallery demonstrates its commitment to assist employees to return to work after a work-related injury or work-related disease through the Injury Management Policy. Information on workers compensation and injury management is provided to staff at induction and via the departmental intranet. Through the Department the Gallery engages in formal, documented programs for employees requiring modified duties or equipment upon returning to work after an injury. Such programs are compliant with the Worker’s Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981.

The most common injuries in 2014–15 were minor and Workers’ compensation instruction was undertaken as part of the OS&H training. In 2014–15, as part of its commitment to safety and health in the workplace, the Gallery:
- trained emergency wardens and undertook scheduled evacuation exercises
- implemented new procedures.

The Art Gallery’s Occupational Safety and Health Committee met regularly during 2014–15 to discuss and resolve issues raised by staff, review hazard reports, discuss injury trends and identify preventative measures to promote a safe working environment.

Contracts with senior officers
At the date of reporting, other than normal contracts of employment of service, no senior officers, or firms of which senior officers are members, or entities in which senior officers have substantial interests, had any interests in existing or proposed contracts with the Art Gallery of Western Australia.

Director’s liability insurance
AGWA, through RiskCover, has a Directors and Officers Liability Policy with a limit of liability of $10 million covering Board members of the Art Gallery of Western Australia Board and senior management. The Gallery contributed $3,352 to the annual premium in 2013-14.

Compliance with Public Sector Standards and Ethical Codes

(Public Sector Management Act 1994 Section 31(1))

The Department of Culture and the Arts employs Art Gallery staff. Human resource services are provided by the Human Resource Unit of the Department of Culture and the Arts. They provide specific advice on compliance with the Standards in regard to recruitment, transfer, secondment, redeployment, termination, discipline, temporary deployment and grievance resolution. Shared services to support the processing of human resource functions are also provided.

Compliance with the Public Sector Standards and Ethical Codes is assessed by several different methods, including regular internal and external reviews of related procedures and staff feedback. No compliance issues arose during 2014-15 in regard to Public Sector Standards, the WA Code of Ethics or the Department of Culture and the Arts Code of Conduct.

Initiatives in 2014-15 to prevent non-compliance included:

- supporting attendance of Gallery management at forums on human resource management standards, particularly those pertaining to recruitment, selection and appointment.
- maintaining information on standards and codes of conduct including on the departmental intranet and continuing to promote it as an important part of the induction program for new staff.
- a performance management system, the Staff Development System, is in operation and all staff participate in the process. This process meets the requirements of Public Sector Standards in Human Resource Management for Performance Management.
Disability access and inclusion plan outcomes

In 2014–15, AGWA has continued to implement the Department of Culture and the Arts’ Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2013 to 2017 to ensure that all visitors, including people with disabilities, can access Gallery services and facilities. The plan is subject to review and will be amended as priorities and needs change.

Specific initiatives undertaken by AGWA to enhance access and inclusion in 2014–15 were:

- continuation of the Alzheimer’s Art Adventures tour and workshop program. During the year 186 people participated in tours, and 180 people attended the workshops.

- AGWA offers Art and Memories guided tours for people with dementia; in 2014–15 two of these tours took place, with two groups bringing in 18 participants.

- continuation of the popular Sensational Art touch tours, which allow vision impaired visitors to join a specially-trained Voluntary Gallery Guide for a customised tour of selected three dimensional works from the State Art Collection. Wearing gloves to protect the artwork, participants have the opportunity to explore volume, texture and scale.

- the Voluntary Gallery Guides continued their association with Sculpture by the Sea, again providing Tactile Tours, to introduce visitors with disability new way of experiencing and enjoying contemporary sculpture and this popular event held annually at Cottesloe Beach.

- education staff participated in the Annual International Conference of Alzheimer’s Disease International, organised by the Alzheimer’s Disease International which was held in Perth from 15-18 April. As “break-out” activities during the conference, delegates attended Art & Memories Tours and workshops at AGWA.

- partnership with Awesome Arts Festival for Bright Young Things and DADAA a display of Tristan’s Monsters at AGWA during the October 2014 school holidays. Tristan Goldsmith is a 9 year old boy with a passion for the arts. At age 2, he was diagnosed with classic autism moderate severity. With the support of his parents his love of art has flourished and he has created stunning artworks of sharks, dinosaurs and other monsters.

Record-keeping plan

During 2014-15 the Gallery maintained the delivery of a cohesive record-keeping program bound by policy, procedure and an ongoing approach to improving record-keeping. Continuing emphasis has been given to supporting improved electronic record-keeping within the organisation with increased use of record-keeping on the TRIM system.

The quality of record-keeping has been tested as a part of various audits which have included an evaluation of the way records are kept and maintained. The Gallery has had no adverse significant findings in relation to record-keeping.

Ongoing Staff training, including addressing an employee’s role and responsibility in regard to the keeping of records as part of the formal induction process, continues to be an important part of the Gallery’s focus to maintain a strong record-keeping culture.
Art is an expression of what it is to be human, a universal language that brings us together. It exists for us to experience wonder, share happiness and sorrow, question ideas and beliefs, capture the essence of life.

