The Art Gallery of Western Australia (AGWA) was founded and acquired its first work of art in 1895. Today it is established by the Art Gallery Act 1959 and is part of the Culture and Arts portfolio, within the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC).

The Gallery, the oldest visual arts organisation in the State, is housed in three heritage buildings located in the Perth Cultural Centre. The main building was completed in 1979, and in 1995 the adjoining Centenary Galleries, which were originally the Perth Police Courts, were opened. The historic Barracks building houses the administration offices, the theatrette and the Voluntary Gallery Guides areas.

The Gallery collects and maintains the State Art Collection which currently comprises almost 18,000 works by Western Australian, Australian and International artists, and includes many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (Indigenous) works. AGWA is committed to providing access to the visual arts and delivering programs that connect, stimulate, involve, educate and entertain.

The State Art Collection is developed, preserved and displayed to ensure that AGWA maintains the finest public art collection in the State. Through the Collection displays and programs the Gallery continues to support access to art, heritage and ideas locally, nationally and internationally now and for future generations.

Our Vision

To be a world-class art museum – a valued destination, an asset to the State and the pride of its people.
Overview

Who We Are

We aim to inspire our visitors and encourage them to reach out, investigate and discover through the display of the Collection, stimulating exhibitions and associated programs. We strive to be the heart of the arts in Western Australia, encouraging conversations and providing new ways of looking and thinking about the visual arts, remaining one of Australia’s most influential arts advocates.

We celebrate Australian art and artists by sharing their vision and voice with our audiences. We present Western Australian art alongside that of the rest of the world, staging conversations between the local, national and international. We are particularly committed to presenting Indigenous stories through the language of visual arts, respecting and valuing that the culture and arts of Australia’s First People are integral to our identity.

Everything we do is informed by our guiding document The Essence of AGWA and begins and ends with our knowledge and experience and our wish to bring enjoyment, challenge and excitement grounded in artistic freedom, curatorial integrity and commitment to represent artistic visions. At the same time, we are determined to evolve, explore new directions and push beyond the boundaries of the expected, for the people of Western Australia and those who visit us.

We are committed to developing an equitable and diverse workforce that is representative of the Western Australian community at all levels of employment. We actively encourage Indigenous Australians, young people, people with disabilities and people from culturally diverse backgrounds to apply for positions at AGWA.

Our Purpose

To inspire our visitors and enrich Western Australia with great collections of art.
Art is an expression of what it is to be human, a universal language that brings us together. It exists for us to experience wonder, share happiness and sorrow, question ideas and beliefs, capture the essence of life.

We believe that art matters, it is meaningful, and it should be shared so that we can all embrace it with imagination and passion.

We strive to be the heart of the arts in Western Australia, stimulating conversations and providing new ways of looking and thinking about art, remaining one of Australia’s most influential arts advocates.

We collect and care for works of art for the State, building a dynamic and continuously evolving collection for the benefit of all Western Australians, now and into the future. We are committed to developing a collection that reflects the history and diversity of WA so we can continue to examine our place in the world.

We live and work on Noongar traditional land; we respect and value that our lives are interconnected and that the culture and arts of WA’s First People are integral to WA’s identity. We are committed to presenting Indigenous stories through the language of visual arts.

We celebrate Australian art and artists by sharing their vision and voice with our audiences. We present Western Australian art alongside that of the rest of the world, staging conversations between the local, national and international.

We embrace the freedom of living at a geographical frontier without being confined by it.

Art is global and our role is to introduce different perspectives, to expand your horizons, to challenge the way you see the world through the collection, the exhibitions and the experiences we create.

We embrace boldness. We are determined to evolve, explore new directions and push beyond the boundaries of the expected. Cultural creativity is cultural capital.

We are here to inspire you – whether you are a Western Australian or a visitor to our wonderful State, a seasoned artistic traveller or an apprentice explorer, adult or child. Our programs will open new ideas and encourage you to reach out, investigate and discover.

We seek you out. We will create partnerships that invite collaboration and experimentation across art forms.

Everything we do begins and ends with our knowledge and experience and our wish to bring enjoyment, challenge and excitement grounded in artistic freedom, curatorial integrity and commitment to represent artistic visions.

This is our vision for AGWA, our artistic mantra. Our role is always evolving, but the purpose remains the same – to encourage you to become passionate about culture and the arts, inspire your own creativity, expand how you see the world, build a collection that you love and care for as much as we do. And together weave a stronger cultural fabric for all of WA.
Chairman’s Foreword

I was honoured to have been asked by the Government to take over the role of Chairman of the Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia from September 2018, subsequent to the resignation of Sam Walsh AO. It is very exciting that my appointment comes at a time when we are celebrating the 30th anniversary of the AGWA Foundation, and will celebrate the 40th anniversary of the opening of the Main Gallery building in October this year. Next July we look forward to another milestone, the 125th anniversary of this institution.

As we approach this anniversary, I am enthusiastic about the Gallery’s prospects. With a committed Board and Foundation Council, together with expert staff, we are well-placed to build on past achievements through our exhibition, acquisition, engagement and partnership programs.

We are also entering a time of change. AGWA’s Director and CEO for the past 11 years, Dr Stefano Carboni, leaves his position in July 2019. During his tenure, Dr Carboni has made a significant contribution to AGWA. More than 1,400 works of art have been added to the Collection, and outstanding exhibitions were brought to Perth, such as the Peggy Guggenheim and Corsini Collections, and the MoMA series which allowed Western Australians and visitors to the State to see cherished works from New York’s Museum of Modern Art.

On behalf of the Board, Foundation Council and staff, I thank him for his hard work, innovation and dedication to the Gallery, one of the State’s most important cultural institutions.

During the recruitment process for a new Director, the Board will work with the Government to ensure continuity for the Gallery in the coming months.

Prior to its election in 2017, the Government made a commitment to the development of a new public space on the Gallery’s rooftop. Architects have been chosen to develop design concepts to ensure desired outcomes are met, and that these concepts address both the rooftop and master planning for the AGWA precinct. Another commitment was to a Regional Exhibition Touring Boost (RETB). The first exhibition made possible through the RETB opened in May in Katanning.

I have been delighted to see the energy in the exhibitions program. The depth and breadth of topics covered by last year’s high school art graduates in the refreshed Pulse Perspectives bodes well for the future of the art scene in this State. The culmination of the six-year partnership with Rio Tinto to produce Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley is a magnificent achievement and much kudos goes to all the curators, project staff, art centre personnel and of course the artists who participated over the years. Prior to my appointment to the Board, AGWA staff had been working with curators from my own Collection to produce an exhibition which would explore the abundant magnificence of the natural world but also the threats that assail it.

This collaboration has been very satisfying, and the resultant exhibition, The Botanical: Beauty and Peril, will open in July.

I also wish to acknowledge my predecessor, Sam Walsh, AO, who resigned when he was appointed Chair of the Australia Council, and, long-serving Board member Michael Anghie, whose term expired during the year.

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank all my Board colleagues for their commitment and wise counsel since my appointment.

On behalf of the Board, I also wish to thank the Foundation Council, led by Chairman Warwick Helmsley, together with members of the Foundation, for the contribution they make to AGWA.

With the support of the Foundation, our donors and lenders, AGWA has again been able to acquire some outstanding works for the Collection. I also offer my thanks to our sponsors, benefactors and partners for their generosity and support.

Again this year AGWA’s staff have put in an outstanding effort, and I thank them sincerely for their exceptional contribution.

I would also like to thank AGWA’s 190 volunteers, and especially the Voluntary Gallery Guides. Without these volunteers giving so generously of their time it would be impossible for the Gallery to function the way it does. We thank them all sincerely.

I take this opportunity to thank the Hon David Templeman MLA, Minister for Culture and the Arts for his support and enthusiasm, and that of the Government of Western Australia for its continuing commitment to AGWA and support for regional exhibitions.

Janet Holmes à Court AC
Chairman
As I bid my farewell to the institution which has been my ‘home’ for the past nearly 11 years, it’s time to reflect on what we have achieved during that time. Usually the time a Director has been in an institution is measured against the background of the number of projects that have been achieved, the number of acquisitions that have been added to the Collection, the growth in the number of Foundation Members, the number of people through the doors. While I am proud of all of the above, for me it’s more about the relationships that we were able to forge; it’s about the experience we have collectively accumulated over time in order to achieve better results; about the many times we have been able to bring this institution to a higher level of visibility, attention and appreciation locally, nationally and internationally. I am proud of what we’ve been able to achieve to give our audience a way of Seeing Things Differently.

Collection
With the move, in the latter part of 2018, of WA Historical (featuring works from the 1700s to the 1910s) from the basement to the first floor, we achieved the completion of the ‘Five paths many journeys’ strategy to make the AGWA Collection more accessible for our visitors. The Collection displays are now divided into AGWA Six Seasons, dedicated to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art; AGWA WA Unlimited, presenting Western Australian art from the 1920s to today; AGWA Modern, which showcases our holdings from 1920 to the late 1960s and AGWA Contemporary, presenting art from the 1970s to today.

Eighty new works have been added to the Collection this financial year, among them the historically important drawing by Charles-Alexandre Lesueur, Cases de la Terre de Lewin (Géographe Bay, W.A.), 1801. We have again been very fortunate to have been able to expand our holding of works by contemporary Australian artists through the generosity of some major donors.

A new initiative to connect regional audiences with the AGWA Collection is now underway. The Regional Exhibition Touring Boost (RETB), an $8 million Royalties for Regions funded partnership between ART ON THE MOVE (AOTM) and AGWA, is aimed at creating a deeper connection and relationship with the regions. The first exhibition, entitled How Did I Get Here? will travel to seven regional galleries, and was launched in Katanning on 12 April 2019.

Exhibitions
In August and September we opened three exhibitions that feature as part of our Rebels, Radicals and Pathfinders season.

We were privileged to partner with the National Gallery of Australia to present Sidney Nolan's Ned Kelly series, which began this season as the rebel of the three. This iconic series of works featuring bushranger Ned Kelly – an antihero intrinsically linked to Australia's national identity – is considered to be one of the greatest sequences of Australian paintings of the 20th century.

This was the first time it has travelled for more than a decade. I am delighted and proud to have been able to bring this celebrated series here to WA, with AGWA being the first venue on a year-long tour to other Australian institutions.
Overview

The pathfinder artists in this series were on display in spaced 3: north by southeast, a collaboration with WA’s International Art Space, in which six Australian artists completed artistic residencies in the Nordic heartlands of Finland, Iceland, Denmark, and Sweden, and five Nordic artists visited rural and remote communities in Western Australia. Using sculpture, video, photography, and installation, this show is an enlightening series of windows onto the world we know, and the world we have yet to understand.

The radicals of the season – Oron Catts and Ionat Zurr presented WA Now – Biomess: the Tissue Culture and Art Project. These two artists, based at the University of WA, have been exploring the intersections of science and art since 1996, and for this exhibition, together with their expanded team of artists and scientists, they explored the creative and ethical implications of developments in the biological sciences. This exhibition was conceived as a single installation made up of three components: live aquarium animals; the artists’ own laboratory-grown living tissue culture, and animal specimens from the Western Australian Museum (WAM) – the latter being part of an ongoing series of exhibition collaborations between AGWA and WAM which began last year with Heath Ledger.

The third exhibition in our now annual Culture Juice program was Beyond Bling! a celebration of jewellery and adornment, which displayed works acquired since the Gallery was founded in 1895. The exhibition featured over 300 pieces drawn from the vaults showcasing the best, the bizarre and the most sophisticated jewels in AGWA’s historical and contemporary collections, along with some ‘civic bling’ treasures from the City of Perth’s collection and examples of jewellery held by local collector enthusiasts.

For the third time, Australia’s Black Swan Prize for Portraiture went on display at AGWA, and this partnership will continue again later in 2019, with a new name The Lester Prize for Portraiture. The ever-popular exhibition of work by graduating high school art students was back with a new name, Pulse Perspective. Both these exhibitions were shown in the Centenary Galleries, which are now being used as a temporary exhibition space.

In February we celebrated the eagerly-awaited culmination of AGWA’s six-year Kimberley visual arts project partnership with Rio Tinto, in the form of Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley, a trailblazing exhibition that revealed the many faces and features of contemporary Aboriginal art from the region.

Part of Perth Festival 2019, this landmark exhibition was an exciting and very current look at Aboriginal art from the region, with artists embracing the opportunity to share their stories of country and lived experience through innovative contemporary art practice. At the heart of the exhibition was a group of eight commissions, made by artists from six art centres and three independent artists, which captured the broad range of contemporary creativity, imagination and texture of Kimberley art and culture. I proudly count Desert River Sea as one of the most significant achievements of the Gallery in the past ten years.

A list of our 2018–19 exhibition program can be found on page 29 of this report, and a full summary is available on the Gallery’s website.

Programs

The Visitor Experience Department continued the very successful Super Saturday initiatives to coincide with the openings of Beyond Bling! and Desert River Sea, which have provided strong foundations for visitation to these exhibitions. Our education programs have been rebranded AGWA Learning, to reflect its mission of going beyond the traditional school excursion, and as usual we have been delighted to welcome a variety of groups for workshops and guided tours.

The Voluntary Gallery Guides, on whom we rely so heavily for their support in providing guided tours of the Collection and special exhibitions, continued to add an extra and much appreciated dimension to Desert River Sea, spaced 3, Ned Kelly and other exhibitions, as well as, of course, our Collection displays.

Operations and Management

We continue to implement the recommendations made in the May 2018 performance audit report by the Office of the Auditor General, on the Management of the State Collection.

However, the long-term care of the AGWA Collection requires a new storage facility, and this is included in a draft business case for the storage of the State archives, currently being worked on by the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries and Treasury for presentation to the Government.

AGWA operates with a dedicated staff in order to bring the best possible programs and displays to the public. I have demanded a lot from all of them, I can assure you that achieving installations, exhibitions, programs, and all objectives on time and at high professional standards, speaks volumes about their commitment and professionalism.

Acknowledgements

The Gallery relies heavily on the generosity of an enthusiastic group of volunteers, who make an inestimable contribution to our operations. To them, the Foundation, and our sponsors, I acknowledge and thank you sincerely for your invaluable contribution. Many thanks also to the numerous organisations and individuals who have partnered with us in order to provide a rich choice of programs in support of our exhibitions.

I am also thankful for the support of the Board, the Minister for Culture and the Arts, the Premier and the State Government.

Finally, I must again express my thanks and gratitude to all AGWA staff. Again this year even more has been asked of every member of our small team; I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Stefano Carboni
Director
Performance Management

Performance Management Framework

Key performance indicators have been developed in accordance with Treasurer’s Instruction 904 to evaluate the Gallery’s performance in achieving the Government Desired Outcome and provide an overview of the critical and material aspects of service provision.

Summary of Key Performance Indicators

Preservation
- The consistency in maintaining proper environmental conditions for works of art on display and in storage.

Accessibility
- The number of in-person and online visits to the Gallery.
- The effectiveness of the Gallery in providing for the enjoyment and cultural enrichment of the people of Western Australia is shown by client satisfaction with Gallery art services.

Key Efficiency Indicator
- Average cost of managing the Collection per Gallery object.
- Average cost of art gallery services per Gallery access.

Financial Overview

AGWA receives revenue from a variety of sources. The State Government provides the majority of revenue as an appropriation to fund core services. In addition, the Gallery receives grants, sponsorships, donations and bequests which fund a diverse range of activities, including the majority of the acquisitions, and without which AGWA could not continue to deliver its current level of services. Much of this revenue is restricted to specific purposes.

AGWA also generates a small portion of its own revenue through commercial activities, including venue hire and retail sales, and occasional fee for entry exhibitions. Total revenue of $14.349 million was received in 2018–19 of which $2.414 million was generated from commercial activity, and from sponsorship and donations. The Gallery continues to manage savings in expenditure.

Highlights

Desert River Sea
Ground-breaking six-year visual arts initiative developed by AGWA with the support of Rio Tinto. Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now came to an end in 2019, with a landmark exhibition Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley (page 25).

Shearing the Rams at AGWA
Tom Roberts’ famous painting Shearing the rams was on loan from the National Gallery of Victoria from March 2019, in return for the loan of AGWA’s much-loved, Droving into the light. Shearing the rams hung alongside AGWA’s Down on his luck by Frederick McCubbin, giving visitors a rare opportunity to see these two great nationalistic narrative paintings side-by-side (page 16).

30 Years of the AGWA Foundation
Since in 1989, more than 5,000 acquisitions can be attributed to the generosity of contributions through the Foundation, representing 30% of the AGWA Collection (page 40). These two 18 carat brooches by George Addis were acquired this year through the Foundation.

Ned Kelly
Exhibition of Sidney Nolan’s masterpiece series, on loan from the National Gallery of Australia in 2018, focussed on the Australian iconic rebel Ned Kelly as immortalised in Sidney Nolan’s celebrated series of 26 works from the 1940s (page 20).
Highlights

First AGWA Collection
Regional touring in 20 years
The Regional Exhibition Touring Boost (RETB) is an $8 million Government-funded partnership between ART ON THE MOVE and AGWA, aimed at creating a deeper connection and relationship with the regions. First exhibition, How Did I Get Here? is travelling to seven regional galleries (page 26).

Art and Memories guided tours and Workshops
Widely acclaimed tours for people with dementia, designed by AGWA’s Voluntary Gallery Guides, with training from Alzheimer’s WA, enable small groups to discover how works of art can encourage conversation, evoke memories and reminiscences (page 24).

Visitor Profile and Satisfaction
Tourists from overseas and interstate made up 43% of AGWA’s visitors this year. 95% of all visitors indicated they were ‘very satisfied’ or ‘satisfied’ with their visit to the Gallery – a 4% increase on the previous year (page 21).

Purchase of historically important drawing by Charles-Alexandre Lesueur
This year AGWA purchased Cases de la Terre de Lewin (Géographe Bay, W.A.) 1801, one of the earliest European visual representations of Western Australia. The detailed, small-scale ink and pencil drawing depicts a south-west Noongar bush campsite scene, near where present-day Busselton can be found (page 14).

Collaboration with Perth Cultural Centre Partners
AGWA provides content for the Yagan Square digital tower, and the Perth Cultural Centre screen. Collaborations between AGWA, the State Library, PICA, the Perth Cultural Centre and Greenworld Revolution have increased markedly this year (page 37).

Credits for works on these two pages appear on page 159 of this Report.
Agency Performance

The Gallery’s performance for 2018–19 is in line with the annual priorities and objectives set out in the Art Gallery of Western Australia Operating Plan and Budget which is within the framework of the Gallery’s Strategic Plan for 2015–2019.

Collecting and Sharing

Strategic Objective:
- To develop and strengthen the State Art Collection.
- To appropriately manage and preserve the State Art Collection
- To increase access to the State Art Collection locally, nationally and internationally

Overview

The Gallery has the finest public art collection of Western Australian art and Indigenous art in the State.

“I loved the Aboriginal. Six Seasons gallery. Many pieces from various rooms fed my soul.”

At 30 June 2019, the State Art Collection comprised 17,922 works.

Outcomes

In 2018–19 the Gallery acquired 56 works of art at a cost of $964,657 and was gifted an additional 27 works for an estimated value of ca. $245,950.

The work of many new Western Australian, Australian and international artists was introduced into the Collection this year. The government allocation for the acquisition of works of art was used to enhance significantly the holding of Western Australian colonial material by the purchase of the historically important drawing by Charles-Alexandre Lesueur, Cases de la Terre de Lewin (Géographe Bay, W.A.), 1801. This detailed, small-scale ink and pencil drawing by this renowned French naturalist and artist voyaged under the captaincy of explorer Nicolas Baudin, depicts a south-west Noongar bush campsite scene, near where present-day Busselton can be found. Having acquired a print of this work in 1977, the Gallery now welcomes the original drawing into the AGWA Collection.

From the exhibition Desert River Sea a group of eight leather hides by five artists, was acquired to strengthen the Gallery’s representation of contemporary art from the Kimberley region of Western Australia.

Other acquisition highlights include works by Khadim Ali, Nigel Hewitt, Alex Israel, and Catherine Opie.

Major gifts from Geoffrey Barlett, Sue and Ian Bernadt, John Cruthers, and John McBride, expanded the holding of works by contemporary Australian artists.

During the year 83 works of art were introduced into the Collection:
- 52% (43 works) were by 33 Western Australian artists
- 35% (29 works) were by 17 Australian artists
- 13% (11 works) were by 7 International artists.

See full list of acquisitions at Appendix C

AGWA Collection

The reinstatement and rebranding of the State Art Collection, now known as the AGWA Collection, which commenced in 2018, was completed in the 2018-19 year with the move of AGWA Historical from the Centenary Galleries to Level One of the main building. The Centenary Galleries are now being used as a temporary exhibition space and this year have hosted the Black Swan Prize for Portraiture in 2018, and Pulse Perspectives (formerly known as Year 12 Perspectives) in 2019.
The AGWA Collection remains the heart of the AGWA experience and now being classified as five distinct areas: AGWA Historical, AGWA Modern, AGWA Contemporary, WA Unlimited and AGWA Six Seasons, it has an identity that reflects its importance to the institution.

Over the past year the Collection management priority has been implementing the recommendations made by the Office of the Auditor General (OAG) in the performance audit report on the Management of the State Collection released in May 2018. In her report, the Auditor General pointed out that, “At the heart of AGWA’s work is conservation of the art works [in the Collection] and presentation of world class art displays. But, AGWA faces significant challenges in this work”, and acknowledged that while fixing the issues will not be easy in a time of restrained government spending, the AGWA staff the auditors met showed a dedication and passion to finding ways to address the issues.

Storage remains a critical issue with some temporary short-term measures, such as temporarily storing some new acquisitions offsite with commercial storage providers, while the longer-term business case for an off-site storage facility is being considered (see page 35). Access to the collection has been improved through the Regional Exhibition Touring Boost, (see page 26) and the project to enhance existing online access by adding the catalogue text with digitised images of works which have copyright clearance for all remaining collection works (see page 16).

Registration has been facilitating a full program of acquisition and exhibition logistics, along with expediting loans from the AGWA Collection to State and National institutions, exhibitions and Government departments.

Importantly, the Registration section, in consultation with a Collection Management Systems consultant, implemented staff training sessions for 26 staff over three days in March 2019, with the structure being arranged to allow for basic to advanced users.

Highlights of the 28 works lent to Australian institutions include,

Brett Whiteley’s The American Dream 1968-69 for the exhibition Baldessin/Whiteley: Parallel Visions at the National Gallery of Victoria.

Hans Heysen’s painting Droving into the light 1914-1921 for the exhibition Hans and Nora Heysen: Two at the National Gallery of Victoria; in exchange for this AGWA received, for the duration of the loan, Tom Robert’s Shearing the rams 1886.

Twenty-two loans were made to the Department of Premier and Cabinet.

Forty-six long term loans to the Gallery were made from private and public collections.

The Indigenous Collection Online under the banner of Six Seasons Online Gallery is now live on the Gallery’s website with over 800 images currently displayed from AGWA’s Collection of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art. Work continues to photograph, secure copyright clearances, update artist biographical details and information pertaining to the works.

The project is currently scheduled to have all permissible works displayed on the website by the end of 2019. Generous funding support from the Gordon Darling Foundation is assisting the Gallery’s determination to provide a rich and inspiring online resource.

A key outcome for Conservation, in response to the recommendations from the Office of the Auditor General, has been the development of a multi-year conservation plan which will guide AGWA’s preventative conservation and Collection conservation and restoration work. This plan will assist staff in the assessment and prioritisation of collection care and treatment.

Conservation staff have been busy this year preparing works for exhibition, particularly for Desert River Sea, and treating new acquisitions for display, with considerable time spent in preparation of Collection works used in the exhibition program.

Staff have also provided conservation advice to the Regional Exhibition Touring Boost and provided venue assessment, to assist regional galleries to upgrade their facilities in order to present exhibitions from the AGWA Collection.

Engaging with and Inspiring Audiences

Strategic Objective:

- To display and present the finest art of the region, nation and the world for Western Australians and visitors to the State
- To provide engaging, inspirational and educational artistic, inclusive art experiences
- To promote the Art Gallery of Western Australia

Overview

AGWA aims to provide visitors with a range of exhibitions and Collection displays designed for a wide and diverse audience. A list of exhibitions and displays shown in 2018-19 can be found on page 29, with full details on the Gallery’s website.

“\textit{This is our favourite gallery in Australia, you have perfected the blend of thematic and chronological display, providing great information and easy viewing. Really enjoyed our visit!}”

Four strategic audience-focused projects were delivered:

- the season \textit{Rebels, Radicals and Pathfinders} (which packaged several exhibitions with different but overlapping appeal);
- the third issue of the \textit{Culture Juice} strand, \textit{Beyond Bling!} was distinctive and intimate, and centred on 300 varied pieces from the State Art Collection from the 1800s to today, \textit{Beyond Bling!} unlocked the vaults to showcase the best, the bizarre and the most sophisticated jewels in AGWA’s Historical and Contemporary Collections.
- the Aboriginal art showcase \textit{Desert River Sea} (refer to page 25); and
- a ’rebooted’ version of the Year 12 graduation show as a year long program inaugurated with \textit{Pulse Perspectives}.