We believe that art matters, it is meaningful, and it should be shared so that we can all embrace it with imagination and passion.

We strive to be the heart of the arts in Western Australia, stimulating conversations and providing new ways of looking and thinking about art, remaining one of Australia’s most influential arts advocates.

We collect and care for works of art for the State, building a dynamic and continuously evolving collection for the benefit of all Western Australians, now and into the future. We are committed to developing a collection that reflects the history and diversity of WA so we can continue to examine our place in the world.

We live and work on Nyoongar traditional land; we respect and value that our lives are interconnected and that the culture and arts of WA’s first people are integral to WA’s identity. We are committed to presenting Indigenous stories through the language of visual arts.

We celebrate Australian art and artists by sharing their vision and voice with our audiences. We present Western Australian art alongside that of the rest of the world, staging conversations between the local, national and international.

We embrace the freedom of living at a geographical frontier without being confined by it.

Art is global and our role is to introduce different perspectives, to expand your horizons, to challenge the way you see the world through the collection, the exhibitions and the experiences we create.

We embrace boldness. We are determined to evolve, explore new directions and push beyond the boundaries of the expected. Cultural creativity is cultural capital.

We are here to inspire you – whether you are a Western Australian or a visitor to our wonderful State, a seasoned artistic traveller or an apprentice explorer, adult or child. Our programs will open new ideas and encourage you to reach out, investigate and discover.

We seek you out. We will create partnerships that invite collaboration and experimentation across art forms.

Everything we do begins and ends with our knowledge and experience and our wish to bring enjoyment, challenge and excitement grounded in artistic freedom, curatorial integrity and commitment to represent artistic visions.

This is our vision for AGWA, our artistic mantra. Our role is always evolving, but the purpose remains the same – to encourage you to become passionate about culture and the arts, inspire your own creativity, expand how you see the world, build a collection that you love and care for as much as we do. And together weave a stronger cultural fabric for all of WA.

State Art Collection Displays | Your Collection 1800 – Today
Since 2011

The relocation of the State Art Collection (renamed Your Collection) to the ground floor of the Gallery in 2011, marked a dynamic new initiative presenting the State Art Collection for the first time as integrated chronological displays. These displays, which are constantly changing, bring together painting, sculpture, decorative arts, photography, design, works on paper and video/filmic works. Works range from the age of discovery, Australian colonial times, modernity, land and landscape to contemporary art produced in the 21st century. Favourites such as Down on his luck by Frederick McCubbin, purchased within a year of the Gallery opening in 1895, are on display alongside many of the Collection’s cherished gifts, some of which have not been seen for several years.

William Kentridge’s Shadow quartet
Since May 2011

South African artist William Kentridge is one of the most compelling artists of our time, with his work spanning an extraordinary range encompassing drawing, sculpture, film, opera, tapestry and more. Shadow Quartet forms and ensemble of four individual sculptures; each one of the figures is actually a cluster of multiple shadow figures with different personas that appear and disappear as visitors walk around and between them.

Guy Grey Smith: Art as Life
21 March – 14 July 2014

Guy Grey-Smith (1916-1981) was a Western Australian artist whose challenging paintings of the Western Australian landscape secured his position as an artist of national importance in the 1960s and 1970s. This widely-acclaimed AGWA exhibition was the first full retrospective of the work of this important artist since his death.

Animal Ark
7 June – 19 October 2014

Animals made themselves at home on the walls of AGWA. From paws and claws to wings and things, Animal Ark featured works from the State Art Collection that highlight the many ways in which the animal motif has been used by generations of artists. A family activity space and art trails made the exhibition a great adventure for the young ones, and the underlying exploration of mythology, symbolism and representation of animals through paintings, sculpture, decorative art and works on paper, also added appeal to adults.

Celebrating 25 Years of the AGWA Foundation
21 June – 1 December 2014

2014 marked the 25th anniversary of the Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation. Since its inception in 1989, the Foundation has helped the Gallery purchase over 4,500 works for the State Art Collection. In the last five years, Foundation funds have accounted for 80% of all recent acquisitions. To celebrate this milestone, a showcase of significant works acquired through the Foundation’s vital support was on display in the latter half of 2014.
Richard Avedon People
2 August – 17 November 2014

Richard Avedon People celebrated the work of American photographer Richard Avedon (1923 to 2004). With work from 1949 to 2002, the exhibition offered an in-depth overview of Avedon’s achievements in the art of black and white portraiture photography. In the show, instantly recognisable and influential artists, celebrities, and political activists including Truman Capote, Elizabeth Taylor, Twiggy, Malcolm X, and Bob Dylan were presented alongside portraits of the unknown or long forgotten.