All these projects had dedicated public programs and learning offers, as did the \textit{Black Swan Prize for Portraiture} presented by Artrinsic in association with AGWA.

In addition to the exhibitions and programs in the Gallery, AGWA increasingly strives to provide broad access to the Western Australian community and visitors to the State in other ways, including online information services through the website, and the use of social media applications such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram. The digital strategy benefited from the relaunch of the website in the second part of the year.

A significant development this year was the first regional tour for 20 years initiated as part of a three-year program supported by the Regional Exhibition Touring Boost fund, and delivered by \textit{ART ON THE MOVE}.

Distance learning tools were explored with the launch of the \textit{Drawing Breath} video and workbook, providing visitors and virtual visitors with new ways of appreciating artworks, building on an appreciation of ‘mindfulness’.

Outcomes

A total of 272,236 people visited the Gallery during the year. A new website was launched in February 2019 and the online visitation trend has been positive since then. Virtual access attracted 142,115 unique visitors throughout the year.

The most popular single exhibition was \textit{Sidney Nolan’s Ned Kelly series} presented by the National Gallery of Australia as the lead exhibition in the winter season \textit{Rebels, Radicals and Pathfinders}.

Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley was one of the strongest performing Aboriginal art exhibitions in recent years.

Visitor satisfaction was high, with 95% of visitors indicating they were ‘very satisfied’ or ‘satisfied’ with their visit to the Gallery. The overall satisfaction from visitors who had not visited AGWA for 12 months or more increased from 89% to 97%, suggesting their most recent visit had been very positive.

To extend reach and build awareness, this year AGWA published two program preview magazines with The West Australian which were circulated with the newspaper and beyond – these covered the winter season through to summer seasons of 2018 and 19.

AGWA continued to activate its digital channels in 2018–19, focusing attention on Instagram with a second Instagram account @agwapulse launched, while maintaining Facebook and Twitter, resulting in a Facebook following of 30,577 (10% up on the previous year), 15,009 Instagram followers (an increase of 26%), with Twitter remaining static. The Gallery also became more active on LinkedIn, sharing industry and education related content.

The Gallery’s regular electronic newsletter, Artmail, continued its editorially-focused approach linking to an AGWA blog.

Public relations and editorial support continued as a key channel for AGWA communications, raising awareness of our exhibitions and programs. This year, unpaid media coverage across news and editorial platforms with Western Australian, national and international media outlets totalled 1,681 items, reaching a total audience of 96,281,974. An equivalent amount of advertising space is calculated to cost $16,714,362 (These figures are based on clippings and information provided by iSentia media monitoring services, as well as those collected by AGWA, with the value of the coverage calculated using formulae provided by iSentia.)

The Gallery achieved several editorial highlights during the year, including TV segments for Ned Kelly, Beyond Bling! and Desert River Sea. Extensive coverage was received locally and nationally on ABC Radio and Television, as well as reports on Channels 7 and 10.

“You’ve done a fantastic job on laying out the exhibition; very thoughtful and lighting is superb. I have been to Perth many times and every time we come we love to visit AGWA. A trip to WA would feel incomplete without an AGWA session. Congratulations on how you keep on developing the offerings on display. It’s a real tribute to the Australian art.”

Digital Content

Digital Audio tours, hosted by SoundCloud and available for download from the AGWA website, have been provided free of charge for the Pulse Perspectives and The Botanical exhibitions. They can be accessed using the Gallery’s Wi-Fi, or downloaded before visiting.

The launch of the Six Seasons web portal, supported by the Gordon Darling Foundation, continued to add rich content to the website. It allows audiences to explore Indigenous artworks in the AGWA Collection which are currently in storage.

The introduction of a refreshed and mobile-friendly website to coincide with Desert River Sea saw a new brand video released and a more intuitive navigation system.

AGWA Learning

New workshops and tours were developed providing accessible, inclusive, participatory and responsive programming for all ages. These included a project in partnership with Edith Cowan University’s School of Education, called Conversations With Rain, which explored poetic responses to weather and our relationship to the environment and climate change as a way of transforming our climate futures. A child-made work resulting from studio workshops will features in the exhibition The Botanical: Beauty and Peril, which opens in July 2019.

AGWA’s 2018-19 learning program was well supported with 5,152 students taking part. The visits included primary, secondary and tertiary students undertaking tours, participating in workshops and learning the process of visual analysis. Educator briefings and professional development for teachers were provided, with good attendance for the launch of the Drawing Breath visual response journal, the cultural awareness session for Desert River Sea and the briefing for Pulse Perspectives.

Groups other than traditional school classes, for example home school group networks, alternative schools, international students, pre-service teachers and special needs and disability groups, continued to participate in AGWA Learning programs.

The first half of 2019 saw a large number of senior school groups coming into the Gallery to participate in Visual Analysis workshops, along with tours of Pulse Perspectives.

Four hundred and forty-eight children and their family members participated in school holiday workshops in July, October, January and April. In addition to Artist Activations and the exhibition displays and activities, hands on painting workshops were conducted by local Noongar artists Jade Dolman, for NAIDOC Week 2018 and Justin Martin, of Djurandi Dreaming in January. Both were fully subscribed.

Public Programs

Large scale mass appeal ‘super Saturday’ openings for Beyond Bling! and Desert River Sea created early impact. Early-evening ‘twilight’ opening sessions for Beyond Bling! were organised to reach a wider audience. Programs included a sound event 100 Keyboards by the artist Asuna, and a Curtin University Design School fashion show.

“I am from Holland and teach art there. I still cannot believe the amazing art your students can create.”

Warum Art Centre dancers demonstrating junba dance elements during the Open Day for Desert River Sea.

The program for Rebels, Radicals and Pathfinders was paced across the exhibition period in the second half of 2018, and included artist and curator talks, lectures and other events.

The relaunch of Year 12 Perspectives as Pulse Perspectives created new impact. The opening event, presented for the first time by young people, was a significant shift in style as well as content. The aim is to deliver a year-round program strand, called Pulse, to engage late teens and young adults with AGWA.

The monthly ArtBubs sessions provide an occasion for parents with small babies (up to one year) to get together for a mid-week outing by taking a tour of the Gallery with one of AGWA’s Voluntary Guides, followed by coffee, cake and conversation in the Imagination Room.

Collaboration between AGWA Learning and Public Programs staff and other Perth Cultural Centre institutions has increased this year, with excellent results – see page 36.

Imagination Room supported by Wesfarmers Arts

A brand new and ongoing project has been implemented for the Imagination Room involving artist activations in which a WA artist is engaged to develop a project connected to a key exhibition, and creates a new work of art in collaboration with multigenerational AGWA audiences. Artist Activations in the Imagination Room included very popular school holiday activities: Plastic Fantastic workshops (during Beyond Bling!) with Paula Hart and Helene Offer, and Esther McDowell/Yabini Kickett’s Kaalak Minditj Kaalak (Home Sick Home) project during Desert River Sea, then into NAIDOC Week.

The Imagination Room also hosted Beyond Bling! workshops, exhibitions of designs by jewellery students at Curtin University, and Ned Kelly family mask workshops and displays, in association with the Sidney Nolan visiting exhibition.

Visitor Experience and Interpretation

In addition to the audio tours mentioned above, interpretation of the AGWA Collection was extended with room sheets provided for AGWA Modern, and children’s labels included in the Sidney Nolan Ned Kelly series exhibition.

A computerised booking system for school excursions and guided tour bookings has been designed, and will go into service later in 2019.

Voluntary Gallery Guides

The Voluntary Gallery Guides (VGG) had another busy year, delivering a range of tours which increase AGWA’s accessibility to visitors.

There are currently 72 Active Guides, who are required to design and deliver 28 tours per calendar year and attend fortnightly professional development and training sessions. 20 Associate Members are not required to deliver tours, but support the program by acting as mentors, assisting or delivering training and professional development.

“It’s just wonderful, you can never spend too much time here! The kids loved doing the masks in the Imagination Room.”

The Guides also undertake research, maintain the library and assist with training and professional development. Associate Members must have been Active Guides for at least five years before they can apply for this change in status. There are 27 Life Members, a status awarded to individual Guides after 20 years of voluntary service to AGWA.

This year the VGGs delivered tours as part of AGWA’s Learning program to 5,130 school-aged children and 2,030 adults.

In addition, 3,823 members of the general public visiting the Gallery took advantage of the daily Wesfarmers Walk-in Tours.

“Our guide was both knowledgeable and engaging and was partially responsible for us returning for a longer visits."

This year 20 professional development sessions were held for the Guides. These were designed to support the guiding of the works in the Collection, and the temporary exhibitions. The Guides regular meetings covered a range of themes and included walkthroughs with curators. The Guides also undertook Cultural Awareness training, provided by Ron Bradfield of Yarnsrus, in readiness for touring Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley.

Specially trained Guides took monthly Art and Memories tours for people living with dementia (focusing on evoking memories rather than visual analysis of the artwork). Participants visit the gallery with a carer, and in 2018–19 eight of these tours took place, with a total of 99 participants. Eight Art Adventures workshops in the Education studio attracted 120 participants.

A group of 16 Guides travelled to the Kimberley on a self-funded research trip of the Desert River Sea project region. Guides visited and met with artists, curators and art centre managers at Nagula Jarndu (Broome), Mowanjum (Derby), Mangkaja (Fitzroy Crossing), Yarliyil (Halls Creek), Warmun and Waringarri (Kununurra).

Regional Initiatives

Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now

The ground-breaking six-year visual arts initiative developed by AGWA with the support of Rio Tinto, Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now (DRS), came to an end in 2019, with a landmark exhibition presented at AGWA between 9 February and 27 May. Entitled Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley, the exhibition was accompanied by a publication of the same name.

Presented as part of the 2019 Perth Festival (PF), and with a footprint covering four galleries, Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley was hailed a great success by the Kimberley artists, curators and art centres involved, as well as the general public and arts writers. John McDonald, art critic and columnist for the Sydney Morning Herald, described the exhibition as the best visual arts exhibition of PF 2019.

>“Desert River Sea – Portraits of the Kimberley – Breathtaking, spectacular. It was the best exhibition I’ve seen here. 15/10 rating!!! Great job!!.”

The aim of the Desert River Sea project was to bridge the cultural and geographic distance between the artists of the diverse Kimberley region, AGWA, and national and international audiences, thereby forging a network of cultural and artistic exchange and understanding. The focus of DRS was on collaboration, partnership and Aboriginal self-determination, with the aim of supporting long-term, sustainable outcomes for Kimberley art centres and communities. Through close consultation with senior artists, art centres and community members, the project included the development of a comprehensive digital portal, desertriversea.com.au, launched in 2014, a Visual Arts Leaders professional development program for artists and arts workers, and the resulting exhibition.

Desert River Sea was initially run from a regional office in Broome, supported by two staff members (an Indigenous Community Liaison Officer/Project Co-ordinator and a Project Support Officer).

However, the office closed in May 2018 when the project entered its final stage. This coincided with the completion of former Broome office staff member, Geraldine Henrici’s, contract. Emilia Galatis, who was appointed in January 2018 to assist with the development of the exhibition, took on the role of the Indigenous Community Liaison and Project Coordinator.

A core component of the Desert River Sea exhibition at AGWA was a series of new collaborative artworks from across the Kimberley. Using seed funding provided through DRS, artists from six participating art centres, together with three independent artists, jointly made works of art exclusively for the exhibition, and these commissions formed its centre-piece. They were accompanied by works of art from the AGWA Collection and a selection of legacy works held in art centre collections. Together, nearly 200 works showcased the artistry and innovation of several generations of Kimberley artists. A documentary, On Sacred Ground, 1980 which explored the land rights struggle in the Kimberley in the late 1970s rounded out the DRS exhibition experience. Importantly, seven Kimberley curators were given the opportunity to curate a selection of works that best represented their community collections.

This professional development opportunity was coupled with an art centre internship program organised by the Aboriginal Art Centre Hub of Western Australia, in partnership with AGWA and ART ON THE MOVE (AOTM). Six Aboriginal arts workers also had the opportunity to join the AGWA curators and installation team to install eight commissions, thus, ensuring the professional development opportunities of DRS continued right through to the end of the project.

The exhibition received further funding from the Australian Government through its arts funding and advisory body, the Australia Council, and from the Western Australian Government through the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC).

Regional Exhibition Touring Boost (RETB)

As foreshadowed in last year’s annual report, the WA Government has made an $8 million commitment over six years to a Regional Exhibition Touring Boost, a Royalties for Regions funded partnership between ART ON THE MOVE and AGWA to create a deeper connection and relationship with the regions.

The aim of the RETB is to share Western Australian culture more widely within the State and attract visitors by increasing the number of high quality touring visual arts exhibitions available to regional audiences, including more access to the collections of AGWA and regional galleries.

This includes building the capacity of regional public galleries to receive and present touring visual art exhibitions, and activate local art collections.

An integral part of the process is the Regional Galleries Mapping and Needs Analysis, whereby AOTM and AGWA have investigated opportunities to strengthen regional gallery venues in WA, build audiences, foster networks for art exhibitions, and contribute to the liveability of WA. This includes assessing the standards of current facilities and resources available for managing all aspects of curating, promoting and hosting visual art exhibitions in regional WA; AGWA conservation staff have been instrumental in venue assessment.

To date the Plan has identified a number of key issues facing the regions including training needs in the areas of collection management, curatorial expertise, Gallery management and governance, and has realised the roll out of $97,000 to public galleries across the regions for immediate equipment needs such as climate monitors, display plinths, work platforms and Mila walls. This funding has been made available through the Regional Venues Improvement Plan grant program, managed by DLGSC, for the pilot venues involved in the project.

Freighting Ideas is a new model in touring that focuses on the narrative of ideas to connect regional stories with the AGWA Collection. This project connects regional audiences with the Collection and increases the capacity of regional galleries to present a wide variety of works. Local communities are involved in developing arts activity, and participating in broader conversations around art.

Famous Sharron, the Audience Ambassador of Freighting Ideas, connects audiences to the touring exhibitions. She uses her unique Shazzisms, through direct engagement, provocations, a book launch and site-specific activations, to inspire engagement with the exhibitions and further the key questions of Freighting Ideas: What is art? Who makes it? Who is it for? By discovering art and art galleries, Famous Sharon’s role is to demystify contemporary art making it accessible to diverse audiences and engaging for people who may have had little or no prior interest in exhibitions or galleries.

The exhibition explores the fluidities of identity as captured and performed within relationships between peers, intimates and the art makers themselves. After Katanning the exhibition will tour until September 2020 and will be on show at; The Collie Art Gallery, Ningaloo Centre, Exmouth, Bunbury Regional Art Gallery, Carnarvon Art Gallery, East Pilbara Art Centre and the Geraldton Regional Art Gallery.

Care of Inside Australia

As part of its management of Antony Gormley’s Inside Australia (an internationally acclaimed sculptural installation situated at Lake Ballard in the Shire of Menzies, in Western Australia’s Goldfields region), five works have been repaired, fitted with new bases and returned to the Lake. An annual conservation survey was conducted in December and three works have been identified as requiring repair. This work is underway, for reinstallation after the rainy season.

Realising AGWA Potential

Strategic Objective: To maximise support for AGWA operations and plans, and to strategically manage resources and relationships.

Overview

A key objective for AGWA is to maximise support for AGWA operations and plans from Government, corporate and private sources and to strategically manage these resources and relationships in order to ensure dynamic and sustainable operations to visitors.

Key strategies are to:
- Secure and manage the Gallery’s financial resources;
- Manage and develop AGWA infrastructure and services;
- Manage and improve corporate governance; and
- Develop and maintain strategic relationships.

Outcomes

The expenditure on collection management and conservations, excluding art acquisitions, was $0.904 million and on access and community engagement $9.451 million.

Commercial operations

AGWA generates revenue through commercial operations to supplement government and private funding. Commercial activities include retail, venue hire, and occasionally fee for entry exhibitions.

This year’s good performance from the AGWA Shop comes at a time when the local retail sector has seen declining spending, and reflects improved inventory management. Particular highlights were the Aboriginal collection curated and procured from WA Aboriginal arts centres featured in the Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley exhibition. These products sold well during and after the exhibition and are part of an expanding range of unique products produced by WA artists and craftspeople which are now available from the Shop.

The marketing of AGWA merchandise saw the Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley exhibition catalogue selling well, and a limited-edition series of cards was produced for The Botanical exhibition opening in July 2019.

The AGWA café FRANK, following the end of the previous lease in May 2018, operated as a ‘pop-up’ service in 2018-19 while longer term leasing arrangements for Perth Cultural Centre tenancies were being reviewed. From May 2019 FRANK EXPRESS has been operated by Perth Theatre Trust with shorter hours, pending decisions on the broader Perth Cultural Centre hospitality strategy.

Facilities Management

AGWA is committed to ensuring buildings meet visitor expectations and international standards for the display and storage of the State Art Collection and works of art on loan. The Gallery buildings are all heritage-listed and the Centenary Galleries and Administration building were not built for their current use.

The Departmental Asset Management Team is responsible for ongoing maintenance. Aside from delivering day-to-day building maintenance, the Asset Management Team has worked on improving strategic maintenance program management. This will progressively see ongoing efficiencies and better coordination of facilities management for cultural agencies, including AGWA, in the Perth Cultural Centre.

A major flooring upgrade project, begun in June 2018 with funding from the Asset Investment Program, has enabled AGWA to tile the main staircase and the main temporary gallery on the upper level. The tiling replaces the old worn carpets and significantly improves the appearance and the durability of these areas. The work was completed in July 2018 with the newly upgraded main temporary space open to the public in August 2018.

The installation of displays and exhibitions continues to be improved through the acquisition of additional modular walling components. The walling system has made installations easier and helped reduce ongoing costs of materials used when installing temporary walls.

AGWA is investigating how other elements of the modular system can be used in future to provide for more flexible and cost effective display designs.

AGWA Collection Storage

A key recommendation of the Office of the Auditor General (OAG) performance audit report on the Management of the State Collection released in May 2018 was the significant challenges AGWA faces because of the shortage of storage space in which to house works of art. While all art works are housed in a properly controlled environment – the fundamental requirement to ensure the preservation of the Collection – the storage congestion creates potential risks of damage to works, due to overhandling. AGWA has implemented some short-term measures to improve storage, including further art handling controls and storing recent acquisitions in temporary offsite commercial storage.

While storage conditions are being carefully managed by AGWA’s dedicated professional staff the long-term safety of the Collection requires a new storage facility. The storage requirements of the State Art Collection are included in a draft business case prepared by the DLGSC for the storage of the State archives. The DLGSC is currently consulting with the Department of Treasury on the business case, prior to presentation to Government for consideration.

AGWA building development and the Perth Cultural Centre

AGWA has been working on the planning and design stages to deliver the State Government election commitment for the redevelopment of the Main Gallery Building rooftop as a regular cultural and commercial venue. In the 2017-18 budget the Government provided a capital appropriation for the construction costs for this revitalisation.

In accordance with this commitment AGWA proposes to undertake this work in the run up to the 125th anniversary of the Gallery in 2020. The redevelopment will ensure that AGWA is renewed as an important cultural institution in the Perth Cultural Centre.

The development of the AGWA Main Building, a heritage listed late twentieth century Brutalist style building, is part of master planning for the wider Perth Cultural Centre. The rooftop development will contribute to, and maximise opportunities presented by, the development of the Perth Cultural Centre as a major Western Australian tourist destination. Following a tender process in 2018, architects were chosen to develop design concepts to ensure desired outcomes are met. Approval for the design and construction program are expected to be complete by the end of 2019.

AGWA is working closely with the Office of the Government Architect and the Metropolitan Redevelopment Authority (MRA) on improvements to, and master planning of, the Perth Cultural Centre. The collaboration with MRA has supported public events adding vibrancy to the Cultural Centre.

Corporate Governance
AGWA is governed by the Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia in accordance with the Art Gallery Act 1959.

The AGWA Executive Team is responsible for performance and corporate management at AGWA. With the support of Department Heads, the Executive monitors the achievement of corporate strategies and objectives, oversees financial management and resourcing needs and coordinates activities across all areas of the organisation.

High standards of governance and accountability are also maintained by comprehensive business, performance and planning frameworks.

For details see the Governance section, page 47.

Audit Arrangements
A number of performance and compliance reviews were undertaken in the year in accordance with the endorsed Strategic Internal Audit Plan. The audit of the financial statements was undertaken by the Office of the Auditor General.

The financial statements are included in the Financial Statements section. Audit activity is monitored by the Board’s Audit and Risk Committee, which met three times.

Government Relations
AGWA continues to consult and work collaboratively with the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries, portfolio agencies, and other Government agencies. During the year, AGWA has participated in a departmental group of Perth Cultural Centre agencies to develop combined contracts for the provision of a range of corporate services, such as security, cleaning and grounds maintenance.

Perth Cultural Centre Collaborations
AGWA has collaborated with the Metropolitan Redevelopment Authority and Screenwest to provide content for the digital tower in Yagan Square, highlighting the Gallery’s exhibitions and works on display, with a focus on Indigenous work. AGWA also participates weekly on the screen in the Perth Cultural Centre.

AGWA Learning has developed a strong relationship with the Education Officer at the State Library of Western Australia (SLWA) with AGWA’s Education Officer presenting at their GLAM (Galleries, Libraries and Museums) event talking about Drawing Breath pedagogy and other programming at AGWA for Primary Schools. AGWA and PICA (Perth Institute for Contemporary Arts) ran a joint event during Pulse Perspectives, which featured Pulse Perspectives and Hatched (PICA’s graduate show) artists talking about traditional and unconventional pathways into the arts. Participants met at PICA to view Hatched, then visited AGWA to see Pulse Perspectives, with three of the AGWA artists giving mini artists talks; this was followed by a panel discussion in the AGWA Theatrette. Plans are underway for a similar collaboration in 2019–20, and AGWA’s Visitor Engagement Manager and PICA’s Engagement Producer have started discussions on possible public program collaborations.

AGWA has partnered with the Perth Cultural Centre (PCC) as part of Esther McDowell’s Artist Activation Kaalak Minditj Kaalak (Home Sick Home) to install three planter boxes.

featuring work by multigenerational AGWA audiences exploring the displacement of Endemic Species. Toby Whittington from Green World Revolution sourced and planted native species and bush foods in the planter boxes and the whole project spans the exhibitions Desert River Sea and The Botanical: Beauty and Peril. These boxes will be launched in July 2019. As part of the artist activation project for this event, Propel Youth commissioned Esther McDowell to facilitate a dry brush painting incursion with the Yokayi Girls Program (supporting First Nations girls at Balga and Girrawheen High Schools and Kiara College in the arts). AGWA also offered its Education Studio to Propel Youth as an event venue during the 2019 Kickstart Festival.

AGWA is partnering on a Research Council linkage project being led by The University of Western Australia and Deakin University, with the Western Australian Museum (WAM), the State Library of Western Australia (SLWA) and the British Museum, that will culminate in a major exhibition at AGWA and be accompanied by a number of publications and public lectures.

AGWA and SLWA partnered in a project to catalogue and rehouse photographic and archival material relating to the Louis Allen Collection of Indigenous artefacts.

The partnership with Green World Revolution (GWR) continued with the community garden now in its third year, growing food in the backyard space called AGWA Botanical. During The Botanical: Beauty and Peril exhibition, everlasting daisies have also been planted in this space.

Collaboration has taken place between the SLWA and AGWA Marketing Departments for cross-promotion of each other’s events via social media and on foyer screens. AGWA’s The Botanical exhibition was promoted through SLWA’s social media channels, and AGWA similarly promoted SLWA’s Festival of Disrupted Ideas. There are plans for a Behind the Scenes tour of SLWA’s archives for AGWA Members.

Talks have taken place with Education and Engagement Officers at the WA Museum, setting up a basis for future partnerships once the New Museum for Western Australia opens in 2020.

External relationships

The nature of AGWA’s operations demands strong ongoing relationships with government representatives and agencies, artists and their representatives, other galleries and museums, the business sector, the media, volunteers and the wider community.

These relationships build on AGWA’s ability to present the finest exhibitions, public and education programs through grant and sponsorship support, and add significant value to the State Art Collection through gifts and donations to the AGWA Foundation. AGWA’s Foundation is responsible for encouraging philanthropy and securing funds for the acquisition of works of art for the collection and the broader program, including exhibitions and interpretation programs. The AGWA Foundation and its activities are reported on in the AGWA Foundation section.

AGWA’s exhibitions and programs have had the support of private foundations and government grant funding bodies.

- Healthway, Act-Belong-Commit is the Principal Partner of Pulse Perspectives and is also AGWA’s Youth Art Access Partner for programs that target this audience. Healthway’s sponsorship is a valued resource for AGWA’s activities, events and education initiatives that encourages access for all. In turn, AGWA creatively promotes Act-Belong-Commit’s important mental health messaging in the community, with particular focus on youth and Indigenous audience engagement.