Australian Design: Ten Years of the Peter Fogarty Fund
16 August 2014 – 9 March 2015

The Peter Fogarty Design Fund was established by Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation Governor Dr Tim Jeffery to support the acquisition of works by Australian designers and craftspeople not yet represented in the Collection. Australian Design: Ten years of the Peter Fogarty Fund presents the exceptional works purchased from the Fund over the past 10 years.

Treasures of the Jewish Ghetto of Venice

This exhibition featured a selection from a collection of precious silver and bronze objects dating from the 1700s to early 1900s, which were hidden in 1943 from the approaching Nazi armies by two Venetian Jewish religious leaders who never returned from the concentration camps. These valuables, which represent traditional Venetian Jewish silversmithing and bronze-casting methods, were forgotten until they were unearthed during the restoration of the Scuola Spagnola (or Ponentina) in the Venetian ghetto a few years ago.

new passports, new photography
15 November – 8 February 2015

new passports, new photography celebrated the Gallery’s recent acquisitions of contemporary photography around the theme of portraiture. It brought together over one hundred works – the majority of which had not previously been displayed – that explore how photographers use the camera to reflect, construct and challenge identity.

Mariko Mori: Rebirth
8 February – 29 June 2015

Tokyo-born, New York and London-based Mariko Mori is one of the most important artists of our time. Through an exploration of themes, such as life, death and rebirth, her work resonates with audiences around the world. Rebirth provided an immersive, contemplative experience composed of installations, glowing LED sculptures, photographs, drawings and videos. Quiet and beautiful, this thoughtful and absorbing exhibition took visitors from a sculpture symbolising the eternal cycle of life to the creation of a pulsing white hole – where stars are born.

Tom Malone Prize 2015
4 March – 6 April 2015

The Tom Malone Prize 2015 brought together many of Australia’s best glass artists. Featuring the 12 artists short-listed for the annual acquisitive award, it included vessels and large scale sculpture, and is the perfect vehicle for the short-listed artists’ exploration of a range of themes, from the personal to the observational. The diverse group of work on show demonstrated that glass is a medium of almost endless possibility. The winner of the Tom Malone Prize 2015 for contemporary glass artists was Cobi Cockburn for the work Close to white.

Year 12 Perspectives 2014
7 March – 1 June 2015

Year 12 Perspectives is a yearly taste of art by some of the best, brightest and most talented graduating high school artists in the State. An annual barometer of what our youth are thinking and feeling, it is also a rich celebration of the role the arts play in the development of individual identities.

For Love of Country
4 April – 20 July 2015

For Love of Country marked the Gallery’s contribution to Perth’s commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the First World War and the Australian Gallipoli campaign. Drawn from the State Art Collection, this exhibition presented a compelling mix of historical works from the First and Second World Wars, together with contemporary works that reflected on wider issues and conflicts. The exhibition provided a powerful visual narrative of the many forms of conflict across generations and countries and offered a reflective experience for viewers of war’s grim legacy on people and places.

SCREEN SPACE

A new work is screened every two months in this dedicated space for AGWA’s growing collection of filmic acquisitions.

David Rosetzky’s Nothing Like This
13 December 2014 – 1 March 2015

The space debuts with David Rosetzky’s 2007 work Nothing Like This. The work is largely set by the ocean and follows the almost dream like interactions of a group of young people. Suffused with greens, yellow and refracted light, the film draws on the stylised look of contemporary advertising modes. A tone of slow melancholy builds as the sound track records the imagined monologues of youthful selfdoubt and questioning. Languor and unease pervade this contemplative evocation of life, while the beauty of the unfolding landscape contrasts with the young players’ personal reflections.

Wong Hoy Cheong Dog Hole
7 March – 17 May 2015

This haunting video is a dramatic recreation of the brutal occupation of Malaysia by the Japanese in World War II. It portrays the 1942 Sook Ching massacre through the account of Wong Kum Peng, one of very few survivors of the detention cells. From this disturbing account, Wong has created a work of beauty, and ultimately – by the end of the film – redemption.
Susan Norrie, Enola
30 May – 16 August 2015

Enola’s title refers to the American plane Enola Gay that dropped an atomic bomb on Hiroshima in 1945. Norrie’s interest in nuclear and environmental issues influences this work. The setting is a children’s architectural theme park in Nikko, Japan that once displayed miniature versions of iconic international buildings. The camera’s slow-panning around the park is set to muzak suggesting a harmonious world, not the dystopian reality of the post-nuclear age.

WA FOCUS

A new annual program dedicated to displaying the work of Western Australian artists, WA Focus showcases recent and new work by local artists, selected to represent a mix of gender, experience and medium. AGWA will work closely with Western Australian artists and the art community to present exhibitions that display the range and depth of our state’s creative talent.

Abdul-Rahman Abdullah And Abdul Abdullah
22 April – 27 July 2015

The program began with Abdul-Rahman Abdullah’s sculptures and installations and Abdul Abdullah’s interdisciplinary work, as. the brothers, who often collaborate, explore themes of cultural identity, memory and narrative.