- Pulse Perspectives Exhibition Education Sponsors. The Gallery is grateful for the generous support of its Education sponsors, the Department of Education, and the Catholic Education Office. Not only do they contribute financially to the Pulse Perspectives exhibition, but they are integral to the exhibition’s promotion, and circulate information to students and teachers in the WA school community.

Other partnerships

The partnership between AGWA and Curtin University went from strength to strength with a co-collaboration and student engagement project for Beyond Bling! including a fashion show and display of graduate jewellery work in the Imagination Room. Preparations have been completed for a joint symposium on ‘Brutalism’ to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the AGWA building and Perth’s early role in the architectural style in Australia.

As part of the What On Earth project, which links exhibitions celebrating the botanical world, The Botanical exhibition has enabled AGWA to establish partnerships with the Kings Park Festival, King Street Art Centre, Mundaring Arts Centre, Midland Junction Arts Centre and Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery at UWA (which has also joined with AGWA for a symposium on The Botanical).

The Gallery partnered with the Western Australian Museum and the Unhallowed Arts Festival during the exhibition Biomess, which was part of Rebels Radicals and Pathfinders season. Desert River Sea was a key part of the 2019 Perth Festival and the collaboration brought the Gallery additional exposure.

Creative partnerships with City of Perth collection and Georg Jensen helped expand the program and reach of the Beyond Bling! exhibition.

The 2018 NAIDOC celebration was a collaborative effort across Perth, and the Gallery played its part in the theme “Because of her we can,” with special events including a new music performance on the Noongar ‘six seasons’ and a talk by WA Now artist, Julie Dowling.

A new partnership with Edith Cowan University called Conversations with Rain – an all ages creative exploration of people’s relationship with rain and the environment through memory, senses and imagination – has been developed to extend the learning program for The Botanical exhibition.

Sponsor and Corporate Events

Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the Art Gallery of Western Australia Foundation, the Gallery’s major acquisition fund. Since its inception, more than 5,000 acquisitions can be attributed to the generosity of contributions through the Foundation, either through gifts of cash, bequests, or donations of works of art. This represents 30% of the AGWA Collection. Given that the Gallery is 124 years old, the Foundation has had an extraordinary effect in a relatively short period of time.

This facility to acquire works has a profound impact not only on the Collection but also on the vitality of the cultural sector in Western Australia. Of note is the contribution made via the Foundation’s TomorrowFund. This legacy fund was initiated in 2008 and earnings to date have enabled acquisitions of 426 works of contemporary art - 178 Western Australian, 182 Australian and 66 international works.

This priority was also demonstrated in the Foundation’s 2018 Appeal, which focussed on jewellery acquisitions to feature in Beyond Bling! – the third exhibition in AGWA’s successful Culture Juice program.

With the aim of broadening the knowledge, understanding and appreciation of art in the community, members receive invitations to unique events such as previews of major exhibitions, functions with featured artists or curators, international tours with the Director, behind-the-scenes tours of the Collection and conservation labs, and more.

Highlight events and activities in 2018–19 included a private tour of the Beyond Bling! exhibition with curator Robert Cook and a special lecture by visiting expert Chris Tellis on the appropriate use of technology in museums. Special preview events were also held prior to the exhibition openings of Sidney Nolan’s Ned Kelly series, spaced 3: north by southeast, and Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley.

AGWA Members

2018–19 was AGWA Members’ first full operational year, following dissolution of the independently incorporated Friends of the Art Gallery of WA in June 2017.

This year saw consolidation of membership packages and the pricing structure, and a more integrated and refined approach to communications and events programming.

Exclusive events for Members included an end-of-year function, and a sneak peak of Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley, ahead of opening day. Members were also able to take advantage of discounted access to public programs, including a Mother’s Day high tea, after-hours talks and tours, and lectures.

The Members’ program will continue to offer exclusive and early access, discounts, and reciprocal benefits at sister organisations around Australia.

Volunteers and Interns

In 2018-19 AGWA had a total of 190 volunteers. These include Active and Associate Voluntary Gallery Guides, and the volunteers who contributed to daily operations at Reception and the AGWA Members desk, as well as others who have assisted with administration tasks in various departments, the running of school holiday programs, and with ART BALL. Again this year AGWA had the assistance of several student volunteers who are required to undertake a formal internship as part of their university course.

A volunteer management system was launched in November 2018 and is being used by the Voluntary Gallery Guides and the Get Involved Desk volunteers.

The current volunteer pool is made up of a diverse group, ranging from fine arts and arts management students wishing to gain real world experience, retirees, international students, and those who are looking to contribute to the Perth arts scene.

The volunteers’ friendly and informative service is greatly appreciated by visitors, as demonstrated by the high level of positive feedback received regarding how they have enhanced visitors’ Gallery experience.

All AGWA volunteers have an enthusiasm for Perth arts and culture, and willingness to learn. They possess exceptional communication skills with a high proficiency in the English language, a reliable and positive attitude towards work, and the ability to work as part of a team.

AGWA Ambassadors are the first point of contact for many visitors. They commit to a minimum of one morning or afternoon shift per fortnight, and their passionate support allows the Gallery to be brought to life for visitors through events, exhibitions and public programs.

AGWA Ambassadors inspire creativity and stimulate conversations. They proactively greet visitors in a friendly and engaging manner, promote the Gallery’s exhibitions, cloak bags or parcels, respond to enquiries from visitors about AGWA’s displays, facilities, programs and the surrounding area, and encourage and advocate participation in public programs.

Get Involved Ambassadors (formerly AGWA Members Ambassadors) volunteer one morning or afternoon weekly, and advocate for deeper and sustained visitor engagement and involvement with the Gallery. From the Get Involved Desk in the AGWA Concourse, these volunteers facilitate AGWA Membership, Artmail subscriptions, bookings for Gallery events, and general observations about the Gallery and its services.

Knowledge Gatherers help AGWA gather valuable feedback from visitors by conducting surveys about their visit.

This role is particularly suited to anyone wishing to learn more about audience development and Gallery operations or anyone interested in a career in the arts industry. AGWA Experience Ambassadors help with and promote AGWA’s exciting calendar of public programs and events. This role is particularly suited to those seeking volunteering experience outside of regular business hours. They assist with the delivery of AGWA’s public programs by performing front of house duties at public programs and events, and also oversee activities taking place in the Imagination Room by proactively promoting these activities to Gallery visitors. Some of these volunteers also assist the Educator in preparing for workshop delivery.

• AGWA Curator, Indigenous Australian and First Nations Arts, Carly Lane with artist TJYLLYUNGGOO/Lance Chadd and partner Trish Rob at exhibition opening.

Significant Issues impacting AGWA

The following issues have been identified as those which will be at the forefront of AGWA's consideration in the coming year.

The Gallery will celebrate its 125th anniversary in 2020, providing an excellent opportunity to deliver an engaging experience of the visual arts in Western Australia and full access to the State Art Collection through an online catalogue.

The Collection management priority will be to fully implement the recommendations made by the Office of the Auditor General (OAG) in the performance audit report on the Management of the State Collection released in May 2018, including continuing to manage storage issues and to work with the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries on a long-term storage solution.

AGWA will begin construction for the re-development of the Main Building rooftop in line with the Government's 2017 election commitment. This will activate and modernise existing spaces, and offer visitors a unique experience in the Perth Cultural Centre. AGWA will continue to provide normal services throughout the re-development.

2019-20 will be the second year of the three-year collaboration with ART ON THE MOVE to deliver the Government-funded Regional Exhibitions Touring Boost (RETB) to share the work of Western Australian visual arts and the State Art Collection more widely within Western Australia.

AGWA continues to build and develop major partnerships to support the delivery of services and programs. The Gallery collaborates with a range of Western Australian organisations, such as the Perth Festival, the Fringe World Festival, and Artrinsic Inc. (The Lester Prize for Portraiture).
Governance

The Gallery’s objectives and outcomes are delivered through the Executive, whose members report to the Director. The Director is responsible to the Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia for the day to day operations of the Gallery.

The Director and Executive meet regularly to consider key planning and policy matters relating to corporate governance of the Gallery including financial and human resource management issues, risk management, capital works programs, audience engagement and other key operational matters to provide updates on the Gallery’s activities and Board meeting outcomes.

Staff committees meet regularly to assist with matters relating to acquisitions, conservation, research, marketing, education and events, in line with the Gallery’s Strategic Plan. Special teams are established as required to coordinate and oversee specific programs or projects.

Pricing policies
Most Gallery exhibitions are presented free of charge to the public. When major exhibitions are mounted as a joint venture with another institution, the ticket cost for such exhibitions is based on a contractual negotiation with the joint venture partner and contributes towards the cost of the exhibition.

Capital works
AGWA's capital works program includes projects funded from State Government capital appropriations. Details of the major completed works and purchases are outlined below.

Completed capital projects
Funding of $500,000 provided in 2017–18 through the Infrastructure Improvement Program allowed the replacement of the carpet by tiles in Galleries 7 and 8, adjoining rest areas and the central spiral staircase carpet. This work which commenced in June 2018 was completed at the end of July 2018, on time and on budget.

Employment and Industrial Relations

Staff Profile

The Gallery employed 43 people in 2018–19 representing an average of 46.20 full time equivalents (FTEs) over the year. AGWA relies heavily on volunteers throughout the year and, where possible, recruits casual staff during major exhibitions to meet short-term needs.

During 2018–19, where possible, staff continued to be provided with options for flexible working arrangements, such as working from home, working part-time, flexible start and finish times, and purchased leave arrangements.

Staff development and recruitment

AGWA employees’ diversity of skills and experience provide the foundation on which to further develop the resources required to deliver a wide range of art gallery services. The Gallery continues to promote a workplace which encourages staff learning and development. Staff received support for attendance at workshops and seminars. In 2018-19 two staff members completed a professional workshop on Time-based Media at the Art Gallery of NSW which will assist staff in managing new media in the State Art Collection. The bulk of training was provided through in-house training carried out by staff. Training activities ranged from conservators training staff on proper art handling techniques, and ongoing OHS training and refreshers in such areas as manual handling. All staff attended workshops on the new Code of Conduct and managing cultural change.

AGWA maintained its commitment to supporting professional training in the sector through regular ongoing professional internships allowing studying or new professionals to gain direct experience working in an art museum. Marni Ridgeway, who commenced a 12 months traineeship as part of the PSC Aboriginal Traineeship Program in May 2018, has successfully completed her traineeship and is now engaged by the Gallery as a Visitor Development Assistant assisting the Visitor Experience team, including working on the project to implement the booking system for school excursions.

The Gallery’s recruitment and selection policies and procedures aim to attract and retain the most suitably qualified and experienced people. During the year, the Gallery, in conjunction with the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC), worked on improved workforce planning including strategies to improve recruitment.

Occupational Health, Safety and Injury Management

AGWA is committed to providing and maintaining a healthy and safe working environment for all of its employees, contractors and visitors. We demonstrate this through our policies, procedures and work practices to ensure that all employees are safe from harm in the workplace and through Executive leadership in promoting and supporting a safe and healthy workplace. Staff induction covers OHS training.

AGWA ensure that policies and procedures are communicated to all staff through team meetings and briefings and regular OHS events. OHS documentation is available on the AGWA and DLGSC intranets for staff to consult as required. The policy framework is underpinned by AGWA’s annual operating plan which sets targets for occupational safety, health and injury management performance.

A key part of occupational health and safety management is the five-yearly assessment of the occupational safety and health management system. This assessment was completed independently in 2017–18 by the DLGSC WHS & WC Consultant using the WorkSafe Plan rating method. The findings were reviewed by internal audit and a WHS Improvement Action Plan for AGWA was endorsed in June 2017. The Plan covers improvement actions across all five of the WorkSafe Plan elements with scheduled completion dates. The Plan will be reviewed regularly by the Executive and OHS Committee and progress reported to the Board Audit and Risk Management Committee.

The Occupational Safety and Health Committee, including the employee representatives, is key to occupational safety and health consultation within AGWA. The Committee is chaired by a member of Executive to ensure effective communication on OHS matters between Executive and staff. The Committee members are accessible and effectively utilised by both management and employees in the discussion and resolution of occupational safety and health issues.

They help ensure that all staff are kept aware of OH&S processes and are active in carrying out routine workplace hazard inspections. The Committee meets bi-monthly to discuss and resolve occupational safety and health issues, review hazard and incident reports, and review progress against the WHS Improvement Action Plan.

The policy and procedures of AGWA are compliant with the Occupational Safety and Health Act 1984 and the Workers Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981. AGWA uses the DLGSC formal, documented injury management and return to work programs for employees requiring modified and alternative duties or equipment and is committed to assisting staff return to work after a work-related injury or illness.

- Provide Employee Assistance Program for employees;
- Provided influenza vaccination for employees;
- Meditation and chair massage days as part of a health and wellness program;
- Ergonomic assessments as required to ensure a safe workplace for employees.

Compliance with Injury Management Requirements

AGWA demonstrates its commitment to assist employees to return to work after a work-related injury or work-related disease through the Injury Management Policy. Information on workers compensation and injury management is provided to staff at induction and via the departmental intranet. Through DLGSC, the Gallery engages in formal, documented programs for employees requiring modified duties or equipment upon returning to work after an injury. Such programs are compliant with the Worker’s Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981.

Note (1) The performance reporting examines a three-year trend and, as such, the comparison base year is to be two years prior to the current reporting year (please refer to the Disclosures and Legal Compliance section of the Annual Reporting Framework as published by the Public Sector Commission for comparison base year and current year details).

The most common injuries in 2018–19 were minor. AGWA’s Occupational Safety and Health Committee met regularly during 2018–19 to discuss and resolve issues raised by staff, review hazard reports, discuss injury trends and identify preventative measures to promote a safe working environment.

Compliance with Public Sector Standards and Ethical Codes

(‘Public Sector Management Act 1994 Section 31(1)’)

AGWA, comes under the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC). The departmental and agency Human Resources teams continue to work to review and update workforce policies, procedures and guidelines to ensure that they are aligned with contemporary legislative and compliance frameworks. The AGWA HR Manager works with the Gallery’s managers to ensure compliance with Public Sector legislative and regulatory frameworks, and to support specific workplace needs including advice on compliance with the Standards regarding employment, performance management, grievance resolution, redeployment, termination and discipline. AGWA staff are provided access to the human resources policies, procedures and guidelines that govern their employment.

The ethical compliance of AGWA staff is underpinned by the departmental Code of Conduct Policy. A revised departmental Code of Conduct was released in 2018-19. The new Code of Conduct was developed to provide an easier to understand and more practical guide to assist staff in everyday behaviour and decision-making. All AGWA staff attended workshops to introduce them to the Code of Conduct. New staff are introduced to the Code of Conduct during their inductions.

AGWA is committed to educating its workforce in the Public Sector Standards and ethical codes. AGWA communicates new or updated policies and guidelines to all staff and provides advice or training as required. New staff receive training on the minimum legislative requirements for working within the public sector including, but not limited to recordkeeping, procurement and freedom of information.

Compliance with the Public Sector Standards and Ethical Codes is assessed by several different methods, including regular internal and external reviews of related procedures and staff feedback. In the 2018-19 financial year, AGWA recorded:

- No breaches of the Public Sector Standards in Human Resource Management;
- One breach of the Public Sector Code of Ethics and Culture and Arts Portfolio Code of Conduct, which was investigated and substantiated;
- No breaches of the Grievance Standard;
- No incidences of misconduct requiring investigation; and
- No Public Interest Disclosure was lodged.

Substantive Equality

AGWA is committed to the equality of opportunity for all Western Australians and identifying and eliminating barriers wherever they exist in our service delivery. As one of the State’s most visited cultural organisations, our visitors come from diverse backgrounds and AGWA aims to ensure equitable access to everyone who uses our services.

Direction for AGWA’s substantive equality comes from the Culture and Arts Portfolio Substantive Equality Reference Group which plans how the Culture and Arts Portfolio can improve access for customers from different ethnic, religious and cultural groups to the services that are provided by the Portfolio.

This year, AGWA had two major initiatives to improve access to visitors and clients with disabilities. A new Disability Action and Inclusion Plan 2019-2024 was developed and published. The Plan sets out AGWA commitments to improving access and consultation with people with disability. The AGWA Disability Services Planning Committee will oversee the implementation and review of the plan. Another important initiative is a partnership with Mind the Change to develop and deliver workshops and guided tours to people living with dementia, continuing the work started with Alzheimer’s Australia in 2012-13.

Another significant area of work and progress in 2018-19 was improving participation and access by Aboriginal people. Desert River Sea: Kimberley Art Then and Now, a ground-breaking six-year visual arts initiative developed by AGWA with funding support from the Rio Tinto Community Investment Fund, concluded with a publication and landmark exhibition Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley in 2019 celebrating the region’s art and culture (see page 25).

Compliance with Public Sector Standards and Ethical Codes – continued

The project bridged the cultural and geographic distance between Aboriginal artists of the diverse Kimberley region, AGWA in Perth and national and international audiences, thereby forging a network of cultural and artistic exchange and understanding. Born out of close consultation with senior artists, art centres and community members, the project included the development of a comprehensive digital portal www desertriversea.com.au, a Visual Arts Leaders professional development program and research and documentation.

A further initiative to engage more with regional audiences is the Regional Exhibition Touring Boost (RETB). The RETB includes a regional galleries’ mapping and needs project which is assessing how venues can be improved to enable these galleries to receive and present touring art exhibitions to their communities (see page 26).

Other ongoing measures introduced by AGWA include:

- conservation support for Antony Gormley’s Inside Australia at Lake Ballard in the Shire of Menzies, to support access to art in regional areas (see page 27)
- Educational tours and/or workshops for students with special needs or with English as a second language (see page 22)
- Monthly ArtBubs program for parents with small babies (see page 23).

• Sculptures forming part of Inside Australia at Lake Ballard.

Disability access and inclusion plan outcomes

AGWA’s Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2019–24 is now in place, and ensures that all visitors, including people with disabilities, can access Gallery services and facilities. The plan is subject to review and is amended as priorities and needs change.

Specific initiatives undertaken by AGWA to enhance access and inclusion in 2018–19 were:

- Continuation of the Art and Memories tour and Artistic Adventures workshop program for people living with dementia.
- A descriptor tour and an Auslan interpreted tour on the themes of Pulse Perspectives and Australian Identity were offered this year.

Gallery activities and initiatives in 2018–19 that relate to the seven desired Disability Access and Inclusion Plan outcomes included:

Outcome 1:
Visitors with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to access our services and events:

- Assessment of exhibitions and displays to address access issues for visitors with disabilities.
- Wheelchair access/area at events.
- School holiday activities suitable for children with different levels of ability.
- Ongoing programs for people with disabilities, including such activities as the award-winning Touch Tours for sight-impaired visitors, descriptor tours for visitors with low vision, and customised programs for specific group needs.

Outcome 3:
People with disabilities receive information at or from the Art Gallery of Western Australia in a format that will enable them to access the information as readily as other people are able to access it:

This includes provision of labels for major exhibitions in large font formats in a folder available from Reception, and a transcription of audio tours is also provided in print for those who cannot access the material aurally. A recorded information line is accessible by telephone.
- Provision of education experiences for students with disabilities.

“Our son is a 4 year old living with Autism and I am a big advocate for inclusion and acceptance in the disability sector. That particular outing was one of his favourites and the whole experience was amazing not only due to the exhibits, but also the staff and volunteers.”

Outcome 4:
Visitors with disabilities receive the same level and quality of service from Art Gallery staff as other people who do not have a disability:

- Continued development of staff skills to promote a positive and inclusive service culture.
- In-service training on disability awareness for Gallery staff and volunteers.

Outcome 5:
People with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to make complaints to a public authority:

- Provision of various feedback options including in person, telephone, email, and written correspondence.

Outcome 6:
People with disabilities have the same opportunities as others to participate in any public consultation by the Art Gallery:

- Inclusion of a random sample of the community as part of formal market research.
- Ensuring that any consultation process targets representatives from the disability sector.

Outcome 7:
People with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to seek employment with the culture and the arts portfolio:

- Ensure recruitment policies and practices are inclusive.
Recordkeeping Plan

Under the State Records Act 2000 every government organisation is required to have a Recordkeeping Plan (RKP). The RKP describes how recorded information is created and managed within AGWA and must be complied with by the organisation, its employees and contractors, including organisations performing outsourced services. The RKP is an essential business tool which assists with the identification, management and legal disposal of key information assets and, therefore, must be kept current. Section 28 (5) of the State Records Act 2000 requires that no more than five years must elapse between approval of a government organisation’s RKP and a review of it. AGWA’s RKP, and associated policies and procedures, was reviewed and registered with the State Records Office in 2018.

A major upgrade of electronic records management system in June 2018 provided AGWA with improved electronic record-keeping, a reduction paper records, and an increase the number of staff who have direct access to creating and finding records relating to their work. The upgrade was supported by online training materials which have continued to improve the consistency of training content and provide ongoing assistance to staff using the system.

Recordkeeping officers continued to provide training and advice to assist staff to understand their roles and responsibilities in respect of their compliance in keeping of records and to ensure the maintenance of a strong recordkeeping culture. The Records staff were involved in the departmental working group which oversaw the planning and implementation of the upgrade to the records management system and in the review and updating of the RKP.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year ended 30 June 2019

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 30 June 2019

1. Basis of preparation

The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia ("the Board") is a W.A. Government entity and is controlled by the State of the Western Australia, which is the ultimate parent. The Board is a not-for-profit entity (as profit is not its principal objective).

A description of the nature of its operations and its principal activities have been included in the 'Overview' which does not form part of these financial statements.

These annual financial statements were authorised for issue by the Accountable Authority of the Board on 27 August 2019.

Statement of compliance

The general purpose financial statements are prepared in accordance with;

1) The Financial Management Act 2006 (FMA)
2) The Treasurer's Instructions (the Instructions or T1)
3) Australian Accounting Standards (AAS) - Reduced Disclosure Requirements.
4) Where appropriate, those AAS paragraphs applicable for not-for-profit entities have been applied.

The Financial Management Act 2006 and the Treasurer's Instructions (the Instructions) take precedence over AAS. Several AAS are modified by the Instructions to vary application, disclosure format and wording. Where modification is required and has had a material or significant financial effect upon the reported results, details of that modification and the resulting financial effect are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

Basis of preparation

These financial statements are presented in Australian dollars applying the accrual basis of accounting and using the historical cost convention. Certain balances will apply a different measurement basis (such as the fair value basis). Where this is the case the different measurement basis is disclosed in the associated note. All values are rounded to the nearest thousand dollars ($'000).
Judgements and estimates

Judgements, estimates and assumptions are required to be made about financial information being presented. The significant judgements and estimates made in the preparation of these financial statements are disclosed in the notes where amounts affected by those judgements and/or estimates are disclosed. Estimates and associated assumptions are based on professional judgements derived from historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Contributed equity

AASB Interpretation 1038 Contributions by Owners Made to Wholly-Owned Public Sector Entities requires transfers in the nature of equity contributions, other than as a result of a restructure of administrative arrangements, to be designated by the Government (the owner) as contributions by owners (at the time of, or prior, to transfer) before such transfers can be recognised as equity contributions. Capital appropriations have been designated as contributions by owners by TI 955 Contributions by Owners made to Wholly Owned Public Sector Entities and have been credited directly to Contributed Equity.

The transfers of net assets to/from other agencies, other than as a result of a restructure of administrative arrangements, are designated as contributions by owners where the transfers are non-discretionary and non-reciprocal.
Notes to the Financial Statements

Notes to the Financial Statements

Wages and salaries: Employee expenses include all costs related to employment including wages and salaries, fringe benefits tax, leave entitlements, termination payments and WorkCover premiums.

Termination benefits: Payable when employment is terminated before normal retirement date, or when an employee accepts an offer of benefits in exchange for the termination of employment. Termination benefits are recognised when the Board is demonstrably committed to terminating the employment of current employees according to a detailed formal plan without possibility of withdrawal or providing termination benefits as a result of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to present value.

Superannuation: The amount recognised in profit or loss of the Statement of Comprehensive Income comprises employer contributions paid to the GSS (concurrent contributions), the WSS, the GESBs, or other superannuation funds. The employer contribution paid to the Government Employees Superannuation Board (GESB) in respect of the GSS is paid back into the Consolidated Account by the GESB.

GSS (concurrent contributions) is a defined benefit scheme for the purposes of employees and whole-of-government reporting. It is however a defined contribution plan for Board purposes because the concurrent contributions (defined contributions) made by the Board to GESB extinguishes the Board’s obligations to the related superannuation liability.

The Board does not recognise any defined benefit liabilities because it has no legal or constructive obligation to pay future benefits relating to its employees. The Liabilities for the unfunded Pension Scheme and the unfunded GSS transfer benefits attributable to members who transferred from the Pension Scheme, are assumed by the Treasurer. All other GSS obligations are funded by concurrent contributions made by the Board to the GESB.

The GESB and other fund providers administer public sector superannuation arrangements in Western Australia in accordance with legislative requirements. Eligibility criteria for membership in particular schemes for public sector employees vary according to commencement and implementation dates.

2.1(b) Employee Benefits Provisions

Provision is made for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave and long service leave for services rendered up to the reporting date and recorded as an expense during the period the services are delivered.

Notes to the Financial Statements

The provision for annual leave is calculated at the present value of expected payments to be made in relation to services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

(b) Long service leave liabilities: Unconditional long service leave provisions are classified as current liabilities as the Board does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

Pre-conditional and conditional long service leave provisions are classified as non-current liabilities because the Board has an unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability until the employee has completed the requisite years of service.

Assessments indicate that actual settlement of the liabilities is expected to occur as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>2019 $000</th>
<th>2018 $000</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Within 12 months of the end of the reporting period</td>
<td>181</td>
<td>248</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 12 months of after the end of the reporting period</td>
<td>494</td>
<td>483</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The provision for long service leave are calculated at present value as the Board does not expect to wholly settle the amounts within 12 months. The present value is measured taking into account the present value of expected future payments to be made in relation to services provided by employees up to the reporting date. These payments are estimated using the remuneration rate expected to apply at the time of settlement, discounted using market yields at the end of the reporting period on national government bonds with terms to maturity that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.

(c) Employment on-costs: The settlement of annual and long service leave liabilities gives rise to the payment of employment on-costs including workers compensation insurance. The provision is the present value of expected future payments.

Employee on-cost includes workers’ compensation insurance and other employment on-costs. The on costs liability associated with the recognition of annual and long service leave liabilities is included at Note 2.1(b) Employee benefit provision. Superannuation contributions accrued as part of the provision for leave are employee benefits and are not included in employment on-costs.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty – long service leave

Key estimates and assumptions concerning the future are based on historical experience and various other factors that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Several estimates and assumptions are used in calculating the Board’s long service leave provision. These include:

- Expected future salary rates
- Discount rates
- Employee retention rates; and
- Expected future payments

Changes in these estimations and assumptions may impact on the carrying amount of the long service leave provision.

Any gain or loss following revaluation of the present value of long service leave liabilities is recognised as employee benefits expense.

(b) Included in this balance are lease payments of $1,529 (2018:$14,603) paid to Department of Finance -Government Office Accommodation.

(c) Expected credit losses were not measured in 2017-18.

Supplies and services:

Supplies and services are recognised as an expense in the reporting period in which they are incurred. The carrying amounts of any materials held for distribution are expensed when the materials are distributed.
Notes to the Financial Statements

Accommodation expenses:
Operating lease payments are recognised on a straight line basis over the lease term, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern of the benefits derived from the use of the leased asset.

Repairs, maintenance and cleaning costs are recognised as expenses as incurred.

Other:
Other operating expenses generally represent the day-to-day running costs incurred in normal operations.

Building and infrastructure maintenance and equipment repairs and maintenance:
Repairs and maintenance costs are recognised as expenses as incurred, except where they relate to the replacement of a significant component of an asset. In that case, the costs are capitalised and depreciated.

Doubtful debts expense
Doubtful debts expense was recognised as the movement in the provision allowance for doubtful debts. From 2018-19, expected credit losses expense is recognised as the movement in the allowance for expected credit losses. The allowance for expected credit losses of trade receivables is measured at the lifetime expected credit losses at each reporting date. The Board has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

(a) Service Appropriations are recognised as revenues at fair value in the period in which the Board gains control of the appropriated funds. The Board gains control of appropriated funds at the time those funds are deposited in the bank account or credited to the ‘Amounts receivable for services’ (holding account) held at Treasury.

Service appropriations fund the net cost of services delivered. Appropriation revenue comprises the following:

- Cash component; and
- A receivable (asset).

The receivable (holding account – note 5.2) comprises the following:

- The budgeted depreciation expense for the year; and
- Any agreed increase in leave liabilities during the year.

(b) Transfer of assets: Discretionary transfers of assets (including grants) and liabilities between State government agencies are reported under Income from State Government. Transfers of assets and liabilities in relation to a restructure of administrative arrangements are recognised as distribution to owners by the transferor and contribution by owners by the transferee under AASB 1004. Other non-discretionary non-reciprocal transfers of assets and liabilities designated as contributions by owners under TI 955 are also recognised directly to equity.

(c) Assets or services received free of charge or for nominal cost are recognised as revenue at fair value of the assets and/or services that can be reliably measured and which would have been purchased if they were not donated. Contributions of assets or services in the nature of contributions by owners are recognised direct to equity.

Sales
Revenue is recognised from the sale of goods and disposal of other assets when the significant risks and rewards of ownership transfer to the purchaser and can be measured reliably.

Inventories
The Board’s inventories relate to stock held. Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs are assigned on an average cost basis.

(a) RHAS has provided a desktop update for 2018-19 for financial reporting purpose.
Initial recognition

Items of property, plant and equipment, costing $5,000 or more are measured initially at cost. Where an asset is acquired for no or nominal cost, the cost is valued at its fair value at the date of acquisition. Items of property, plant and equipment and infrastructure costing less than $5,000 are immediately expensed direct to the Statement of Comprehensive Income (other than where they form part of a group of similar items which are significant in total).

Assets transferred as part of a machinery of government change are transferred at their fair value.

No capitalisation threshold is applied to works of art items. Items of works of art are considered to form part of a collection and are disclosed separately in the Statement of Financial Position.

Subsequent measurement

Subsequent to initial recognition of an asset, the revaluation model is used for the measurement of:

- Works of art

Where market-based evidence is available, the fair value of works of art is determined on the basis of current market values determined by reference to recent market transactions.

Fair value for restricted use works of art is determined by reference to its estimated replacement costs.

Significant assumptions and judgements: The most significant assumptions and judgements in estimating fair value are made in assessing whether to apply the existing use basis to assets and in determining estimated economic life. Professional judgement by the valuer is required where the evidence does not provide a clear distinction between market type assets and existing use assets.

The Gallery's works of art collection is subject to a revaluation every five years, using a sampling methodology. As the collection is specialised and no market-based evidence of value is readily available, the revaluation methodology used is based upon certain criteria that enable the collection to be valued at a reasonable estimate of its fair value. The last revaluation commenced in 2014-15 and was completed in 2015-16. Additionally, the fair value of the artwork collection is assessed annually based on changes in the market.

De-recognition
Upon disposal or de-recognition of an item of property, plant and equipment and artwork, any revaluation surplus relating to that asset is retained in the asset revaluation surplus.

Asset Revaluation surplus
The asset revaluation surplus is used to record increments and decrements on the revaluation of non-current assets on a class of assets basis as described in note 4.1 ‘Property, Plant and Equipment and Works of Art’.

As at 30 June 2019 there were no indications of impairment to property, plant and equipment or infrastructure.

Finite useful lives
All infrastructure, property, plant and equipment having a limited useful life are systematically depreciated over their estimated useful lives in a manner that reflects the consumption of their future economic benefits. The exceptions to this rule include items under operating leases, assets held for sale, land and investment properties.

Depreciation is generally calculated on a straight line basis, at rates that allocate the asset’s value, less any estimated residual value, over its estimated useful life. Typical estimated useful lives for the different asset classes for current and prior years are included in the table below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

Notes to the Financial Statements

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each annual reporting period, and adjustments should be made where appropriate.

Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives.

Works of art, which are considered to have an indefinite life, are not depreciated. Depreciation is not recognised in respect of these assets because their service potential has not, in any material sense, been consumed during the reporting period.

Impairment
Non-financial assets, including items of property, plant and equipment, are tested for impairment whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired. Where there is an indication of impairment, the recoverable amount is estimated. Where the recoverable amount is less than the carrying amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to the recoverable amount and an impairment loss is recognised.

Where an asset measured at cost is written down to its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognised through profit or loss.

Where a previously revalued asset is written down to its recoverable amount, the loss is recognised as a revaluation decrement through other comprehensive income.

As the Board is a not-for-profit entity, unless a specialised asset has been identified as a surplus asset, the recoverable amount of regularly revalued specialised assets is anticipated to be materially the same as fair value.

If there is an indication that there has been a reversal in impairment, the carrying amount shall be increased to its recoverable amount. However this reversal should not increase the asset’s carrying amount above what would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised in prior years.

The risk of impairment is generally limited to circumstances where an asset’s depreciation is materially understated, where the replacement cost is falling or where there is a significant change in useful life. Each relevant class of assets is reviewed annually to verify that the accumulated depreciation/amortisation reflects the level of consumption or expiration of the asset’s future economic benefits and to evaluate any impairment risk from declining replacement costs.
5. Other assets and liabilities

This section sets out those assets and liabilities that arose from the Board’s controlled operations and includes other assets utilised for economic benefits and liabilities incurred during normal operations:

Payables are recognised at the amounts payable when the Board becomes obliged to make future payments as a result of a purchase of assets or services. The carrying amount is equivalent to fair value, as settlement is generally within 30 days.

Accrued salaries represent the amount due to staff but unpaid at the end of the reporting period. Accrued salaries are settled within a fortnight of the reporting period end. The Board considers the carrying amount of accrued salaries to be equivalent to its fair value.

(a) Cash held in these accounts can only be used in accordance with the requirements of the individual bequest or fund.
(b) These are restricted balances for the 27th fortnightly salaries pay occurring in 2026-27.
Notes to the Financial Statements

The “27th pay holding account with Treasury WA” (See Note 6.1 ‘Restricted cash and cash equivalents’) consists of amounts paid annually, from Board appropriations for salaries expense, into a Treasury suspense account to meet the additional cash outflow for employee salary payments in reporting periods with 27 pay days instead of the normal 26. No interest is received on this account.

(c) The Board cannot spend cash held in these accounts. The requirements of the individual bequests allow the Board to only spend interest earned on these accounts.

6.2 Commitments
6.2.1 Non cancellable lease commitments

Non-cancellable operating lease commitments
Commitments for minimum lease payments are payable as follows:

The two motor vehicle leases are all non-cancellable operating leases with lease expenditure payable monthly in advance. The commitments are inclusive of GST.

Operating leases are expensed on a straight line basis over the lease term as this represents the pattern of benefits derived from the leased properties.

8.1 Events occurring after the end of the reporting period

Subsequent to the end of the reporting period, the value of the quoted shares as at 26 Aug 2019 was $3,585,000. This is a non-adjusting subsequent event and therefore the movement in fair value has not been recognised in the 30 June 2019 financial report.

8.2 Initial application of Australian Accounting Standards

AASB 9 Financial Instruments

AASB 9 Financial instruments replaces AASB 139 Financial instruments: Recognition and Measurements for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018, bringing together all three aspects of the accounting for financial instruments: classification and measurement; impairment; and hedge accounting. The Board applied AASB 9 prospectively, with an initial application date of 1 July 2018. The adoption of AASB 9 has resulted in changes in accounting policies in relation to the amounts recognised in the financial statements. In accordance with AASB 9.7.2.15, the Board has not restated the comparative information which continues to be reported under AASB 139.
Notes to the Financial Statements

The effect was not considered to be material therefore no adjustment was made to comparative information.

The nature of these adjustments are described below:

(a) Classification and measurement

Under AASB 9, financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (fair value through OCI) or fair value through profit or loss (fair value through P/L). The classification is based on two criteria: the Board’s business model for managing the assets; and whether the assets’ contractual cash flows represent ‘solely payments of principal and interest’ on the principal amount outstanding.

The assessment of the Board’s business model was made as of the date of initial application, 1 July 2018. The assessment of whether contractual cash flows on financial assets are solely comprised of principal and interest was made based on the facts and circumstances as at the initial recognition of the assets.

The classification and measurement requirements of AASB 9 did not have a significant impact to the Board. The following are the changes in the classification of the Board’s financial assets:

- Trade receivables and Loans and advances (i.e. Other debtors) classified as Loans and receivables as at 30 June 2018 are held to collect contractual cash flows and give rise to cash flows representing solely payments of principal and interest. These are classified and measured as Financial assets at amortised cost beginning 1 July 2018.

The Board has designated its investment in ordinary listed shares at fair value through P/L. This classification remains unchanged from that at 30 June 2018.

(b) Impairment

The adoption of AASB 9 has fundamentally changed the Board’s accounting for impairment losses for financial assets by replacing AASB 139’s incurred loss approach with a forward-looking expected credit loss (ECL) approach. AASB 9 requires the Board to recognise an allowance for ECLs for all financial assets not held at fair value through P/L.

Upon adoption of AASB 9, the Agency did not recognise an additional impairment on the Agency’s Trade receivables of $nil which resulted in a decrease in Accumulated surplus/(deficit) of $nil as at 1 July 2018.
8.3 Key Management Personnel

The Board has determined key management personnel to include cabinet ministers and senior officers of the Board. The Board does not incur expenditures to compensate Ministers and those disclosures may be found in the Annual Report on State Finances.

The total fees, salaries and superannuation, non-monetary benefits and other benefits for senior officers of the Board for the reporting period are presented within the following bands:

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT
To the Parliament of Western Australia
THE BOARD OF THE ART GALLERY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Report on the Financial Statements

Opinion

I have audited the financial statements of The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia which comprise the Statement of Financial Position as at 30 June 2019, the Statement of Comprehensive Income, Statement of Changes in Equity, Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and Notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In my opinion, the financial statements are based on proper accounts and present fairly, in all material respects, the operating results and cash flows of The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia for the year ended 30 June 2019 and the financial position at the end of that period. They are in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the Financial Management Act 2006 and the Treasurer’s Instructions.

Basis for Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards. My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of my report. I am independent of the Board in accordance with the Auditor General Act 2006 and the relevant ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board’s APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to my audit of the financial statements. I have also fulfilled my other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Responsibility of the Board for the Financial Statements

The Board is responsible for keeping proper accounts, and the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the Financial Management Act 2006 and the Treasurer’s Instructions, and for such internal control as the Board determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, the Board is responsible for assessing the agency’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Western Australian Government has made policy or funding decisions affecting the continued existence of the Board.

Auditor’s Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

As required by the Auditor General Act 2006, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements. The objectives of my audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards, I exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the agency’s internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the agency’s ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor’s report.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

I communicate with the Board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

Report on Controls

Opinion

I have undertaken a reasonable assurance engagement on the design and implementation of controls exercised by The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia. The controls exercised by the Board are those policies and procedures established by the Board to ensure that the receipt, expenditure and investment of money, the acquisition and disposal of property, and the incurring of liabilities have been in accordance with legislative provisions (the overall control objectives).

My opinion has been formed on the basis of the matters outlined in this report. In my opinion, in all material respects, the controls exercised by The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia are sufficiently adequate to provide reasonable assurance that the receipt, expenditure and investment of money, the acquisition and disposal of property and the incurring of liabilities have been in accordance with legislative provisions during the year ended 30 June 2019.

The Board’s Responsibilities

The Board is responsible for designing, implementing and maintaining controls to ensure that the receipt, expenditure and investment of money, the acquisition and disposal of property, and the incurring of liabilities are in accordance with the Financial Management Act 2006, the Treasurer’s Instructions and other relevant written law.

Auditor General’s Responsibilities

As required by the Auditor General Act 2006, my responsibility as an assurance practitioner is to express an opinion on the suitability of the design of the controls to achieve the overall control objectives and the implementation of the controls as designed. I conducted my engagement in accordance with Standard on Assurance Engagements ASAE 3150 Assurance Engagements on Controls issued by the Australian Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. That standard requires that I comply with relevant ethical requirements and plan and perform my procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether, in all material respects, the controls are suitably designed to achieve the overall control objectives and the controls, necessary to achieve the overall control objectives, were implemented as designed.

An assurance engagement to report on the design and implementation of controls involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the suitability of the design of controls to achieve the overall control objectives and the implementation of those controls. The procedures selected depend on my judgement, including the assessment of the risks that controls are not suitably designed or implemented as designed. My procedures included testing the implementation of those controls that I consider necessary to achieve the overall control objectives.

I believe that the evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Limitations of Controls

Because of the inherent limitations of any internal control structure it is possible that, even if the controls are suitably designed and implemented as designed, once the controls are in operation, the overall control objectives may not be achieved so that fraud, error, or noncompliance with laws and regulations may occur and not be detected. Any projection of the outcome of the evaluation of the suitability of the design of controls to future periods is subject to the risk that the controls may become unsuitable because of changes in conditions.

Report on the Key Performance Indicators

Opinion

I have undertaken a reasonable assurance engagement on the key performance indicators of The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia for the year ended 30 June 2019. The key performance indicators are the key effectiveness indicators and the key efficiency indicators that provide performance information about achieving outcomes and delivering services.

In my opinion, in all material respects, the key performance indicators of The Board of the Art Gallery of Western Australia are relevant and appropriate to assist users to assess the Board's performance and fairly represent indicated performance for the year ended 30 June 2019.

The Board’s Responsibilities for the Key Performance Indicators

The Board is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the key performance indicators in accordance with the Financial Management Act 2006 and the Treasurer’s Instructions and for such internal control as the Board determines necessary to enable the preparation of key performance indicators that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the key performance indicators, the Board is responsible for identifying key performance indicators that are relevant and appropriate having regard to their purpose in accordance with Treasurer’s Instruction 904 Key Performance Indicators.

Auditor General’s Responsibilities

As required by the Auditor General Act 2006, my responsibility as an assurance practitioner is to express an opinion on the key performance indicators. The objectives of my engagement are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the key performance indicators are relevant and appropriate to assist users to assess the agency’s performance and whether the key performance indicators are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes my opinion.

I conducted my engagement in accordance with Standard on Assurance Engagements ASAE 3000 Assurance Engagements Other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information issued by the Australian Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. That standard requires that I comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to assurance engagements.

An assurance engagement involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the key performance indicators. It also involves evaluating the relevance and appropriateness of the key performance indicators against the criteria and guidance in Treasurer’s Instruction 904 for measuring the extent of outcome achievement and the efficiency of service delivery. The procedures selected depend on my judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the key performance indicators. In making these risk assessments I obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the engagement in order to design procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances.

I believe that the evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

My Independence and Quality Control Relating to the Reports on Controls and Key Performance Indicators

I have complied with the independence requirements of the Auditor General Act 2006 and the relevant ethical requirements relating to assurance engagements. In accordance with ASQC 1 Quality Control for Firms that Perform Audits and Reviews of Financial Reports and Other Financial Information, and Other Assurance Engagements, the Office of the Auditor General maintains a comprehensive system of quality control including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Key Performance Indicator Information

The Art Gallery of Western Australia is a statutory authority within the Culture and Arts portfolio, and its annual budget and outcome are included in the budget statements under the outcome for the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC).

The Gallery services contribute within the portfolio framework primarily to the Government Goal:

“Better Places: A quality environment with liveable and affordable communities, and vibrant regions.”

The Government Desired Outcomes for the Gallery are that:

- Western Australia’s State Art Collection asset is developed, preserved and appropriately managed.
- Western Australia’s State Art Collection and works of art on loan are accessible.

The funds allocated to the Gallery to achieve its outcomes in the State Budget statements are allocated under services identified as:

- Cultural Heritage Management and Conservation, which provides appropriate management, development and care of the State’s Art Collection asset under the Art Gallery Act 1959; and
- Cultural Heritage Access and Community Engagement and Education, which provides access and interpretation of the State Art Collection and works of art on loan through art gallery services that encourage community engagement with the visual arts in accordance with the Art Gallery Act 1959.

Key performance indicators have been developed in accordance with Treasurer’s Instruction 904 to evaluate the Gallery’s performance in achieving the Government Desired Outcome and provide an overview of the critical and material aspects of service provision.
Key Performance Indicators

Preservation

Outcome 1: Western Australia's State Art Collection asset is developed, appropriately managed and preserved

Indicator 1: Percentage of the collection stored to the required standard

An indicator of the level of preservation is the proportion of time that the storage and display environment is not breached.

<td>98.40%</td>
<td>97.75%</td>
<td>97.02%</td>
<td>97%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Explanatory notes

The environment within which artworks are stored and displayed is a principal indicator of the effort being taken to preserve them for future generations. Indicators of the ‘storage and display environment’ are temperature and relative humidity. The Gallery uses the generally agreed international standards for temperature of 21ºC ± 2ºC and relative humidity of 50% ± 5% as the benchmarks. In calculating the proportion of time that the storage and display environment has not been breached, that is the proportion of time the humidity and temperature has been within the accepted standards, the Gallery uses a composite average of the environmental data from the three principal storage and display environments within the Art Gallery: The Main Gallery Display, the Centenary Galleries Display, Main Gallery Stores including print room, and the Conservation area. Averages for these are calculated at 92.64%, 96.27%, 98.67%, 93.23%, and 93.72%, respectively for humidity and 98.73%, 98.53%, 99.99%, 99.58%, and 98.86%, for temperature. On average the Gallery maintained the storage and display environment within the standards for humidity for 94.90% of the time and temperature for 99.14% of the time which produces a combined average of 97.02% of operational hours when the storage and display environment was maintained within the standards. This year’s actual is similar to that of the past year due to continued maintenance and centralised plant processes, and remains slightly above the target figure.
Key Performance Indicators

Accessibility

Outcome 2: Western Australia’s State Art Collection and works of art on loan are accessible.

Indicator 2.1: Number of people accessing the collection

An indicator of accessibility is the number of visitors to the Gallery and number of online visitors.

<td>204,696</td>
<td>142,115</td>
<td>200,000</td>

</tbody>
</table>

Explanatory notes

Visitors are determined by the number of attendances during opening hours and attendances at venue hire functions. The number of Gallery visitors was 264,858 and 7,378 people attended functions for a total of 272,236 attendances.

Total number of online visitors to website consists of the unique visitors totalling 142,115.

In 2017–18 the Gallery programmed two Culture Juice exhibitions including the uniquely popular Heath Ledger: A Life in Pictures. In 2018–19 one Culture Juice exhibition was programmed with a further one scheduled for late 2019. Visitation in 2017–18 was also higher due to increased marketing expenditure around the Corsini exhibition. In February 2019 AGWA launched a new website and online visitation has increased since.

Accessibility – continued

Indicator 2.2: Percentage of visitors satisfied with visit overall

An indicator of the effectiveness of the Gallery in providing for the enjoyment and cultural enrichment of the people of Western Australia is shown by visitor satisfaction with Gallery art services. The Gallery engages a market research firm to survey customers.

<table>

<tr>

<td>94%</td>
<td>93%</td>
<td>91%</td>
<td>95%</td>
<td>93%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Explanatory notes

Visitors’ satisfaction with their overall visit is primarily measured by surveying visitors to the Gallery to determine how satisfied they have been with the displays and programs. Satisfaction is measured by a statistically valid survey. The market research consultants have advised that the sample used provides a maximum survey error of +/-3.69% at the 95% confidence level. The customer satisfaction survey is conducted by Morris Hargreaves McIntyre. The question answered by customers which provides the percentage satisfaction rating was:

> Thinking about your visit to Art Gallery of Western Australia today, including the exhibitions on display and the facilities provided, how satisfied or dissatisfied were you with the experience overall?

With 95% of visitors indicating they were ‘very satisfied’ or ‘satisfied’ with their visit to the Gallery, this is a significant increase (4%) on the previous year. This is driven by a substantial increase in satisfaction for returned visitors who last visited AGWA 12 months or more months ago. The overall satisfaction from this group increased from 89% to 97%, suggesting their recent visit had been very positive.
Actual Actual Actual Actual Target
Average cost of managing the Collection per Art Gallery object $72.53 $57.56 $46.35 $50.46 $53.68

Explanatory notes
The average cost relates to the level of resource input to the services provided. This indicator is arrived at using the following formula:

\[
\text{Average cost} = \frac{\text{Total cost of Cultural Heritage Management and Conservation Service}}{\text{Total number of objects}}
\]

The total cost of the Cultural Heritage Management and Conservation service was $904,368 and the total number of objects in the Collection was 17,922.

The increase in the average cost of managing the Collection per Art Gallery object services in 2018–19, compared to 2017–18 is mainly due to increased staff resources involved in managing the Collection. The actual average cost of managing the collection in 2018–19 was less than the target, as the target included staff costs related to employees who took the voluntary targeted severance scheme offer.

<td>$26.71</td>
<td>$22.31</td>
<td>$20.35</td>
<td>$22.81</td>
<td>$21.39</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Explanatory notes

The average cost relates to the level of resource input to the services provided. This indicator is arrived at using the following formula:

\[
\text{Average cost} = \frac{\text{Total cost of Cultural Heritage Access and Community Engagement Service}}{\text{Total number of accesses}}
\]

The total cost of the Cultural Heritage Access and Community Engagement service was $9,450,632 and the total number of Art Gallery accesses was 414,351.

The increase in the average cost of art gallery services in 2018–19, compared to 2017–18 is due mainly to a decrease in Gallery accesses (2019: 414,351; 2018: 580,394). The increase in the average cost of art gallery services in 2018–19, compared to target 2018–19 actual cost is due to higher visitation numbers budgeted in 2018–19.
